CHARGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Safe Places to Learn & Play

Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles

The Los Angeles Chargers are proud to support the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Los Angeles (BGCMLA) in their mission to enable all young people in LA to reach their full potential as productive, caring, and responsible citizens. In 2018 the Chargers announced a two-year, $400,000 donation to the BGCMLA to fund facility renovations and educational programming. The first year of Chargers funding renovated two multi-sport athletic fields and a teen center in South Los Angeles. The second year of funding is slated for another teen center in South Los Angeles and STEM programming across all BGCMLA clubhouses. This partnership is an investment in the youth from some of the region's most consistently under-resourced neighborhoods and will provide a fun and safe space for children to grow and learn for years to come.

Summer Night Lights

In 2018, the Chargers kicked off a three-year, $1.2 million investment in youth sports programming during Summer Night Lights through the Los Angeles Mayor's Office of Gang Reduction & Youth Development (GRYD) and the GRYD Foundation. For over a decade, Summer Night Lights has kept recreation centers and parks open and provided free programming to youth and adults during late evening hours to keep vulnerable youth off the streets. The Chargers support ensures that youth sports programming at all 32 locations across Los Angeles remain free, providing a safe place for kids to play in their neighborhoods. If you visit your local park during Summer Night Lights you might run into the Chargers Street Team, who are visiting a new location each week.

Community Tuesday

Each Tuesday during the regular season, Chargers players, Chargers alumni and Charger Girls participate in events throughout the region to positively impact the lives of our youth.

In 2018, Chargers players participated in 133 community events!

TeamSmile

The Chargers have partnered with TeamSmile, a nonprofit that provides dental care and education to underserved children, for six years. Since 2018, over 700 children from Los Angeles and Orange Counties have received X-Rays, full dental care, education and a chance to meet Chargers players and Charger Girls through this program.

PCRF Trick-or-Treat Trail

At Halloween, Head Coach Anthony Lynn joined Chargers players Joey Bosa, Damion Square and Rayshawn Jenkins as they hosted patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for a "trick-or-treat trail" through the Chargers headquarters at Hoag Performance Center.

Bikes for Kids

Continuing a tradition that began over fifteen years ago, the Chargers once again teamed up with the nonprofit Bikes for Kids to surprise 150 deserving local students with new bikes. In 2018, California Resources Corporation provided helmets and The California Endowment added bike locks and reflectors to help keep the kids safe on their new bikes.

WSS Shoe Distribution

In partnership with WSS, the Chargers continued their yearly tradition of providing underserved youth a backpack and shoes for the new school year. Since 2017, 900 Carson and Inglewood students have received a free backpack, socks and shoes with help from Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff who assisted in finding that perfect fit.

Employee Voluteer

During the week of the Chargers 2018 international game in London, more than 40 Chargers staff packaged 285,120 meals for Rise Against Hunger. All meals were sent to Salesian Missions, a Cambodian organization.

Youth & High School Football

Coach of the Week

Each week throughout the high school football season, the Chargers select one deserving head coach from Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties as Coach of the Week. Each coach receives a $1,000 grant for their school's athletic department from the Chargers Community Foundation, is honored on Chargers.com, and attends a Chargers home game. In 2018, 33 coaches were honored for their commitment to high school football and dedication to their schools.

Youth Football Tradition

During every Chargers home game, one lucky youth football team participates in the Chargers Youth Football Tradition. Each team receives free tickets and parking to the game, a pre-game field visit to watch the Chargers warm up, and the opportunity to run out of the tunnel before the Chargers players and Chargers Girls to start the game.

Cleat Donation Program

The Chargers provide new and lightly used football cleats straight from the team's equipment room to youth and high school football players throughout Southern California. Over the past three seasons, the team has outfitted hundreds of young athletes with professional quality cleats, as well as gloves and other apparel. To learn more or request cleats, visit Chargers.com/community/requests.

Disaster Relief

Since 2017, the Bolts have donated $500,000 to the American Red Cross, Los Angeles Region to assist their efforts of fighting natural disasters.

Woolsey Fire Response

- The Chargers donated $250,000 to the American Red Cross, Los Angeles to provide relief in response to the devastating Woolsey fire that scorched the LA region and burned homes in the fall of 2018.
- The Chargers raised $25,000 for local fire departments responding to the Woolsey Fire during the 50/50 game raffle on November 25, 2018.
- At the November 25, 2018 game, the Chargers honored Ventura County Firefighter Mike Williams as the official canon-firer in response to his actions that helped save his neighbors' homes while his burned down.

Chargers Community Foundation

Founded by the Spanos family in 1995 to supplement the efforts of the team's Community Relations Department, the Chargers Community Foundation leads the way in honoring volunteers, assisting youth sports, and helping critical causes important to the region. Since its inception, the Foundation has provided more than $11 million in direct community assistance, including more than $5 million in grants for athletic equipment and physical fitness programming in public schools; hundreds of thousands in funding to high school athletic programs through the annual Coach of the Week program; and millions of dollars in disaster relief assistance.

Celebrity Golf Invitational

During the offseason, the Chargers Community Foundation hosted the Second Annual Los Angeles Chargers Golf Invitational Presented by CHLA, with nearly every member of the roster on hand to participate in the putting competition or play the links. The tournament directly benefits the important and life changing work of the Chargers Community Foundation. Since the Foundation's inception more that $11 million in direct community assistance has been provided to support local youth fitness and nutrition initiatives.

Chargers Champions

Chargers Champions, the Chargers Community Foundation's signature program, provides funds directly to educational institutions to support youth fitness and nutrition. Since 2000, the initiative has granted more that $6 million to schools, teachers and students in Imperial Counties. In 2018, Chargers Champions awarded $208,000 to eight schools.

Junior Chargers Training Camps

Junior Chargers Training Camps (Play60) are a fun, recreational way for kids to get outside, be active, and participate in real NFL-style drills. Each year the Los Angeles Chargers provide these camp opportunities to boys and girls aged 6-14 through schools and youth programs throughout Southern California. In 2018, the Chargers hosted 100 Play60 camps, impacting 12,378 youth in Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego Counties, resulting in more than 8,100 minutes of physical activity!

Inglewood Play60 Blitz

In 2018, 150 lucky students from Inglewood Unified School District took part in the Rookie Play60 Blitz with first-round draft pick Derwin James, second-round draft pick and LA native Uchenna Nwosu and the entire 2018 Rookie Class. This special event was opened by Inglewood Mayor, James T. Butts and volunteers from the Inglewood Police Department. All were on hand to help the Chargers run positional drills with the students and speak with them on the importance of getting at least 60 minutes of physical activity a day.

Character Playbook

Over the past year, the Chargers partnered with Everfi to expand Character Playbook across Southern California. Designed by the NFL, The United Way and Everfi, Character Playbook is a digital in-school program that teaches students how to build healthy relationships, make good decisions and to stand up when they see questionable activity. The Chargers helped bring the program to more than 7,700 students across the region.

Salute to our Military and Veterans

Alex Spanos proudly served his country as a tail gunner in the United States Air Force from 1942 to 1946. Years later, he built a friendship with Bob Hope that started on the golf course and took them around the world performing for USO tours together. The Chargers know that we owe a debt of service to those who have borne the battle on our behalf, which is why the organization and the family continue to honor Alex Spanos' commitment to our troops. In addition to showing our gratitude to active-duty military through facility visits and donated tickets. The Chargers are committed to helping veterans in our region lead healthy and empowered lives.

- The Chargers honored 10 TAPS (Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors) families at the 2018 Salute to Service game. The gold-star families had an opportunity to attend practice and meet the players who wore their fallen soldiers' initial decal on their helmet during November.
- 250 Marines and Army enlisted at 2018 home games.
- Partnered with ROKiT and Veterans Advocacy Group of America to feed 150 veterans a Thanksgiving meal.
- Throughout the 2018 season, the Chargers hosted more than 100 active duty servicemembers and veterans, who toured the facility and met with players after practice.

ALEX & FAYE SPANOS

Remembering Alex Spanos

Alexander Gus Spanos, Chargers owner and Spanos family patriarch, was the embodiment of the American dream. Alex's legacy is one of perseverance, compassion, philanthropy and, most of all, a passion for his family – a family that will carry on his spirit for generations to come.

Alex was, quite simply, a force of nature who inspired everyone he encountered, rising from humble beginnings to become an American business icon. He was a devoted husband, loving father, doting grandfather and great-grandfather, celebrated businessman, loyal friend, generous philanthropist and a compassionate man who cared deeply for his community.

Born in South Stockton to Greek immigrants Constantinos "Gus" Spanos and Evanthia Tsopelas Koumentakou in 1923, Alex's tireless work ethic and fearlessness was instilled in him at an early age. When he was eight years old he began working at his father's bakery, waking up at 4 a.m. to bake bread and pastries before school. He worked 15-hour days for seven days a week through his early adulthood.

While pursuing an engineering degree at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, his studies were put on hold following the attack on Pearl Harbor. In 1942, Alex left college to enlist in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed at Tarpon Springs, Florida. It was there that he met the love of his life, Faye Papafaklis, who remained by his side for the next 77 years.

Once Alex's military service ended in 1946, he came home to Stockton and enrolled in the University of the Pacific. After going back to work at his father's restaurant making $40 a week, he married Faye in 1948 and the happy couple welcomed their first son, Dean, in 1950.

With another baby on the way and his family struggling to make ends meet, Alex left his father's restaurant and set out to create a catering business of his own. Alex and Faye began making bologna sandwiches at their house and, after taking out an $800 loan to purchase a truck, launched A.G. Spanos Agricultural Catering. Selling sandwiches to local farmers in the San Juan Valley, a mere six months later, he was able to buy a house for his family and pay off his father's debts. By 1951, the 27-year old Spanos had $35,000 to his name.

Alex made more money in the four months after leaving his father's bakery than in the 20 years he worked at the store. This proved to be the first of many daring business ventures Spanos would pursue. By 1956, he had earned enough to comfortably provide for his family, which now also consisted of two daughters, Dea and Alexis, and another son, Michael.

At the suggestion of his accountant, Alex began investing in real estate even though he knew little about the field. Relying on his work ethic and fearless attitude, he earned his first million within a year and come 1960, had established A.G. Spanos Construction. By the mid-seventies the company had grown to become the number one builder of apartments across the nation.

Now firmly established in the business world, Alex began his pursuit of a childhood dream – owning a professional sports team. With football his top passion, on August 1, 1984, dreams became reality when Alex purchased the San Diego Chargers.

Although Alex had a renowned reputation in the real estate and development industry, he had to prove himself all over again in the NFL. He described this part of his life as one that, at times, was filled with heartbreak but ultimately brought him the highlight of his career when the Chargers beat the Steelers to play in Super Bowl XXIX.

Equally passionate about the franchise's impact off the field as much as between the white lines, Alex implemented many Chargers community outreach programs that exist to this day. The Chargers Community Foundation alone – which he created and funded – has donated more than $13 million over the years to support critical causes, individuals in need and organizations supporting the community. In 1994, Alex handed control of the team to his son, Dean. His passion for the Chargers, however, remained fierce as ever, traveling to every game with wife Faye – home or away – until health issues in 2008 made travel too difficult.

Philanthropy was of the utmost importance to Spanos, which is why he made significant contributions to educational institutions, the arts, relief assistance programs, veterans groups and hospitals. Devoutly Greek Orthodox, Alex was deeply proud of his heritage, instilling many of his traditions in the growing Spanos family. From raising funds to rebuild a 140-year-old church to providing relief after a natural disaster, Alex gave back to the Greek community as well. In 2008, he was awarded the Medal of the Commander of the Order of Honor for his humanitarian efforts in Greece by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

While Alex accomplished much over his 95 years, nothing compared to the pride he felt for his family – a major reason he surrounded himself with them at every turn. He involved them in his company at an early age, often crediting them for helping build A.G. Spanos Companies into the country's largest family-owned construction company.

While Alex may be gone, he will never be forgotten. His legacy is sure to be carried on by those who loved him most – his four children, Dean, Dea Spanos Berberian, Alexis Spanos Ruhl and Michael; 15 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Remembering Faye Spanos

Faye Spanos was born in 1926 to Greek immigrant parents in Tarpon Springs, Florida. She was by nature, a loving and sweet person who found joy in everything. When she was just 18 years old, she met the love of her life, Alex Spanos, who was in the Air Force and stationed at Drew Field in Tampa at the time. After a long-distance courtship, Alex and Faye married in 1948 in Faye's hometown of Tarpon Springs.

Once married, Faye and Alex settled in Stockton, Calif. and worked side by side in the kitchen at the Roma Lunch Bakery, an establishment owned by Alex's father. The young couple began to build their family as they welcomed their children, Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael.

As their children grew, so did her husband's success in business. Faye accepted his financial prosperity by opening her heart and home and sharing their good fortune first with their large extended families and then, with their community. As someone who personified kindness, grace and compassion, she and her husband made donations benefitting schools, children, the arts, hospitals and people in need.

Faye taught everyone around her by example, never admonishing, never reprimanding and never raising her voice. Guided by faith, she lived her beliefs every day of her life and treated everyone with the dignity and respect they deserved.

Faye Spanos' name in Greek derives from the Greek word for light. And throughout her life Faye was the light and rock for Alex and for her family. She was a blessing to all who met her and the essence that brought balance, encouragement, faith, support and love to her family.

DEAN A. SPANOS

CONTROLLING OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Under the leadership of Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos, the Los Angeles Chargers are making bold moves to set up the franchise for long-term success in their return to the second largest media market in the country. Spanos is providing senior leadership, strategic direction and critical resources as the Chargers continue to write the next chapter in their storied history.

Spanos has led the team through numerous franchise records and victories. During the 11 seasons from 2004-14, the Chargers won 113 games (playoffs included) -- five of which were AFC West championships (2004, 2006-09) -- and four playoff games. Only three teams in the NFL won more games during that time span.

Named President of the Chargers in early 1994 – the same year the team culminated its most memorable season with an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX – Dean, along with his father Alex Spanos, also secured Super Bowl XXXII (1998) and Super Bowl XXXVII (2003) for their community, with each event netting in excess of $300 million for the local economy.

In 2015, Spanos handed over the reins of day-to-day leadership to sons A.G. and John. Eldest son A.G. Spanos now serves as President of Business Operations while John Spanos heads up the other side of the business as President of Football Operations.

Dean's leadership is also present throughout the National Football League. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), he played an integral role in negotiating the NFL's current labor agreement. Additionally, through 2015, Spanos served as chairman of the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, which has oversight regarding various league commercial activities including consumer products, sponsorship, events, marketing and new business initiatives. Spanos, who continues to serve on both committees, also owns previous committee work that includes membership on the NFL's International and Legislative Committees.

Aside from football, Spanos also serves as CEO of the A.G. Spanos Companies, and along with his brother, Michael, oversees all construction operations nationwide.

TRADITION OF GIVING

The Spanos family has a multi-generation commitment to community involvement and is recognized both as one of the NFL's most philanthropic families as well as one of Southern California's most active and caring contributors to local causes. Their financial and emotional support for youth, sports, education and our brave men and women in uniform has been a hallmark of their team ownership and legacy.

In 1995, the Spanos family created The Chargers Community Foundation, which has provided nearly $13 million – and was benefitted this past year by the second annual Chargers Invitational at Rolling Hills golf tournament – to support a wide range of services and programs directly benefiting children and families. In 1999, Dean Spanos created the Foundation's largest ongoing program, Chargers Champions, which has provided nearly $6 million in direct assistance to schools, teachers, and students. The program provides grants to improve fitness, nutrition and athletic programs on school campuses.

The generosity of the Spanos family reaches throughout California and has often extended into other states when needs have arisen. When wildfires ravaged San Diego County in 2003, and again in 2007, the family made identical $1 million donations to aid affected families and the recovery effort. When wildfires struck Los Angeles, Ventura and San Diego Counties in December 2017, the Spanos family once again stepped up with a $250,000 donation to the American Red Cross – less than three months after committing $500,000 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts and hosting a food and supply drive in Los Angeles for victims in flood-ravaged areas of Houston, Texas.

Following the passing of former Chargers linebacker Junior Seau in 2012, Dean and his wife Susie brought a shocked team and community together when they hosted a "Celebration of Life" for Seau. The event was seen and heard live by more than 150,000 fans and helped a grieving community heal and pay tribute to its native son.

In 2014 the A.G. Spanos Heart and Vascular Center at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento opened thanks to a lead gift of $15 million from the family, the largest gift Mercy General had ever received. In speaking at the opening, Dean said the family's commitment to Mercy General Hospital was to ensure that no one from the region would ever be turned away from proper care for lack of space or the kind of critical care they needed.

Also in 2014, Spanos pledged $500,000 to the University of California-San Diego to upgrade and expand the existing Alex G. Spanos Training Facility, which was then renamed and opened as the Alex G. Spanos Athletic Performance Center. UCSD is the Chargers' former training camp home, and this gift raised the value of the family's support of the institution to more than $1.6 million.

Known for his generous backing of youth and high school football, in 2015 Spanos and the Chargers were honored by National Pop Warner with its prestigious NFL Team of the Year Award – a recognition of the team's outstanding support for youth football and cheer at all levels. The Chargers, who were also honored in 2007, are the only NFL team to be so honored twice.

Spanos has also been a long-time contributor to many other important charities and organizations working to improve the lives of children and families, including: the Make-A-Wish Foundation; American Cancer Society; Armed Services YMCA; Susan G. Komen; Rady Children's Hospital; Girl Scouts; Huntington's Disease Society; San Diego Blood Bank; STAR/PAL; Special Olympics of Southern California; San Diego Food Bank; Casa de Amparo; and the Salvation Army.

In June of 2018, Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti kicked off the second decade of Summer Night Lights (SNL) by announcing Spanos and the Chargers' three-year, $1.2 million commitment to the program – which keeps 32 parks across the region open between the hours of 7 pm – 11 pm by adding extended programming during the summer. Targeting communities at risk for gang violence, SNL locations saw a 46% decrease in gang-related crimes from 2016 to 2017. The Chargers' funding will expand sports programming across all 32 locations – including uniforms for participants, referees and increased access to sports clinics – while ensuring it remains free for all participants.

COMMUNITY HONORS

In appreciation of their ongoing generosity, Dean and Susie Spanos have often been the recipients of numerous accolades. In 2018 alone, the Chargers were honored as Red Cross LA's Humanitarian Organization of the Year and presented with the Mayor's Award from the Association of Corporate Growth (ACG) Los Angeles – both in recognition of the impact they have made in the greater Los Angeles community over the past year. The Spanos family has also been recognized with the Light of Hope Award from the Epilepsy Foundation of San Diego, the San Diego Military Advisory Council's annual Achievement Award and the Armed Services YMCA's Vice Admiral St. George Award for outstanding support for the region's active duty military and their families.

In 2014, the Spanos family received the Outstanding Community Service Award from among all family-owned businesses by the San Diego Business Journal.

The Make-A-Wish Foundation named the team its Wish-Granting Partner of the Year, while the California State Athletic Director's Association presented the Chargers with its President's Merit Award. The Rotary Club of San Diego's prestigious Heilbron Award was presented to the organization in recognition of the team's "pay it forward spirit – giving not only of itself but also its professional expertise to advance the well-being and success of others in the community."

In 2012, the Spanoses received the Herb Klein Spirit of San Diego Award from the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce - their highest community honor - and in 2011, the Salvation Army recognized Spanos and the Chargers' ongoing dedication to helping San Diego's homeless during their annual Golden Bell ceremony.

In 2010, the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized Spanos and the Chargers as San Diego's Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation and the American Diabetes Association honored Spanos as a Father of the Year. In 2007, the local Salvation Army named Dean and Susie as their Most Valuable Philanthropists.

In 2006, President George W. Bush appointed Spanos as a Board of Trustees member of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. That same year, he was the honored recipient of the Golden Achievement Award from the Boys & Girls Clubs of San Diego, and Junior Achievement of San Diego inducted him into its Hall of Fame for his community leadership and specifically for his support of youth education initiatives.

The Warner Award, the top honor of the national Pop Warner football organization, was bestowed on Spanos for his commitment to youth football and its Little Scholars education initiative in 2005. The San Diego Chapter of the National Football Foundation also presented him with its highest honor, the Distinguished American Award. In 2004, the Police Historical Society presented him with their first Cota Award for community philanthropy and support of law enforcement. Dean and Susie received the Harold Leventhal Community Service Award in 2003, the top national award of the Huntington's Disease Society of America.

Spanos has the unique distinction of being a second-generation recipient of the renowned Ellis Island Medal of Honor, so honored in 2002, 16 years after his father was similarly honored. He was also inducted into the DeMolay International Alumni Hall of Fame in 2002. DeMolay International is an organization dedicated to preparing young men to lead successful and productive lives.

In 2001, the San Diego Hall of Champions Sports Museum presented Dean and Susie with its Community Champions Award, the Hall's most distinguished award.

BUSINESSMAN AND FAMILY MAN

Dean Alexander Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He earned varsity letters in football and golf at Lincoln High School and later received Lincoln High School's Hall of Fame Award, which honors alumni whose contributions and accomplishments are representative of the school. Dean was recognized for his achievements in the areas of business as well as athletics.

Spanos continued his golfing career at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, graduating in 1972 with a degree in business administration. He maintains close ties with his alma mater, having served as a regent at the university. An avid golfer post-college, Dean has been on the winning team in five Pro-Am tournaments, including back-to-back wins in 1990 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic and the AT&T National Pro-Am at Pebble Beach with partner Hubert Green. He successfully defended his title at the Hope Classic the following year. Spanos' first win came with Green at the 1985 Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, where he was awarded the "Most Valuable Amateur" trophy for supplying the most help to his professional partner.

Susie Spanos is a spokeswoman for the NFL's annual A Crucial Catch cancer screening campaign and is a breast cancer survivor herself. She was honored as a "Woman of Dedication" by the Salvation Army and was also named the Woman of the Year by the San Diego Leukemia Society for her philanthropic work in the community.

In addition to currently serving as a Board member for the NFL Foundation, Susie has also served as a Board member and supported numerous other charitable organizations including the San Diego Women's Foundation, the board of the Salvation Army and as an advisory member for Las Patronas, one of San Diego's leading non-profit organizations. Susie was a driving force in supporting the Blood Bank's umbilical cord blood program, helping the Chargers' annual blood drive to become one of the most successful in the nation.

Dean and Susie have two sons, A.G. and John, and four grandsons.

MICHAEL A. SPANOS

VICE CHAIRMAN

Michael A. Spanos is Vice Chairman of the Chargers. In that capacity, he assists in financial and management matters pertaining to the team. Michael joins his brother – Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos – in steering the direction of the organization.

As president of the A.G. Spanos Companies, Michael is responsible for the company's planning and development activities around the country. He monitors and oversees the office divisions in states where the company builds and develops. His responsibilities also extend to the areas of property management, land acquisition and preparation of all plans for future direction, growth and construction of the company's multi-family communities and land development activities. From the company headquarters in Stockton, Michael regularly travels across the country to monitor and manage building projects.

Born in Stockton, Calif., he attended Lincoln High School and graduated from the University of the Pacific, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. In 1989, Michael was appointed to the Board of Regents at the University of the Pacific, where he served for five years. Michael continues to contribute both his time and resources to the development and support of charitable projects involving youth sports and education. He and his wife, Helen, have five children and reside in Stockton.

A.G. SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

A.G. Spanos was named President of Business Operations for the Chargers in May 2015 responsible for all day-to-day operations, including marketing, sales, communications, digital media and community relations. He also represents the organization at all NFL and ownership meetings.

Previously, Spanos served as executive vice president–chief executive officer from 2011-15, executive vice president–executive officer from 2008-10, and director of marketing programs and business development from 2003-07.

Over the past several seasons, there's been an unprecedented amount of change and also investment in the organization from a venue and personnel standpoint. Under Spanos' direction, the Chargers secured space for both training camp and a new practice facility in Costa Mesa during the 2017 offseason. The team's training camp home, at Jack Hammett Sports Complex, underwent extensive field modifications to bring it up to NFL standards – a benefit the community also enjoys in the offseason – while the team's practice facility received a dramatic overhaul as well. The contemporary facility now provides the Chargers with the latest in technology and equipment, and houses the team's more than 150 full-time employees, not including players. Since moving into the new facility, Spanos has emphasized his commitment to the future by increasing the non-football headcount by over 30 employees and the creation of several key positions in areas such as fan experience, marketing, analytics, cultural affairs, human resources and digital media.

Throughout all the changes, Spanos has made sure the commitment to winning on the field and making a positive impact in the community has remained constant. The Chargers had over 140 appearances in the first six months of relocating to the Los Angeles area. The Community Relations department boasts a street team, conducting numerous events on a weekly basis year-round. The Chargers have also partnered with the Mayor's office for the Summer Night Lights program, all under Spanos direction.

Looking to the future, Spanos is continuing the organization for a smooth entry into the new LA Stadium at Hollywood Park. Visits to the stadium by Chargers staff have become a regular occurrence and are expected to uptick significantly as the 2020 season approaches.

Spanos played football as a freshman at Tufts University in Medford, Mass., before returning to California to continue his education at the University of Southern California, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the Marshall School of Business.

Spanos is the eldest son of Controlling Owner and Chairman of the Board Dean Spanos and his wife Susie. A member of YPO-LA and GenNext in Orange County, he and his wife, Kamri, reside in Laguna Beach with their three sons.

JOHN SPANOS

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Spanos was named President of Football Operations for the Chargers in May 2015. He oversees all of the team's football operations, including player personnel, coaching, player finance and the salary cap, medical, equipment, video, player engagement and security. He also represents the team at League and Management Council meetings.

The 2019 season will mark Spanos' 24th year in the NFL and his 21st with the team. Spanos began working for the Chargers in 1995, originally in the football operations department as an assistant. From 1998-2000, he worked on contract negotiations and assisted with managing the salary cap before moving to New York to work in the NFL league office.

From 2001-03 Spanos served two stints in the NFL's Management Council office in New York. In 2008, he further expanded his business acumen when he was among a select list of NFL executives invited to participate in the NFL's Executive Education Program at the Stanford Business School in Palo Alto, Calif.

In 2003, Spanos began working full-time as a scout for the Chargers. He methodically worked his way up through the organization including positions as a pro and college scout (2003-05), assistant director of college scouting (2006-07) and director of college scouting (2008-12).

It's no coincidence that Spanos' ascension within the organization coincided with one of the most successful eras in franchise history. From 2004-09, the Chargers won 67 regular-season games, third-most in the entire league. They also won three playoff games during that stretch, giving them 70 total wins from 2004-09, which was fourth-most in the league. The Chargers reached the playoffs five times from 2004-09 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2007. Since 2003, the Chargers have been to the playoffs a total of seven times, claimed five AFC West titles, won 139 games and sported a winning season 10 times.

His career took a giant leap forward in 2013 when he was named Executive Vice President of Football Operations. One of his first priorities was the hiring of General Manager Tom Telesco. That year, the team returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2009 and won its first playoff game since 2008.

In early 2017 the duo spearheaded the hire of Anthony Lynn. Over two seasons with Lynn at the helm, the Chargers have won 21 regular season games and reached the divisional round of the playoffs.

Since his work in the draft from 2003 the results have been overwhelmingly positive. Team cornerstones over that time have included such names as Nick Hardwick, Nate Kaeding, Shawne Merriman, Darren Sproles, Antonio Cromartie, Eric Weddle, Melvin Ingram, Keenan Allen, Melvin Gordon, Joey Bosa, Mike Williams and Derwin James. Since 2013, five of the team's draft picks have gone on to make a Pro Bowl, including two that have played in a pair of all-star games.

Spanos continues to work closely with McGuire. They have managed the salary cap and retained some of the team's top players, negotiating multiple contract extensions for several current and former All-Pro players. The extensions are highlighted by quarterback Philip Rivers, future Hall of Famer Antonio Gates, Hall of Fame running back LaDainian Tomlinson, guard Kris Dielman, center Nick Hardwick and most recently, two-time Pro Bowl corner Casey Hayward and Pro Bowl defensive end Melvin Ingram.

Staying true to his scouting roots, Spanos serves on the board of directors for National Football Scouting and is an Honorary Member of the University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Athletic Board. Spanos also serves on the NFL's Future of Football Advisory Committee and is a trustee for the NFL Player Benefit Board.

In June 2010, Spanos was named one of the "Top 40 Under 40" Greek-Americans by Greek America Magazine. The acknowledgment came in recognition of his achievements in both business and community leadership.

Spanos was born in Stockton, Calif. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla where he lettered in football as a wide receiver and defensive back. He also lettered in golf and basketball and was a member of three CIF championship teams. After Bishop's, Spanos attended Wake Forest University, graduating with a degree in business.

JEANNE M. BONK

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

One of the Chargers' longest-tenured executives and one of the highest-ranking female executives in the National Football League, Jeanne Bonk was named Executive Vice President–Chief Operating Officer in May 2016.

Bonk originally joined the Chargers in 1991 as Chief Financial Officer. In 1994, she was promoted to Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, a position she retained for seven years. In 2000, she was named Vice President-Chief Financial Officer; and in 2005, Bonk was promoted to Executive Vice President-Chief Financial Officer.

Bonk has successfully overseen the team's day-to-day financial operations for over 25 years. Her expertise and leadership have been critical to the ongoing success of the organization in many areas. Currently she manages the team's involvement with the Inglewood stadium project. She has also been a presenter at the NFL Women's Career Development Symposium, Thriving in Business Seminar at the University of San Diego, and the UC-Irvine Chief Executive Round Table Women's Forum, among others.

A native of Covina, California, Bonk began her professional career in 1983 with the international accounting firm, Price Waterhouse. She worked at Price Waterhouse for eight years, leaving as a senior audit manager to join the Chargers in 1991.

Bonk attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana before graduating with honors from the University of San Diego in 1983 with a Bachelor's degree in business administration. She majored in accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant and a Chartered Global Management Accountant. She was nominated and a finalist for San Diego's Chief Financial Officer of the Year Award in 2009. Bonk was also inducted into the Mater Dei High School Ring of Honor in 2011.

Bonk is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the California Society of CPAs. She currently is a member of the NFL Owners' Audit Committee. She previously sat on the San Diego Humane Society's Audit Committee and the San Diego Diocesan Finance Council. In addition, she previously chaired the Finance Committee of Cathedral Catholic High School for six years.

ED McGUIRE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/ PLAYER FINANCE

Now in his 32nd NFL season and 22nd with the Chargers, Ed McGuire has enjoyed a steady ascent since joining the team in 1998. He was named Executive Vice President of Football Administration–Player Finance in January 2013. McGuire serves as the club's chief negotiator and manages the salary cap while overseeing compliance of NFL and Collective Bargaining Agreement rules. He has been a member of the NFL Player Insurance Trust since 2002.

Throughout his tenure with the Chargers, McGuire has negotiated a number of long-term contracts and contract extensions. In 2004, he negotiated an eight-year contract extension for 2006 NFL MVP and two-time NFL rushing champion, LaDainian Tomlinson. At the time, the deal was the largest contract ever signed by a running back in NFL history. McGuire negotiated Philip Rivers' six-year, $92 million contract extension in 2009, the largest player contract negotiated in team history, and Rivers' 2015 contract extension. And more recently, McGuire has negotiated new contracts and extensions for several key players, including Pro Bowl standouts Keenan Allen, Melvin Ingram and Casey Hayward.

McGuire joined the Chargers after serving as the Senior Manager of Labor Operations for the NFL's Management Council from 1996-98. He was the league's Manager of Player Personnel from 1991-96 and originally joined the NFL in 1987 as a Player Personnel Analyst. McGuire also worked in the Player Personnel department for the United States Football League from 1984-86.

During his tenure in the National Football League office, McGuire became a leading expert on the NFL's salary cap and Collective Bargaining Agreement, which was created in 1993 between the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

Born in Riverhead, New York, McGuire graduated with a degree in Athletic Administration in 1984 from St. John's University in Jamaica, New York. He played football and baseball at Riverhead High School.

McGuire and his wife, Jane, have two children–son Kevin and daughter Shannon–and reside in Laguna Niguel.

FRED MAAS

CHIEF OF STAFF

Fred Maas is Chief of Staff for the Los Angeles Chargers, overseeing all day-to-day business functions for the team reporting to President A.G. Spanos. As the Chargers prepare to move into the new Los Angeles Stadium at Hollywood Park in 2020, Maas is also tasked with assisting Chairman Dean Spanos in the search for a site to build a permanent new training facility.

Maas, who originally joined the Chargers in 2016, previously served as the executive chairman of MRV Systems LLC, a manufacturer of marine robotic vehicles for the oceanographic and defense industries.

Prior to his role at MRV, he was the Chairman and CEO of the San Diego Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), which oversaw, on behalf of the city, all redevelopment activities for downtown San Diego.

Maas was a principal and served as President and CEO of Black Mountain Ranch, a 4,660-acre property that his partnership acquired in 1988. Then undeveloped land, Black Mountain Ranch is now home to several large-scale residential communities, including Santaluz and Del Sur.

In the 1980s and '90s, Maas served as a partner at Potomac Sports Properties, the exclusive developer of the PGA TOUR Inc. Earlier, Maas represented the TOUR on marketing, regulatory, legislative and tax matters.

Maas has served in a variety of capacities in national, state and local politics over the past 35 years, including stints with Senators Bob Dole and John McCain, Jack Kemp and Governor Mitch Daniels among others. Maas also served as a special advisor to Todd Properties of New Zealand and H.E. Stuart Beck, the late Palauan Ambassador to the United Nations. In 2017, Governor Edmund G. Brown, Jr., appointed Maas as a Commissioner on the California Horse Racing Board.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Maas graduated cum laude from Syracuse University's College of Law and Hobart College. Maas is admitted to the District of Columbia bar.

Maas has a daughter, Katherine Claire, who resides in Los Angeles.

LaDAINIAN TOMLINSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT

LaDainian Tomlinson is one of the Chargers' greatest players and one of the most prolific running backs in NFL history. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 5, 2017.

Tomlison will begin his third season as special assistant to controlling owner and chairman of the board, Dean Spanos.

Tomlinson is currently an analyst on NFL Network and his duties as a special assistant to the Los Angeles Chargers includes helping the organization to further develop fan engagement and expand its community outreach in Southern California.

Tomlinson retired from the NFL in 2012 as the league's fifth all-time leading rusher (13,684 career yards) and its second-most prolific scorer (145 career rushing touchdowns).

The Chargers' first-round pick in the 2001 NFL Draft (fifth overall), Tomlinson and his disarming smile were the face of the Chargers' franchise during nine seasons in San Diego (2001-09). He set or tied a total of 28 team records, including marks for career rushing yards, rushing touchdowns in a season and total touchdowns.

Tomlinson is one of the most decorated Chargers in history. Among the more than 100 team and NFL awards that he captured during his career, Tomlinson was named the Associated Press' NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in 2006. That same year, he was named the Walter Payton co-NFL Man of the Year and the runner-up as the AP's Male Athlete of the Year. Tomlinson was a five-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro, two-time second-team All-Pro and runner up for the AP's Offensive Rookie of the Year Award in 2001. Tomlinson was named by his teammates as the Chargers Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year five times.

MARK FABIANI

SPECIAL COUNSEL

Prior to joining the Chargers, Fabiani was the Deputy Campaign Manager for Communications and Strategy for former Vice President Al Gore's 2000 presidential campaign, the closest presidential election in modern history. In addition to serving as the campaign's chief spokesperson, Fabiani was responsible for coordinating the campaign's communications and media strategies and tactics, including the Vice President's post-election Florida vote count effort.

From 1994-96, Fabiani worked as President Bill Clinton's special counsel, providing legal, communications and political counsel to the President and First Lady on allegations and investigations of Whitewater and related matters. Fabiani produced and communicated the legal, legislative and political responses to inquiries from the media, Capitol Hill and investigative agencies. He also served as the White House's principal spokesperson before the national media, appearing regularly on major news shows.

In the 1980s, Fabiani spent four years as deputy mayor of Los Angeles and chief of staff to Mayor Tom Bradley. He managed political strategy, media relations, policy analysis and an executive staff of 129 for the mayor. Fabiani directed day-to-day interaction between the mayor's office and the media, general managers of city departments, the City Council and the city's principal private sector companies and public-sector institutions.

A native of Ellwood City, Penn., Fabiani earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy from the University of Redlands before graduating cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1982. He served in senior positions at the United States Department of Justice and the Department of Housing and Urban Development. At the Justice Department, Fabiani was responsible for policy development for the Attorney General and at HUD, he implemented the federal government's Empowerment Zone Initiative for urban revitalization.

Fabiani is currently a partner in the downtown San Diego-based firm, Mark Fabiani & Associates, which provides strategic advice and tactical execution to companies and individuals facing complex financial, marketing, communications and legal challenges.

TOM TELESCO

GENERAL MANAGER
25th NFL SEASON
7th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

With a keen eye for acquiring talented players, Tom Telesco serves his seventh season as General Manager of the Chargers in 2019.

Telesco was hired by the Chargers in January 2013. Forty-years-old at the time of his hiring, he became the youngest general manager in team history. Telesco immediately helped the Chargers return to the playoffs in 2013 with a roster that featured 25 players who joined the team prior to or during the season.

His first draft featured 2013 Pepsi Next NFL Rookie of the Year Keenan Allen. In 2017, Allen went on to break the Chargers' single-season receptions record and posted the second-most receiving yards in team history en route to being named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and earning his first Pro Bowl nod.

Over his six years with the organization, Telesco has drafted four pro bowlers in the first round in Jason Verrett, Melvin Gordon, Joey Bosa and Derwin James.

Telesco also has a proven track record with undrafted free agents. His finds have been highlighted by running back Austin Ekeler out of Western State, Pro Bowl special teamer Adrian Phillips, deep-threat and 1,000-yard receiver Tyrell Williams out of Western Oregon and special teams stalwart Nick Dzubnar from Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo.

On top of his draft choices, Telesco has brought in some of the top free agent talents in the NFL. Casey Hayward has blossomed into one of the top corners in the league, making back-to-back Pro Bowls in 2016-17 while offensive tackle Russell Okung and center Mike Pouncey made the Pro Bowl in their first seasons with the team. His signings also include defensive tackle Brandon Mebane, wide receiver/punt returner Travis Benjamin and his latest being three-time Pro Bowl linebacker Thomas Davis in 2019.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Telesco prepped at St. Francis High School in Athol Springs, N.Y. Days prior to Super Bowl XLVIII in January 2014, which was co-hosted by New York and New Jersey, Telesco was recognized for their accomplishments on the floor of the New York State Senate by Senator Timothy Kennedy.

After graduating from St. Francis, Telesco played wide receiver at John Carroll University in Ohio. He was a starter on the Blue Streaks' 1994 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship team, and two of his teammates at John Carroll were Chris and Brian Polian, sons of Bill Polian, a 2015 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

While attending John Carroll, Telesco spent four summers (1991-94) as a training camp intern with the Buffalo Bills. At that time, the elder Polian was the Bills' general manager. Polian left Buffalo for Carolina in 1994 and after Telesco graduated from John Carroll with a degree in business management in 1995, Polian hired him to work in the Panthers' scouting department. In 1998, Telesco and Polian moved on to Indianapolis, where Telesco would spend his next 15 NFL seasons as a college scout, pro scout, director of pro scouting, director of player personnel and vice president of football operations. He worked in Indianapolis during Peyton Manning's entire career with the Colts and later part of the team that brought Andrew Luck to the Colts with the first pick of the 2012 NFL Draft. Telesco also was involved in Colts drafts that featured four-time Pro Bowl running back Edgerrin James, five-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Reggie Wayne, Dwight Freeney, a seven-time Pro Bowler as a Colt and two-time Pro Bowl selection, and 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Bob Sanders.

Telesco's tenure in Indianapolis was one of the most successful eras in Colts history. They played in two Super Bowls, including a victory over Chicago in Super Bowl XLI. From 1998-2012, the Colts won 154 regular-season games, eight division titles and they appeared in the playoffs 12 times. Indianapolis set an NFL record with 12 or more wins in seven consecutive seasons and they won an NFL-record 23-straight regular-season games during the 2008-09 seasons. Their 115 regular-season wins from 2000-09 set an NFL record for wins in a decade.

In 2015 and this past year in 2018, Telesco was invited to be a speaker at the NFL's Career Development Symposium in Arizona. The program, attended by nearly 70 coaches and front office executives, was designed to engage aspiring head coach and general manager candidates. Telesco was one of only two active general managers invited to address participants at the symposium. He is also the co-chairman of the NFL General Manager Advisory Committee.

Telesco and his wife, Larah, have a daughter, Elena, and two sons, Thomas and Nicholas.

ANTHONY LYNN

HEAD COACH
28th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

On Jan. 13, 2017, the Los Angeles Chargers named Anthony Lynn the 16th head coach in franchise history and the first African-American head coach in team annals. Lynn joined the Chargers after spending the 2015-16 seasons with the Buffalo Bills as the assistant head coach, running backs coach and holding the positions of offensive coordinator and interim head coach.

In just his second season, Lynn led the Chargers to their first playoff appearance since 2013 and their best record since 2009 by posting a 12-4 mark. The Chargers led the NFL with seven Pro Bowl selections and were a resilient squad, winning eight-straight road contests. For his efforts in 2018, Lynn was recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award and was later tabbed the Coach of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

In his first season at the helm in Los Angeles, Lynn rallied the team after an 0-4 start to win nine of the final 12 games, including six of the last seven contests. The Chargers finished 9-7 and just missed out on a playoff berth due to a tiebreaker. The nine wins over the 12-game span was the best mark since the team won the last 11 games of the 2009 season. The five-straight home wins were also the best run on home turf since that 2009 season.

Lynn put his imprint on the team in year one. The Bolts turned the ball over just 15 times in 2017 to rank tied for fourth in the NFL after a season in which they were dead last with 35 turnovers. The offensive line led the league in the least amount of sacks allowed with 18. The Chargers haven't led the league in the least amount of sacks allowed since in the AFL in 1968. In two seasons in Los Angeles, Lynn has compiled a 21-11 regular season record.

A native of Celina, Texas, some 40 miles north of Dallas, Lynn was an All-Southwest Conference running back as a collegian at Texas Tech, where he rushed for 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries. That helped him earn a ticket to the NFL where he signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent in 1992. After being released by the Giants, Lynn signed with Denver in 1993 and appeared in 13 games for the Broncos. In 1994, he suffered a broken leg and spent the year on injured reserve. Lynn moved on to the Bay Area in 1995, spending two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1995-96) before concluding his career in Denver (1997-99) where he won back-to-back Super Bowl championships (XXXII and XXXIII) with the Broncos. Lynn hung up his cleats after the '99 season, having played in 83 career games.

Lynn jumped right into the coaching ranks in 2000, spending three seasons (2000-02) with the Broncos as an offensive assistant and assistant to special teams. In 2003, he landed his first full-time position gig as the running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-04). That was followed by similar positions with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-06), Cleveland Browns (2007-08), New York Jets (2009-14) and Bills (2015-16). Lynn carried the additional title of assistant head coach in New York in 2014 and with the Bills for his two seasons there.

Lynn spent the last two seasons (2015-16) with the Bills, including the final 14 games of the 2016 season as their offensive coordinator and the final game of the year as their interim head coach. The Bills led the NFL in both of Lynn's seasons in both rushing yards (2,630 in 2016 and 2,432 in 2015) and rushing touchdowns (29 in 2016 and 19, tie in 2015). The Bills also led the League in average yards per carry (5.3 in 2016 and 4.8, tie in 2015) in each of his two seasons in Upstate New York. More impressively, at his last two coaching stops (New York and Buffalo), his teams combined to rush for 18,218 yards during that span (2009-16), the most combined yards in the NFL over that time period. Also in Week 16 of the 2016 season, as offensive coordinator for the Bills, Lynn led the offense to a franchise-record 589 total yards. The 589 total yards were the second-most in a single game in the NFL that season.

Lynn is married to Stacey Bell Lynn. He has two children, son, D'Anton, and daughter, Danielle. Stacey is a news anchor at WNBC in New York City. D'Anton played football collegiately at Penn State and professionally with the New York Jets and the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger-Cats and currently is the assistant defensive backs coach for the Houston Texans. Danielle studied at the University of Oklahoma and earned her master's degree at the University of North Texas. She currently is the COO of The Lynn Family Foundation and the Process Improvement Specialist at Southwest Hospital in Dallas.

GEORGE STEWART

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
31st NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A longtime NFL assistant coach, George Stewart took over as the Chargers' special teams coordinator and assistant head coach in 2017 after spending the previous 10 seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings.

In his second season with the special teams unit, Adrian Phillips earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named AP first-team All-Pro as he led the NFL in special teams tackles. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley broke the franchise record with a 93.8 field goal percentage, including a team-record 59-yard field goal. Badgley was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 14 and was named the Pro Football Talk Special Teams Rookie of the Year. Desmond King ranked third in the NFL in punt return average and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 73-yards for a score in Week 13. King also garnered AP second-team All-Pro honors as a punt returner.

In his first season with the Chargers, punt returner Travis Benjamin was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after totaling 88 return yards, including a 65-yard touchdown in Week 7 against the Broncos. Punter Drew Kaser ranked third in the NFL with a punting average of 48.1 that was also the second-best single-season average in franchise history. Nick Dzubnar (21) and Austin Ekeler (17) also ranked first and second in the league, respectively, in special teams tackles.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Stewart was a standout guard at the University of Arkansas from 1977-80. The Razorbacks played in four straight bowl games during his tenure and won the Southwest Conference title in 1979. Stewart, who was named to the Razorbacks' All-Decade Team for the 1970s, earned All-SWC honors as a junior in 1979, and he was a team captain as a senior in 1980. Stewart signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as an undrafted rookie in 1981 but spent the season on "Reserve-Injured."

Stewart entered the coaching ranks in 1983 as a graduate assistant at Arkansas, working under the famed Lou Holtz. He followed Holtz to the University of Minnesota a year later, taking over as the Golden Gophers' offensive line coach. Under Holtz, the Gophers made a rapid turnaround, finishing 7-5 and beating Clemson in the 1985 Independence Bowl, Minnesota's first bowl victory since the 1962 Rose Bowl. In 1986, Stewart joined Holtz at Notre Dame as linebackers coach. In Stewart's third and final season in South Bend in 1988, the Irish finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl en route to being crowned national champions.

Stewart spent the first 11 seasons of his NFL career (1989-99) coaching special teams, first in Pittsburgh (1989-91) under the legendary Chuck Noll, and then in Tampa Bay (1992-95), where he also coached tight ends for two seasons, and finally in San Francisco (1996-99) where he worked under both Bill Walsh and George Seifert. Stewart helped Pittsburgh's Rod Woodson earn Pro Bowl honors as a returner three straight years (1989-91), and he saw kicker Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in Tampa Bay in 1993. In San Francisco, one of Stewart's star pupils was Chargers Head Coach Anthony Lynn.

For the next 17 years, Stewart coached wide receivers, including three seasons in San Francisco (2000-02), four in Atlanta (2003-06) and 10 in Minnesota (2007-16).

In San Francisco, the 49ers advanced to the playoffs five times in Stewart's seven seasons, including a trip to the NFC Championship Game in 1997. Under Stewart's guidance from 2000-02, Hall of Fame wide receiver Terrell Owens was selected to three-straight All-Pro teams and Pro Bowls.

In Atlanta, the Falcons won an NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

In Minnesota, Stewart helped wide receiver Percy Harvin earn multiple NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 2009, while fellow wideout Sidney Rice earned a Pro Bowl nod that same season after ranking second in the NFC with 1,312 receiving yards. Harvin, the Vikings' top return man, set a Vikings franchise record with 2,081 total net yards. Also with Minnesota, Stewart oversaw wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson's earning of first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl accolades as the NFL's top kick returner as a rookie in 2013. In 2015, Stewart helped Stefon Diggs earn All-Rookie honors after becoming the first rookie in franchise history to lead the team in receptions. In his final year with the Vikings in 2016, Patterson was named to his second-career Pro Bowl after leading the NFL in kickoff return average for the third time in his career, a league record. The Vikings also for the first time since 1981 had three players top 800 yards receiving, including wide receivers Stefon Diggs and Adam Thielen.

GUS BRADLEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
14th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Gus Bradley enters his third season as the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Chargers. His impact on the defensive performance was evident in his two seasons with the Bolts.

The defense allowed just one 300-yard passer in 2018, one of just four units to not allow multiple 300-yard passers. The Bolts were No. 9 in the NFL in total defense, rushing defense and passing defense while ranking eighth in scoring defense. Bradley's defense was highlighted by Pro Bowl representatives Derwin James and Melvin Ingram III. James became the first Chargers rookie to top 100 tackles and earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press while Desmond King was a second-team AP All-Pro.

The Chargers saw a huge turnaround on the defensive side of the ball in 2017 as the Bolts ranked third in the league, allowing 17 points-per-game. The 17 points-per-game was the best mark by the team since 1992 and nearly a 10 points-per-game improvement from 2016. The 9.4 points-per-game improvement from the previous season is the second-best turnaround in team history. The Chargers also ranked third in the NFL against the pass, were the best in the red zone, posted a plus-12 turnover margin to rank third and were fifth in sacks.

The defensive unit was led by Pro Bowlers Joey Bosa, Casey Hayward and Melvin Ingram. Bosa recorded a career-high 12.5 sacks which were the most by a Bolts player since 2007. Hayward anchored a secondary that didn't allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17 en route to his second straight Pro Bowl nod. Ingram equaled his career-high in sacks with 10.5 and coupled with Bosa the combined 23 sacks were the most by a Chargers duo in the same season since 2006. The pair also led the NFL with 151 pressures.

Bradley joined the Chargers as defensive coordinator in 2017 after spending the previous four seasons (2013-16) as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL in overall defense in 2016, surrendering just 321.7 yards per game, while ranking fifth against the pass (215.2 ypg).

Bradley began his coaching career at North Dakota State, spending two seasons (1990-91) as a graduate assistant, followed by a four-year run as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Fort Lewis College (1992-95). For four months (December 1995-March 1996), Bradley also served as the head coach at Fort Lewis.

Bradley returned to North Dakota State in 1996 and spent the next 10 seasons (1996-05) serving in a number of different roles, including defensive coordinator, assistant head coach and linebackers coach. As NDSU's defensive coordinator in 2005, the Bison led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense, pass defense, total defense and turnover margin.

COACHING CAPSULE

1990-91	–	Graduate Assistant, North Dakota State
1992-95	–	Defensive Coordinator, Fort Lewis College
1996	–	Linebackers, North Dakota State
1997-99	–	Defensive Coordinator, North Dakota State
2000-02	–	Asst. Head Coach/Def. Coord., North Dakota State
2003-04	–	Asst. Head Coach/Linebackers., North Dakota State
2005	–	Asst. Head Coach/Def. Coord., North Dakota State
2006	–	Defensive Quality Control, Buccaneers
2007-08	–	Linebackers, Buccaneers
2009-12	–	Defensive Coordinator, Seahawks
2013-16	–	Head Coach, Jaguars
2017-19	–	Defensive Coordinator, Chargers

In 2006, Bradley landed his first NFL job in Tampa Bay. He spent one season (2006) as a defensive quality control coach and two (2007-08) as the Buccaneers' linebackers coach. Linebacker Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl appearances in each of his two seasons working with Bradley.

In 2009, the Seattle Seahawks hired Bradley as defensive coordinator and he helped mold Seattle's defense into one of the league's best. The Seahawks made postseason appearances following two of Bradley's four seasons (2009-12) in the Pacific Northwest. In 2009, the Seahawks posted two shutouts at home for the first time since 1986. In 2011, Seattle's defense ranked ninth in the NFL for just the sixth top-10 finish in the club's 36-year history and first since 1997. Three Seahawks defenders – Earl Thomas, Kam Chancellor and Brandon Browner – were selected to the Pro Bowl. And in his final season with the Seahawks in 2012, Seattle set franchise records for fewest points (15.3) and yards per game allowed (306.2), the former of which led the NFL. At the end of the 2012 season, Thomas was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, while Richard Sherman earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions.

In 2013, Bradley was named the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his first season, the Jaguars posted a 4-4 mark following the bye week, with three of the wins on the road. In 2014, Jacksonville showed significant improvement in sacking opposing quarterbacks. The Jags raised their sack total from 31 in Bradley's first season to 45 in his second (2014), a total that ranked sixth in the NFL. The Jaguars led the NFL with 12 sack/forced fumbles and ranked third with 19 total forced fumbles. In 2015, Jacksonville's offense produced 44 touchdowns, third in team history, and the team scored 376 points, fifth in team annals.

KEN WHISENHUNT

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
32nd NFL SEASON
5th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ken Whisenhunt enters his fifth season as the offensive coordinator for the Chargers. Whisenhunt is in the fourth season of his second stint with the organization.

Quarterback Philip Rivers continued to be one of the NFL's top signal-callers under Whisenhunt, registering the most efficient passing game in NFL history – posting all-time marks for single-game consecutive completions (25) and single-game completion percentage with at least 20 attempts (96.6 pct.). Following the 2018 season, Rivers was joined by Keenan Allen, Melvin Gordon III and Mike Pouncey as the Bolts' offensive Pro Bowl representatives.

Whisenhunt coordinated an offense in 2018 that tied for the sixth-best unit in points scored per game (26.8) and boasted three receivers with at least 600 receiving yards. Mike Williams found the end zone 11 times in his second pro season, including 10 through the air to become the first Chargers receiver to do so since 1996.

The offense flourished in 2017 under the guidance of Whisenhunt and was highlighted by Pro Bowlers Keenan Allen, Philip Rivers and Russell Okung. Allen put together one of the top receiving seasons in Chargers history, culminating in Comeback Player of the Year honors.

The Chargers showcased an offense that led the league in passing yards per game (276.9) and the fewest sacks allowed (18). Rivers ranked second in the NFL with 4,515 yards passing while Allen was third in receiving yards (1,393) and fourth in receptions (102). In the ground game, Melvin Gordon eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing for the first time in his career, totaling 1,105 to rank seventh. His 1,581 yards from scrimmage ranked fifth and his 72 points were tied for fourth.

Whisenhunt re-joined the Chargers in 2016 and the Bolts were the only team in the NFL to feature six players with at least 35 receptions, 400 yards receiving and two touchdown catches. Philip Rivers threw for 4,386 yards and 33 touchdowns, tied for the second-most in a season in franchise history. The Chargers stretched the field as Rivers completed a career-high 16 passes of 40 yards or longer. Tyrell Williams led the Chargers with 1,059 receiving yards and a 15.3 yards-per-catch average. Melvin Gordon ranked 10th in the NFL with a team-leading 1,416 yards from scrimmage while tying for ninth with 12 total touchdowns.

A native of Augusta, Ga., Whisenhunt played quarterback and tight end at Georgia Tech from 1980-84. In 1985, the Falcons drafted him in the 12th round and he played nine seasons in the NFL, including four with the Falcons (1985-88), two with the Washington Redskins (1989-90) and three with the New York Jets (1991-93). He played in 74 games during his career and caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six scores.

Whisenhunt earned a degree in civil engineering from Georgia Tech and entered the coaching field in 1995, spending two seasons (1995-96) as the special teams and tight ends coach at Vanderbilt.

In 1997, Whisenhunt landed his first NFL coaching job tutoring tight ends with Baltimore (1997-98). It led to stints with the Cleveland Browns (1999), Jets (2000) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-03). In 2004, Whisenhunt was named Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator. At the conclusion of his second season (2005), he earned a Super Bowl ring after the Steelers defeated Seattle, 21-10, in Super Bowl XL. Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger was Whisenhunt's star pupil in the "Steel City."

Whisenhunt earned his first head coaching position with Arizona in 2007. He spent six seasons with the Cardinals (2007-12), winning a franchise-record 49 games. Arizona went 4-2 in the postseason and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XLIII in 2008.

Whisenhunt worked closely with Kurt Warner in Arizona. They helped lead the Cardinals to their Super Bowl appearance and back-to-back NFC West titles in 2008-09, the team's first titles since 1975 and their first back-to-back division crowns since 1974-75. Whisenhunt became the first Cardinals coach to go .500 or better in his first six seasons with the team and the Cardinals were one of the NFL's best home teams under Whisenhunt as they combined to go 33-18 at University of Phoenix Stadium, including 3-0 in the playoffs. The Cardinals also went 7-2 under Whisenhunt in overtime games.

Whisenhunt began his first stint with the Chargers in 2013, helping the Bolts to a 9-7 season that was followed by a win at Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs. Philip Rivers enjoyed one of the finest seasons of his career while working in tandem with Whisenhunt. He was named NFL Comeback Player of the Year and selected to the Pro Bowl after completing a team-record and NFL-leading 69.5 pct. of his passes for 4,478 yards and 32 touchdowns with just 11 interceptions. It all added up to a team-record-tying 105.5 passer rating. Rivers completed a then-team-record 378 passes for the Chargers in 2013.

Following the 2013 season, Whisenhunt became the head coach for the Tennessee Titans. He spent the 2014 season and the first eight weeks of 2015 with the Titans, helping mold quarterback Marcus Mariota, the team's top pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Whisenhunt and his wife, Alice, have a son, Kenneth, Jr., and a daughter, Mary Ashley.

KEITH BURNS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
22nd NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Keith Burns enters his second season as the assistant special teams coach for the Chargers. He spent 2013 as the special teams coordinator for the Washington Redskins and spent six seasons as assistant special teams coach of the Denver Broncos after a 13-year playing career.

In his first season with the Chargers, the special teams boasted AP first-team All-Pro Adrian Phillips and second-team All-Pro punt returner Desmond King. Phillips led the NFL in special teams tackles while King ranked third in the league in punt return average. Rookie Michael Badgley set the franchise record with a 93.8 field goal percentage, including a team-record 59-yarder.
From 2007-12, Burns worked with a Broncos unit that accumulated 10 combined punt and kickoff return touchdowns, tied for most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL.

In that time period, the Broncos ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punt return average (10.5 yards per return).

In his final season in Denver in 2012, several specialists set Broncos franchise records under Burns' guidance, as kicker Matt Prater set the single-season team record for scoring by a kicker (133 points) and punter Britton Colquitt broke the team record for net punting average for the second consecutive season (40.2 in 2011, 42.1 in 2012).

COACHING CAPSULE

2007-12 – Assistant Special Teams, Broncos
2013 – Special Teams Coordinator, Redskins
2018-19 – Assistant Special Teams, Chargers

Also, return specialist Trindon Holliday led the NFL with a 32.5-yard kick return average in addition to ranking fifth in the league with a 10.8-yard punt return average after being acquired by the Broncos off waivers on Oct. 11.

During his six seasons with the Broncos, five different players totaled eight AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards.

As a player, Burns was a key member of the Broncos' special teams unit in his 11 seasons in Denver, 10 of which were played under former Redskins Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan.

In those 11 seasons, Burns led or tied for the team lead in special teams tackles seven times. He totaled 186 special teams' stops in 166 career games played as well as 70 defensive tackles, 1.5 sacks, two pass breakups and a forced fumble and helped the Broncos to victories in Super Bowl XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIII.

Burns entered the NFL with Denver as a seventh-round choice (210th overall) in the 1994 NFL Draft after playing collegiately at Oklahoma State.

CHRIS CAMINITI

SENIOR COACHING ASSISTANT
8th NFL SEASON
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chris Caminiti returns to the NFL as he enters his first season as the Senior Coaching Assistant for the Los Angeles Chargers. Caminiti comes to the Chargers from UCLA, where he most recently served as an Associate Athletic Director.

Caminiti was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in April of 2016. Caminiti began at UCLA in 2013 when he served as the Special Teams Analyst.

Prior to joining UCLA, Caminiti served stints at the Kansas City Chiefs, the Cleveland Browns, and the New England Patriots.

Caminiti also has had prior coaching experience as the head football coach at Granite Hills High School (El Cajon, CA), University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Occidental College, Los Angeles, University of San Diego and Cheshire (CT) High School.

Caminiti earned his Master's degree at Southern Connecticut State University in 1994 and his Bachelors in 1992. Chris and his wife Emerly have three children.

LA'ROI GLOVER

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE
10th NFL SEASON
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

La'Roi Glover enters his first season as the assistant defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. Glover comes to the Chargers from the New York Jets where he spent two seasons in the same capacity.

Glover, whose 13-year playing career saw him selected to multiple Pro Bowls and register 83.5 sacks, began his post-playing career as director of player programs with the Rams before entering the coaching ranks with the Jets.

Prior to joining the Jets, Glover spent seven seasons working as the Director of Player Programs for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams. In that role he was responsible for assisting players with their transition into professional football with the development of programs to address off-the-field matters.

Glover spent 13 seasons as a defensive tackle in the league, playing in 193 games, including 191 consecutive to finish his career, for the Oakland Raiders (1996), New Orleans Saints (1997-2001), Dallas Cowboys (2002-05) and St. Louis Rams (2006-08). He amassed 83.5 sacks during his career and was selected to six consecutive Pro Bowl teams, while also receiving All-Pro recognition four times. He was a first-team selection for the 2000s All-Decade team. During the 2000 season, Glover led the league with 17.0 sacks, the second most in league history among defensive tackles, and was named NFL Alumni Defensive Lineman of the Year as well as NFC Defensive Player of the Year.

Glover is a member of the San Diego State University Hall of Fame, the Breitbard Hall of Fame (established to honor athletes who have excelled athletically in San Diego or who are native San Diegans who have achieved athletic fame elsewhere), the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame and the inaugural class of the CIF-San Diego Section Hall of Fame. Glover graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in public administration and later received his MBA at Fontbonne University in 2012.

Glover and his wife, Spring, have three children, a son, La'Roi, Jr., and two daughters, Neomie and Sophia.

COACHING CAPSULE

2017-18 – Assistant Defensive Line, Jets
2019 – Assistant Defensive Line, Chargers

CHRIS HARRIS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS
14th NFL SEASON
4th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Former NFL safety Chris Harris joined the Chargers in 2016 as assistant secondary coach. In his third season with the organization, Harris helped develop 2018 first-round pick Derwin James into an All-Pro selection and a Pro Bowl starter at safety in his first season. James became the first rookie In Chargers history to record 100 or more tackles. On top of the rise of the rookie, second year defensive back Desmond King earned second-team All-Pro accolades on the strength of three interceptions, including a pick-six. Six of the top seven tacklers for the Chargers in 2018 came from the defensive backfield.

In his second year with the team, the Chargers ranked fourth in the league with 18 total interceptions with 14 coming from defensive backs. The team did not allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17. Individually, cornerback Casey Hayward was named to his second-straight Pro Bowl after ranking tied for second in the NFL with 22 passes defensed. He also added four interceptions.

Harris' first season was a huge success as the Chargers led the NFL with 18 interceptions as a team, while Hayward earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after leading the NFL with a career-high seven picks. The Chargers had 11 different players record at least one interception in 2016, most in the NFL and the most in team annals since 2004.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Harris played collegiately at Louisiana-Monroe (2001-04) where he finished his career ranked fourth in school history in career tackles (383) and third in interceptions (14), including a school-record-tying seven in 2004.

COACHING CAPSULE

2013-14 – Quality Control/Defense, Bears
2016-19 – Assistant Defensive Backs, Chargers

An eight-year NFL pro, Harris was a sixth-round pick of the Chicago Bears (181st overall) in 2005. He played four seasons with the Bears over two separate stints (2005-06 and 2010-11). Harris was named second-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010 and was named one of the Bears' Brian Piccolo Award winners as a rookie in 2005. Besides Chicago, Harris also played for the Carolina Panthers (2007-09), Detroit Lions (2011) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012), totaling 422 tackles, 16 interceptions, 13 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 37 passes defensed. He appeared in 101 career games and made 88 starts. In 2007, Harris racked up a franchise-record eight forced fumbles for the Panthers.

Harris started seven playoff games during his career, including Super Bowl XLI for the Bears. During that game, he famously intercepted Colts quarterback Peyton Manning. Harris' career postseason statistics include 48 tackles, an interception and two forced fumbles.

Harris began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Bears, working primarily with the team's safeties. He coached in Chicago from 2013-14.

Harris and his wife, Kenetria, have three sons – Jayce, Jaxon and Jett – and a daughter, Skylar.

ADDISON LYNCH

QUALITY CONTROL - DEFENSE
2nd NFL SEASON
2nd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Addison Lynch enters his second season with the Los Angeles Chargers as the quality control for defense after spending the previous seven years in the collegiate ranks.

Lynch worked in practice drills primarily with linebackers coach Richard Smith during 2018 while helping defensive coordinator Gus Bradley with team presentations and film breakdown of upcoming opponents. He coached Bolts 2018 rookie standout Derwin James at Florida State, easing the transition for the first-team All-Pro.

Lynch spent the past six seasons under the tutelage of Jimbo Fisher as a quality control assistant at Florida State. While coaching for Florida State, Lynch helped coach the Seminoles to six bowl games, including five straight New Year's Six bowl appearances. Lynch worked on the staff that won the inaugural College Football Playoff over Auburn in the final BCS National Championship for the 2013 season. Prior to his stint at Florida State, Lynch worked one season at Mississippi College as a graduate assistant coach.

Lynch, a Boston, Mass., native played safety for Bryant University from 2007-11. He earned his degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in marketing.

COACHING CAPSULE

2011 – Graduate Assistant, Mississippi College
2012-17 – Quality Control Assistant, Florida State
2018-19 – Quality Control/Defense, Chargers

PHIL McGEOGHAN

WIDE RECEIVERS
10th NFL SEASON
2nd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Phil McGeoghan enters his second year with the Los Angeles Chargers as the wide receivers coach after coming to the organization from the Buffalo Bills.

In his first season with the Chargers, the wide receiver group flourished. Keenan Allen put together another solid season, earning his second-straight Pro Bowl bid. Allen finished the season with 97 catches, 1,196 yards and six touchdowns. On top of Allen's consistency, second-year pro Mike Williams took a giant leap forward under the guidence of McGeoghan. Williams hauled in 43 passes for 664 yards and registered 11 total touchdowns, including 10 through the air. Williams became the first Chargers receiver since 1996 to have 10 or more scrimmage touchdowns. Tyrell Williams also made an impact, totaling 41 receptions for 653 yards and five touchdowns. Both Tyrell and Mike Williams averaged over 15 yards per reception to rank in the top-15 in the league.

In his lone season with the Bills, McGeoghan helped the franchise make their first playoff appearance in 18 years.

Before returning to the NFL, he spent the 2016 season as the wide receivers coach at East Carolina. McGeoghan coached senior Zay Jones to a season with 158 receptions or 1,746 yards (11.1 avg.) and eight TDs while also coaching senior Jimmy Williams (818 yards and eight TDs on 45 catches) and junior Quay Johnson (58 receptions for 563 yards and three TDs) to stellar seasons.

His first job in the NFL came with the Miami Dolphins where he spent four seasons working with their receivers. He served as the assistant wide receivers coach before being promoted to wide receivers coach in the middle of the 2015 season. One of the highlights was Jarvis Landry posting a single-season franchise record with 110 receptions in 2015.

COACHING CAPSULE

2007 – Wide Receivers/Tight Ends, Univ. of Maine
2009-11 – Wide Receivers, Univ. of South Florida
2012-14 – Assistant Wide Receivers, Dolphins
2015 – Wide Receivers, Dolphins
2016 – Wide Receivers, East Carolina University
2017 – Wide Receivers, Bills
2018-19 – Wide Receivers, Chargers

Prior to the Dolphins, McGeoghan worked as the wide receivers coach at South Florida for three seasons. He came to USF after one year with Naval Academy Prep where he was the offensive coordinator. His first coaching job was in 2007 when he spent one season at his alma mater as the University of Maine's wide receivers and tight ends coach.

McGeoghan played four years in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and New York Jets at various positions. He also spent a year playing in NFL Europe for the Berlin Thunder.

At Maine, McGeoghan starred as a wide receiver for the Black Bears, finishing his career fourth in career receiving yards (2,343) and fifth in receptions (161) in school history. In the classroom, he earned Academic All-America honors and was recognized as an Arthur Ashe Jr., and Dean Smith Sport Scholar. McGeoghan also served in a leadership capacity as UM's student-athlete president.

PAT MEYER

OFFENSIVE LINE
8th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A 20-year coaching veteran, Pat Meyer is in his third season as the offensive line coach for the Chargers. Meyer tutored a line that blocked for a rushing attack that averaged 117.1 yards-per-game, the most by a Chargers offense since 2013. He coached newly-signed center Mike Pouncey to his fourth career Pro Bowl while tackle Russell Okung was named an alternate. Meyer orchestrated an offensive line that saw three players start all 16 games and provide time for Philip Rivers to register a 105.5 passer rating, tying a single-season career best. He tutored undrafted rookie Trent Scott to make a start against Oakland at right tackle.

In his first year with the Chargers, Meyer made an immediate impact. The offensive line surrendered the fewest sacks (17) in the NFL, a first for the organization since 1968. The line helped provide the time for Philip Rivers to rank second in the league in passing yards while opening the holes for Melvin Gordon to become the first Chargers rusher to eclipse 1,000 yards on the ground since 2013. Russell Okung became the first Chargers offensive lineman to play in the Pro Bowl since 2011.

Meyer joined the Chargers from Buffalo where he spent two seasons (2015-16), his first as a football operations consultant, and his second as an offensive assistant.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Meyer was an all-state selection and a four-year starter at Girard (Ohio) High School where he lettered in football wrestling, basketball, baseball and track. Meyer left Ohio for college, heading to Colorado State, where he went on to become a three-time All-Western Athletic Conference pick. As a senior in 1994, Meyer was a team captain, a first-team all-conference pick and an Academic All-America. He earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. In 1995, Meyer signed with the NFL's Arizona Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent, and in 1996 played for the Arena Football League's St. Louis Stampede.

Meyer entered the coaching ranks in 1997 as a graduate assistant at Memphis. He held a variety of posts for the Tigers, including offensive assistant, assistant strength coach and director of strength and conditioning. From 2000-05, Meyer oversaw the strength and conditioning program at North Carolina State where the team's star player was quarterback Philip Rivers. In 2006, Meyer spent a year as the Wolfpack's offensive line coach before returning to strength and conditioning at Florida State in 2007.

In 2008, Meyer returned to his alma mater, Colorado State, where he again served in a variety of capacities, including offensive coordinator from 2010-11. During his four seasons (2008-11) in Fort Collins, six CSU offensive linemen signed with NFL teams.

In 2012, Meyer crossed the Canadian border to become the offensive line coach, and later the offensive coordinator, for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes. That year, Montreal tied for first in the CFL in touchdowns, while finishing second in passing and third in overall scoring.

Meyer returned to the States in 2013 to join the Chicago Bears, first as an assistant offensive line coach before taking over the position outright in 2014. Under Meyer's tutelage, guard Kyle Long earned consecutive Pro Bowl appointments as he became the Bears' first offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl since 2006 and the team's first rookie to be selected at an offensive position since 1965 (running back Gale Sayers). In Meyer's first season in Chicago (2013), the Bears allowed just 30 sacks, tied for fourth-fewest in the NFL.

Meyer and his wife, Erin, have a son (Chris, 15) and two daughters (Emma, 12, and Sophia, 10). A former runner, Meyer is a five-time marathon finisher.

RON MILUS

DEFENSIVE BACKS
20th NFL SEASON
7th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Chargers Defensive Backs Coach Ron Milus coached a Pro Bowl player in his sixth-consecutive season when safety Derwin James was voted a starter. James added first-team All-Pro and All-Rookie accolades while Milus also coached cornerback Desmond King to second-team All-Pro recognition. King also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance in a Week 9 win at Seattle where he had a 42-yard pick-six. Milus was part of a defensive coaching staff that overasaw a pass defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL in 2018.

With the Bolts in 2017, Milus coached cornerback Casey Hayward to his second-straight appearance in the Pro Bowl. Hayward ranked second in the NFL with 22 passes defensed and added four interceptions. The Chargers ranked fourth in the league with 18 total interceptions with 14 coming from his defensive backs. The team did not allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17 of the season.

In 2016, Hayward led the NFL with a career-high seven interceptions. Hayward went on to become the first Chargers defender to capture the NFL's interceptions crown outright since 2007. With Hayward leading the way, the Chargers led the NFL with 18 picks, and the team recorded at least one takeaway in 15 of 16 games. The Chargers had 11 different players record at least one interception in 2016, most in the NFL by any one team and the most by a Chargers squad since 2004.

Prior to Hayward, former safety Eric Weddle earned Pro Bowl invitations in both 2013 and '14 and cornerback Jason Verrett earned all-star honors in 2015. During Milus' first year with the Chargers in 2013, the defense recorded 10 interceptions in the final nine games of the season, playoffs included, after intercepting just four in the season's first nine games. In 2014, the Chargers ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense. In 2015, Verrett led the team in interceptions and passes defensed.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Milus was a cornerback and return specialist at the University of Washington in the mid-1980s. He moved into coaching in 1988, starting at Tacoma's Lincoln High School. That led to a graduate assistant position at Washington and then ultimately a seven-year stint as the Huskies' defensive backs coach. Washington made two Rose Bowl appearances during Milus' tenure and led the nation with 22 interceptions in 1993.

Milus moved on to the NFL in 2000, joining the Denver Broncos as defensive backs coach. In his first season, the secondary racked up 21 interceptions, its highest total since 1987. A year later in 2001, cornerback Deltha O'Neal made the Pro Bowl after tying for third in the NFL with nine interceptions. Milus spent three seasons in Denver before splitting time between Arizona, the New York Giants, St. Louis and Carolina. He returned to Denver for a second stint in 2011.

In 2012, the Broncos led the NFL in fewest yards allowed-per-pass play. They ranked second in total defense and third in pass defense en route to winning the AFC West with a 13-3 record, earning the top seed in the AFC playoffs. Cornerback Chris Harris Jr., returned two of his three interceptions for touchdowns and veteran corner Champ Bailey was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 12th time in his career.

Milus and wife, Sandra, have two sons – Ryan and Bobby.

RYAN MILUS

ALEX G. SPANOS COACHING FELLOW
1st NFL SEASON
1st SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Ryan Milus enters his first season with the Los Angeles Chargers. Milus will hold the position of the inaugural Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellowship. Milus enters the NFL after two seasons as an assistant coach working with the defensive backs at Weber State.

COACHING CAPSULE

2017-18 – Defensive Backs, Weber State
2019 – Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellow, Chargers

Weber State advanced to the FCS Playoffs in both of his seasons. The Wildcats also won back-to-back Big Sky Conference titles in 2017 and 2018, for the first time in school history.

In 2018, the Wildcats repeated as Big Sky champions, and again advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals and were ranked as high as third in the nation, the highest ranking in school history. Keilan Benjamin earned first-team honors and Parker Preator earned third-team All-Big Sky honors.

He helped coach Weber State to one of the best defenses in the country. In 2017, WSU finished in the top 10 in the country in interceptions, turnovers gained and red zone defense. The Wildcats led the Big Sky in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, interceptions, pass efficiency defense and red zone defense. Senior Taron Johnson was a consensus All-American selection and was named the Big Sky Defensive MVP.
Milus, a native of Tacoma, Washington, graduated from Hamilton High School in Chandler, Arizona. He then attended Arizona State University where he excelled as a track and field star with the Sun Devils.

He was a three-time All-American sprinter at ASU and finished second in the NCAA Championships in the 60 meters. He was twice a runner-up finisher in the 100 meters at the Pac-12 Championships. He qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials in the 100 meters and also twice competed at the U.S. Championships.

He graduated from Arizona State in 2014 with a degree in Business Tourism.

Following graduation, he competed professionally in track and field and made the finals of the U.S. Indoor Championships.

He spent the 2016 season coaching football at his alma mater Hamilton High School, where he coached the secondary.

He is the son of Ron Milus, who is currently the defensive backs coach of the Los Angeles Chargers.

Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellowship
The Alex G. Spanos Coaching Fellowship was established by the Los Angeles Chargers prior to the 2019 season to further expand NFL coaching opportunities for qualified minority candidates. The full-time, year-long position is designed to expose a select coaching fellow to all three phases of the game and provide that individual with the level of experience necessary to pursue future NFL coaching positions.

MARK RIDGLEY

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
8th NFL SEASON
8th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Mark Ridgley will begin his second season as the assistant offensive line coach and his eighth with the Chargers organization.

In his first season with the offensive line, the unit posted a top-10 finish in sacks allowed. Mike Pouncey was named to the Pro Bowl in his first season with the Chargers. The line provided time for Philip Rivers to post over a 90 rating in 14 games and created the holes for the team to rank seventh in the NFL in yards per rush.

After spending four seasons as a special assistant in an administrative capacity and assisting with the Chargers' running backs, Ridgley was promoted to quality control coach for the offense in 2016 and was an offensive assistant in 2017.

In 2016, running back Melvin Gordon had a breakout year, pacing the squad with 12 total touchdowns, including 10 rushing. He fell just three yards shy of a 1,000-yard season as his 997-yard tally ranked 13th in the NFL. Showing good hands out of the backfield, Gordon tacked on an additional 419 yards receiving to finish the season with 1,416 yards from scrimmage, good for 10th in the entire league.

COACHING CAPSULE

2008-09 – Academic Grad. Asst., Univ. of Pittsburgh
2010-11 – Def. Grad. Asst., Central Michigan Univ.
2012-13 – Coaching Administration Assist., Chargers
2014-15 – Special Asst. to the Head Coach, Chargers
2016 – Quality Control/Offense, Chargers
2017 – Offensive Assistant, Chargers
2018-19 – Assistant Offensive Line, Chargers

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Ridgley earned a degree in economics from the University of Pittsburgh while working as a student manager for the Panthers' football team.

Ridgley began his career as an academic graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh before accepting a position as the defensive graduate assistant at Central Michigan University. Chargers safety Jahleel Addae played for the Chippewas during Ridgley's tenure on the staff.

Ridgley and wife, Casey, were married in 2015.

ALFREDO ROBERTS

RUNNING BACKS
23rd NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Former NFL tight end Alfredo Roberts is in his third season with the Chargers. A long-time NFL assistant coach who has worked primarily with tight ends, this marks Roberts' first stint coaching running backs. In his second season as the Bolts' running backs coach, the rushing attack averaged 117.1 yards-per-game, the most by a Chargers offense since 2013. Roberts coached Melvin Gordon to his second Pro Bowl as he posted 1,375 scrimmage yards for his third-straight campaign with at least 1,300 yards from scrimmage. He tutored running backs Austin Ekeler, Justin Jackson and Detrez Newsome to be key contributors to the offense down the stretch in the running and passing games.

In his first season with the running backs, Melvin Gordon became the first Chargers rusher since 2013 to amass over 1,000 yards when he totaled 1,105 yards on the ground. Gordon ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring among non-kickers (72 points). His 1,105 rushing yards were seventh while his 1,581 yards from scrimmage were the fifth-most in the league and the most by a Chargers rusher since 2007. Rookie Austin Ekeler totaled 539 yards from scrimmage and scored five touchdowns.

Before coming to the Chargers, Roberts spent four seasons (2012-15) coaching tight ends in Indianapolis. In 2014, Colts tight ends combined for 18 touchdown catches. Coby Fleener and Dwayne Allen became the first pair of tight ends in NFL history to score eight touchdowns apiece in a single season.

In 2013, Fleener registered a career-high 52 receptions and posted his first career 100-yard receiving game in Week 10 at Tennessee after catching eight passes for 107 yards.

In 2012, Colts tight ends combined to total 74 receptions for 825 yards and five touchdowns.

Allen started all 16 games in his first season and led NFL rookie tight ends with 45 receptions for 521 yards. His reception total also set a new franchise record for a Colts rookie tight end, topping Ken Dilger's previous high of 42 in 1995. Fleener competed in 12 games (10 starts) and compiled 26 receptions for 281 yards and two touchdowns. His reception and receiving totals were the fifth-most by a Colts rookie tight end in franchise history.

A native of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Roberts graduated from the University of Miami (Fla.), where he was a member of two national championship teams as a tight end. The first came under Howard Schnellenberger in 1983, which also was the school's first national championship, and the second came in 1987 under Jimmy Johnson. Roberts played on five bowl teams for the Hurricanes, including two Orange Bowls, two Fiesta Bowls and one Sugar Bowl.

Roberts was an eighth-round pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1988 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the team. In 1991, he joined the Dallas Cowboys and was part of two Super Bowl championship teams under the guidance of Johnson in 1992 and '93. Roberts played in every game for five consecutive seasons until his career ended in 1994 following foot and knee injuries. He finished his career with 50 catches for 476 yards and two touchdowns in 82 career games, playoffs included.

Roberts began his coaching career in 1999 as a member of the inaugural coaching staff at Florida Atlantic University. He coached there from 1999-02, including his final two seasons as the Owls' wide receivers coach.

In 2003, Roberts accepted his first NFL coaching position as the tight ends coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-06). It was followed by similar posts with the Cleveland Browns (2007-08) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2009-11).

In Roberts' first season with the Browns, Kellen Winslow had his first Pro Bowl season after catching 82 passes for a career-high 1,106 yards and five touchdowns. Winslow followed Roberts to Tampa Bay, and in three seasons together there Winslow caught 218 passes for 2,377 yards and 12 touchdowns. During their first season in Tampa Bay (2009), Winslow's 77 catches and 884 yards set franchise season marks for a tight end.

Roberts and his wife, Angel, have twin sons, Avery and Austin, and one daughter, Alyssa. Alyssa attends Grand Canyon University and Avery is a graduate of Florida Atlantic University, while Austin is a graduate and three-year letter winner at UCLA.

QUALITY CONTROL - OFFENSE
3rd NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Seth Ryans enters his first season as quality control for offense. He spent the last two seasons as a coaching intern, primarily working with the wide receivers.

Ryan played wide receiver at Clemson where he was a member of the 2016 national championship team. Clemson won two ACC titles, the Orange Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl over his time with the Tigers.

Ryan is the son of former Jets and Bills head coach Rex Ryan. Ryan recently married Meg Moran and the couple resides in Pacific City.

COACHING CAPSULE

2017-18 – Coaching Intern, Chargers
2019 – Quality Control/Offense, Chargers

RIP SCHERER

TIGHT ENDS
8th NFL SEASON
2nd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Veteran coach and former collegiate head coach Rip Scherer enters his second season guiding the tight ends for the Los Angeles Chargers. Scherer returned to the NFL after stints at Colorado and UCLA.

Scherer returned to the field in 2016 as senior associate head coach in charge of UCLA's tight ends. He had been working in the UCLA athletic administration since June of 2013, with oversight of the football program as one of his primary duties.

Scherer came to UCLA in the summer of 2013 after serving two seasons as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at the University of Colorado. In all, he has been coaching 39 years with 36 years of full-time coaching experience (29 in college and seven in the pros).

Scherer worked the 2009-10 seasons for the NFL's Carolina Panthers, where he was the quarterbacks coach after spending the previous four campaigns (2005-08) with the Cleveland Browns. Prior to that, he had logged time at 11 different schools, from coast to coast, in just over three decades in the collegiate ranks.

At Carolina (under head coach John Fox), Scherer was integral in the development of quarterback Matt Moore, who led the Panthers to a 4-1 record while starting the last five games of the 2009 season and generating a 104.9 quarterback rating after veteran Jake Delhomme sustained an injury. With injuries taking their toll on the 2010 stable of quarterbacks, Scherer and the Panthers used four different quarterbacks under center throughout the season.

In Cleveland, he served as the quarterbacks coach under head coach Romeo Crennel all four seasons from 2005-08, the final two adding assistant head coaching duties to his responsibilities. In his time there, he helped develop Derek Anderson, who was selected to the 2007 Pro Bowl after throwing for 3,787 yards and 29 touchdowns as the Browns boasted the eighth-best offense in the NFL in terms of scoring and passing yards-per-game.

He entered the professional ranks after he had coaching stints in the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and SEC, including two stops as a collegiate head coach at James Madison and Memphis. Prior to joining the Browns, he was an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (under head coach Jeff Bower) in 2003-04 where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He held the same title at Kansas (under head coach Terry Allen) for the 2001 season.

He went to Kansas from Memphis, where he served as head coach from 1995-2000, compiling a 22-44 record. He coached the Tigers to the school's first-ever win over Tennessee, 21-17, with the Volunteers ranked No. 6 at the time in 1996 and quarterbacked by Peyton Manning, a victory that was tabbed the "Upset of the Year" in college football by several news organizations (Memphis had been 0-15 against the Vols in its history). Prior to coaching at Memphis, he was the head coach at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Va., from 1991-94, during a time when the Dukes set or tied over 140 school records. He helped them to a 10-3 record in 1994 and 29-19 record over his four seasons at the helm.

Scherer was also the offensive coordinator at Arizona (Dick Tomey), Alabama (Bill Curry) and Georgia Tech (Bill Curry). He was in Tucson from 1988-90, the first season as the director of football operations and then the offensive coordinator the final two years. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Alabama in 1987 and Georgia Tech in 1986, where he was on staff from 1980-86, first as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator in 1980-81 and running backs coach and run game coordinator from 1982-84. He was also an assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 before returning to the field the next season.

He started his coaching career at Penn State under coach Joe Paterno as a graduate assistant in 1974-75 and then moved to North Carolina State (Bo Rein), where he was the quarterbacks coach in 1976 before moving on to Hawai'i as the running backs coach in 1977-78 (Dick Tomey). He coached the quarterbacks at Virginia in 1979 (Dick Bestwick) before going to Georgia Tech. Scherer earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from William & Mary in 1974, where he lettered three times at QB under coach Lou Holtz from 1971-73.

Scherer was born August 3, 1952 in Pittsburgh, Pa., and graduated from Toms River (N.J.) South High School, where he lettered in football. He is married to the former Michele Ragone, and the couple has three children, Scott (who played quarterback under his dad at Memphis), Melanie and Ryan (who played wide receiver at Penn State). His father, Rip Sr., was a long time high school football coach in Pittsburgh.

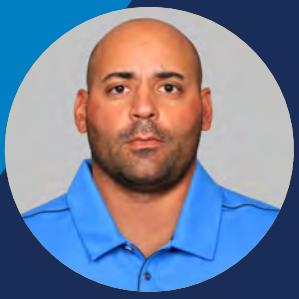
DAN SHAMASH

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
11th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS



Dan Shamash begins his third season with the Chargers and his 11th season in the NFL. He will serve as an offensive assistant in 2019.

In 2018, he spent his second season as quality control for offense, primarily working with the tight ends. In 2017, Shamash assisted with the team's receivers on the field and in the classroom, helping in the league's number one passing attack and the number four overall offensive unit. In 2017, wide receiver Keenan Allen tallied career highs with 102 receptions for 1,393 yards and added six touchdowns. He set a franchise single-season record for receptions and his receiving yardage output ranked second in team history. Allen ranked fourth in the NFL in receptions and third in receiving yards. He finished 10th in the NFL with 1,402 yards from scrimmage.

Shamash came to the Chargers after spending three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive quality control coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working with a unit that jumped to sixth in the NFL in total defense (321.7 yds/game). From 2012-13, Shamash served in the role of quality control to the head coach in Tampa Bay where he assisted then-head coach Greg Schiano in football aspects ranging from situational football and game management to daily practice, squad meetings and research projects.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Shamash spent two seasons (2009-2010) with the Cleveland Browns working as an offensive assistant coach where he was an assistant to the offensive line (2009) and assisted with the tight ends in 2010. The Browns ranked third in the NFL in offensive penalties in both seasons. Shamash worked directly with offensive coordinator Brian Daboll in preparation for daily practice scripting, scheduling and game planning, while assisting rookie and practice squad players within the offense. On top of his offensive responsibilities, Shamash worked with head coach Eric Mangini on studying situational football.

2019	–	Offensive Assistant, Chargers

In 2009, Shamash was part of a Browns team that won four consecutive games and an offense that recorded three straight 100-yard rushing games to finish the 2009 season, including 351 yards at Kansas City in a Week 16 victory. First-round selection (26th overall) center Alex Mack, was named to the All-Rookie Team while left tackle Joe Thomas was named to the All-Pro Team. In 2010, Shamash worked with tight end Ben Watson, who led the AFC in receptions by tight ends with 68 catches (fifth in the NFL), and Evan Moore, a practice squad player in 2009 who had a breakout season (20.1 yards/catch).

Shamash began his NFL career as an intern in the special events and game operations department with the New York Jets in 2008 at the same time he was working as a defensive assistant at Columbia University. A native of New York, N.Y., Shamash earned his undergraduate degree from Carnegie Mellon University in 2008. He was a three-year letterman for the Tartans at inside linebacker and he helped CMU to an 11-1 record in 2006, the team's winningest season in school history. Shamash and his wife, Cassie, have one daughter, Liana.

GIFF SMITH

DEFENSIVE LINE
9th NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Long-time defensive line coach Giff Smith heads into his third season coaching the position for the Chargers. In season two with the Bolts, Smith's instruction helped Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram move higher on the team's all-time sacks list – Bosa finishing the season ranked 10th with 28.5 career sacks and Ingram finishing ranked No. 7 with 42 sacks. In the Week 5 victory against Oakland, Ingram became just the second player in NFL history to have a sack, and interception and a rushing attempt in a single game, joining Jets linebacker Mo Lewis, who did so in 2000. Smith coached a defensive line in 2018 that had eight players post a sack.

In 2017, the duo of Joey Bosa and Melvin Ingram combined to be one of the fiercest tandems in the NFL, combing for 23 sacks and leading the league in pressures en route to their first Pro Bowl selections. Bosa set a career-high with 12.5 sacks to rank seventh in the league while Ingram equaled a career-best with 10.5 sacks. Bosa set an NFL record with 19 sacks in his first 20 career games. The defensive line recorded 36 of the 43 sacks on the season for the Chargers. The 43 sacks were tied for fifth in the NFL and were the most by the team since 2010. The line helped disrupt opposing quarterbacks to rank third in the league in fewest passing yards allowed and buckled down in the redzone to pace the NFL in redzone defense.

The Chargers' defensive line performed beyond admirably in Smith's first season in 2016. As a unit, the Bolts boasted the NFL's 10th-ranked rush defense. The Chargers held nine of their 16 opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground and recorded the NFL's second-highest percentage of tackles for loss. Bosa captured NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after leading the Chargers and all NFL rookies with 10.5 sacks. Despite playing in just 12 games, Bosa also led the Chargers in tackles for loss and quarterback pressures. As a unit, the Chargers defensive line accounted for nearly half (16) of the team's 35 sacks on the season.

A native of Mableton, Ga., Smith was a three-time All-America defensive end at Georgia Southern. He was a team captain as a senior and a part of three NCAA I-AA national title teams (1986, '89-90) for the Eagles.

Smith launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (1991-93) and Georgia (1994-95) before spending three seasons (1996-98) coaching wide receivers and the secondary at Georgia Southern. He went on to coach the defensive line for five seasons (1999-03) at Tulane before taking over as the defensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 2004. In 2007, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in sacks (47) and ranked second in tackles for loss. One of Smith's top players was Joe Anoa'i, a first-team All-ACC pick in 2006, who is now known as Roman Reigns and won World Wrestling Entertainment's (WWE) heavyweight championship in April 2016. Three additional linemen who played for Smith at Georgia Tech went on to play in the NFL. They include Michael Johnson, Vance Walker and Derrick Morgan.

Smith moved to the NFL in 2010, taking over as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills. He spent three seasons in Buffalo (2010-12), during which time defensive tackle Kyle Williams was selected to the first two Pro Bowls of his career and defensive end Mario Williams had a 10.5-sack season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Smith spent two years (2014-15) coaching the defensive line in Tennessee. In 2014, Smith helped the Titans implement a 3-4 scheme, and defensive tackle Jurrell Casey posted a career-high 13 tackles for loss. In 2015, the Titans racked up 39 sacks, tied for 12th in the league. The defensive line accounted for 13.5 of those sacks, including a team-high-tying seven by Casey, who was selected to his first-career Pro Bowl following the season.

Smith and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Ava and Sam. In 2000, Smith was inducted into the Georgia Southern Athletic Hall of Fame.

RICHARD SMITH

LINEBACKERS
32nd NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

A former defensive coordinator for the 2016 NFC Champion Atlanta Falcons, Richard Smith departed the Peachtree State after Super Bowl LI and returned to his native Los Angeles to join the Chargers as linebackers coach in 2017. Smith is one of the Chargers' most-experienced coaches with over 30 years of NFL coaching under his belt.

Smith coached 2018 fourth-round pick Kyzir White to be an opening day starter, recording an interception before being lost to a knee injury. The linebacker group was instrumental to the defense's improvement against the run in 2018, as opponents averaged nearly 30 fewer rushing yards-per-game than the season before. Jatavis Brown posted a career-high 100 tackles on the year.

In his first season with the Chargers, Smith oversaw a position group that saw six different players make starts. Three linebackers intercepted passes on the season, including a 59-yard pick-six by Korey Toomer in a Week 11 win vs. Buffalo. Smith helped acclimate players to the scheme of defensive coordinator Gus Bradley due to his keen insight into the defense working under Bradley's protégé, Dan Quinn, for the previous two years.

Smith spent two seasons with the Falcons (2015-16). In his first year, Atlanta's defense improved from 32nd to 16th in total defense and in his second season, his unit helped carry the Falcons all the way to NRG Stadium and a date with New England in Super Bowl LI. One player who excelled under Smith was outside linebacker Vic Beasley, who racked up 19.5 sacks from 2015-16, including a league-leading 15.5 in 2016.

Smith is a former offensive lineman who played at Rio Hondo Junior College in California from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State (1977), where he helped the Bulldogs to the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title. Following his playing career, Smith transitioned into coaching, returning to Rio Hondo to coach the offensive line for two seasons (1979-80). That led to stints at Cal State-Fullerton (1981-83), California (1984-86), and Arizona (1987) before he landed his first NFL job with the Houston Oilers in 1988.

Smith coached in Houston from 1988-92, handling special teams, while also assisting with the tight ends, linebackers, and offensive line. During his time with the Oilers, Smith worked closely with Pro Football Hall of Fame offensive lineman Bruce Matthews. From 1993-96, Smith coached special teams and linebackers for two seasons for the Denver Broncos. One of the players he coached on special teams was Anthony Lynn.

From 1997-02, Smith served as the linebackers coach in San Francisco. During his six seasons in the Bay Area, four 49ers linebackers earned Pro Bowl acclaim – Ken Norton, Jr., Lee Woodall, Winfred Tubbs and Julian Peterson. Smith spent the 2003-04 seasons as the assistant head coach and linebackers coach in Detroit.

In 2005, Smith landed his first post as a defensive coordinator with the Miami Dolphins. That year, Miami finished the season ranked second in the NFL with 49 sacks. That led to a three-year stint as the defensive coordinator for the Houston Texans (2006-08). Smith's defense in Houston produced two Pro Bowl and two second-team Associated Press All-Pro performers in outside linebacker DeMeco Ryans and defensive end Mario Williams.

Smith left Houston in 2009 and spent the next six seasons coaching linebackers, including two in Carolina (2009-10) and four in Denver (2011-14). During his time in Carolina, the Panthers had one of the NFL's top overall defenses and they collected the third-most takeaways in the NFL. Linebacker Jon Beason also earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009.

In Denver, Smith coached on four straight playoff teams, including a 2013 squad that won the AFC title and faced Seattle in Super Bowl XLVIII. Cumulatively during his four seasons in Denver, the Broncos ranked third in the league in rushing defense, fourth in third-down defense and seventh in total defense. Smith helped develop linebacker Von Miller, who has become one of the NFL's most dominant defenders. In 2011, Miller was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and selected as a Pro Bowl starter after tying Denver's franchise rookie record with 11.5 sacks. In 2012, Miller set a team record with 18.5 sacks en route to being named first-team All-Pro and runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year. In 2014, Miller was selected to the third Pro Bowl of his career after leading the Broncos and ranking sixth in the NFL with 14 sacks.

Smith has four children – Morgan, Aimee, Whitney and Travis – and is married to wife, Renee.

SHANE STEICHEN

QUARTERBACKS
9th NFL SEASON
8th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Shane Steichen will coach quarterbacks for the Chargers for a fourth season in 2019.

Philip Rivers continued his strong 2017 into 2018 as he threw two or more touchdowns in the first 12 contests of the season and registered a passer rating over 90 in the first 13 games. Rivers had a record-breaking performance against Arizona as he posted the most efficient game in NFL history, setting all-time marks for single-game consecutive completions (25) and single game completion percentage with at least 20 pass attempts (96.6). His consistency has been unrivaled in franchise history as Rivers has posted 10 seasons with over 4,000 yards passing, 13 with over 3,000 yards and six seasons with 30-plus passing touchdowns.

In his second season with the quarterbacks, the Chargers led the NFL in passing yards per game for the first time since 1985 while Philip Rivers was second in the league with 4,515 yards. Rivers posted his best rating (95.9) since 2013 en route to being selected to his seventh Pro Bowl and second in a row under the tutelage of Steichen. Rivers eclipsed the 50,000-yard passing mark for his career in 2017 while his 4,515 yards were the sixth-best single-season effort in team history.

In Steichen's first season as quarterbacks coach in 2016, Rivers passed for 4,386 yards he tossed 33 touchdown passes. It ranks as the sixth-highest single-season yardage total of his career and the eighth-highest in franchise history. Rivers' 33 touchdowns were the second-highest season touchdown total of his career and tied for the second-highest season mark in franchise annals. Rivers also completed a career-high 16 passes of 40 yards or longer, a total that ranked second in the NFL.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen played quarterback at Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif. He was named area MVP by the Sacramento Bee in 2002 after leading his squad to conference CIF sectional titles. Steichen went on to play collegiately at Nevada-Las Vegas, where he left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer. He earned a degree in journalism and media studies, and after graduation, spent one season as a student assistant and two as an offensive graduate assistant at UNLV.

COACHING CAPSULE

2007 – Student Assistant, Univ. of Nevada-Las Vegas
2008-09 – Grad. Assistant, Univ. of Nevada-Las Vegas
2010 – Offensive Assistant, Univ. of Louisville
2011-12 – Defensive Assistant, Chargers
2013 – Quality Control/Offense, Browns
2014-15 – Quality Control/Offense, Chargers
2016-18 – Quarterbacks, Chargers

Steichen worked as an offensive assistant at Louisville in 2010 before spending 2011-12 as a defensive assistant with the Chargers. He also spent 2013 as an offensive quality control coach in Cleveland, working with the quarterbacks. Because of injuries, three Browns quarterbacks started multiple games that season with each passing for over 300 yards at least once. It marked the first time in franchise history and sixth time in NFL history that ever happened.

From 2014-15, Steichen was an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers, working primarily with the team's wide receivers. In 2014, the Chargers were the only team in the NFL to feature four players with at least 778 yards receiving and four touchdown catches. Three of the four were wide receivers. The same four players each also finished the season with more than 50 catches, just the fourth time in franchise history that a team had four 50-catch players. In 2015, the Chargers were the only team in the NFL with seven players who each had at least 400 yards receiving and three touchdown catches. Four of the seven were again wide receivers.

Steichen and wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson. Steichen's older brother, Sean, was a former punter at Boise State.

JOHN LOTT

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
21st NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

John Lott enters his third season as the Strength and Speed Development Coach for the Los Angeles Chargers. Lott returned to the NFL after serving as the Strength and Speed Development Coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Lott previously was the strength and conditioning coach with the Cleveland Browns (2005-06) and came into the NFL with the New York Jets (1997-2004) under Hall of Fame head coach Bill Parcells.

A native of Denton, Texas, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. Lott was a frequent contributor at the NFL scouting combine in Indianapolis and was recognized in February of 2009 at the combine as the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He also was honored as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach by Power Magazine.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and was a two-time team captain by his teammates. He graduated as the strongest man in school history.

After his football career, Lott was the first full-time head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, University of North Texas. Lott then was named the first full-time head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston. On top of putting together programs for every collegiate team on campus, Lott worked with the Santa Monica Track Club that featured some of the top names in track and field, including Carl Lewis and Leroy Burrell. He worked with the track club through the Barcelona and Atlanta Olympics, a stretch that showcased six world records, two 100-meter world records and four 4x100-meter relay world records. In addition to his duties with the Santa Monica Track Club, Lott worked with the Indonesian and Japanese national track programs. He also individually trained Frank Rutherford of the Bahamas. Rutherford became the first Bahamian track athlete to earn a medal in the Olympic games, winning bronze in the triple jump at Barcelona in 1992.

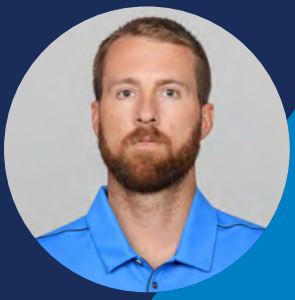
Lott earned his bachelor's degree in Corporate Fitness in 1988 with minors in Biology and Kinesiology, and later earned his master's in Physical Education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus.

Outside of the weight room, Lott has made a huge impact all across the globe. For seven years he hosted the Get Your Mind Right with Coach John Lott Football Camps. All the proceeds went to the African Bible College in Malawi, Africa. Through the camps, a football stadium, weight room and basketball arena were built. The proceeds also provided over 2,500 nets to help prevent the spread of Malaria, 30,000 pairs of shoes, and two safe houses for young women were built. Also, three water wells and a farm were constructed and donated to the Chapampa Tribe.

Lott and his wife Kim have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

COACHING CAPSULE

1988 – Asst. Strength Coach, University of Texas
1989-90 – Head Strength Coach, Univ. of North Texas
1991-96 – Head Strength Coach, Univ. of Houston
1997-04 – Strength and Conditioning Coach, Jets
2005-06 – Strength and Conditioning Coach, Browns
2007-14 – Strength and Speed Development, Cardinals
2017-19 – Strength and Speed Development, Chargers



JONATHAN BROOKS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH
3rd NFL SEASON
3rd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Jonathan Brooks is in his third season as the Chargers' Assistant Strength Coach under the guidance of Head Strength & Conditioning Coach John Lott.

Brooks previously trained at EXOS in Frisco, Texas, a training company that specializes in sports performance for NFL prospects preparing for the NFL Combine in Indianapolis. Additionally, he developed unique and innovative off-season workout programs tailored to address specific areas or techniques numerous NFL players, the likes of which include Seattle's Russell Wilson, Dallas' Sean Lee, and Denver's T.J. Ward, wanted to concentrate on growing or improving. Brooks has also worked with several NBA prospects in their preparation for the NBA combine and draft, including Eric Gordon, who currently plays for the Houston Rockets.

A native of Tucson, Ariz., Brooks earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from the University of New Mexico in 2009.

He and his wife, Kylie, have two sons named Braxton and Landon.

COACHING CAPSULE

2017-19 – Assistant Strength Coach, Chargers

TYLER JUDKINS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH
2nd NFL SEASON
2nd SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Tyler Judkins enters his second season with the Chargers and his first as the assistant strength coach. Judkins served as the strength and conditioning intern for the 2018 season.

Judkins came to the NFL after six seasons on the Bruin Strength and Conditioning staff. He was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach, under the direction of former head football strength and conditioning coordinator, Sal Alosi, in August 2014.

Judkins earned his Master's degree in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention while serving as a graduate assistant in the Bruin program from 2013-14. He began his time at UCLA as an intern with the Bruin Strength staff in 2012.

COACHING CAPSULE

2012 – Strength & Conditioning Intern, UCLA
2013-14 – Strength & Conditioning G.A., UCLA
2015-17 – Assistant Strength Coach, UCLA
2018 – Strength & Conditioning Intern, Chargers
2019 – Assistant Strength Coach, Chargers

Judkins earned his Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Augsburg College, in Minnesota, in 2010. He was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back on the football team at Augsburg. In July of 2016, he married Katie Sheets and the couple welcomed their first child, Carter, in October of 2018.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

JOJO WOODEN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
23rd NFL SEASON
7th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Wooden joined the Chargers in 2013 and oversees the team's pro and college scouting departments.

Prior to Los Angeles, he spent 16 seasons with the New York Jets (1997-12), including the last six as their assistant director, player personnel. He originally joined the Jets in 1997 and served as a pro personnel assistant (1997-98), pro scout (1999-00), senior pro scout/AFC (2001-02), assistant director of pro scouting (2003) and director of pro scouting (2004-06).

A native of Hartford, Conn., Wooden started two seasons at outside linebacker at Syracuse. The Orangemen went to five bowl games during his time with the team and posted back-to-back 10-2 seasons during his junior and senior seasons, finishing both years ranked nationally in the Top-10. After graduating with a degree in sociology, he went to training camp with the Arizona Cardinals in 1993.

Wooden and wife, Sarah, have two daughters.

Wooden's older brother, Terry, played nine seasons in the NFL as a linebacker, including one each with Oakland and Kansas City, and seven with Seattle. He currently works as a college scout for the New Orleans Saints.

LOUIS CLARK

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL
23rd NFL SEASON
4th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

In May 2016, the Chargers hired Louis Clark as senior director of pro personnel. He most recently held the same position for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Clark originally joined the Eagles in 2013 as a pro scout after previously holding the position of director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent 16 seasons in the Jaguars' player personnel department as a college scout, assistant director of pro personnel and director of pro personnel.

Prior to beginning his scouting career, Clark served as the running backs and special teams coach of the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1996. He also coached with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, assisting the wide receivers during training camp.

A native of Tupelo, Miss., Clark graduated from Mississippi State with a degree in educational psychology. He played wide receiver in Starkville from 1983-86 and was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the 10th round of the 1987 NFL Draft. Clark played seven seasons in the NFL, including six with the Seahawks and one with the Green Bay Packers, before retiring after the 1993 season.

Clark's brother, Dave, played 13 seasons in Major League Baseball and is currently the third base coach of the Detroit Tigers.

DENNIS ABRAHAM

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING
24th NFL SEASON
19th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Dennis Abraham coordinates the procurement of players during free agency, while also scouting and evaluating players in the NFL and Canadian Football League. During the season, in addition to his role in player personnel, Abraham handles advance scouting of upcoming Chargers opponents.

Abraham spent five years in the personnel department for the Buffalo Bills, helping prepare the defensive game analysis for the coaches. He also served as the Bills' training camp coordinator from 1998-00.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y., Abraham attended Akron Central (N.Y.) High School, competing in football, basketball and baseball. He then played center and tackle at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, graduating in 1993 with a degree in sports management. In 2012, Abraham was inducted onto the Wall of Fame at Akron Central.

Abraham and wife, Amy, have two sons, D.J. and Dustyn.

KEVIN KELLY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING
19th NFL SEASON
7th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Kelly joined the Chargers in 2013 from the New York Jets, where he spent the 2012 season as a personnel scout. He spent three seasons (2009-11) as an area scout with the Indianapolis Colts and eight seasons as an area scout with the Cleveland Browns (2001-08).

Kelly began his collegiate career as a linebacker at the University of Miami in 1983 when the Hurricanes won the national championship. In 1984, he transferred to Indiana where he played until 1987, captaining the Hoosiers' 1987 Peach Bowl team. Kelly earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's in sports marketing and management.

After graduating, Kelly spent 12 seasons coaching before becoming a scout. He started as a defensive graduate assistant at Indiana (1989-92) before coaching the defensive line at Lake Forest College in 1993, linebackers at John Carroll University in 1994, defensive coordinator at Case Western University in 1995 and head coach at St. Viator High School in Illinois from 1996-00.

Kelly and his wife Allison have two sons, Ryan and Payton, and a daughter, Abigail.

REGIS ELLER

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING
13th NFL SEASON
11th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

In 2018, Eller was promoted to his current position of assistant director of pro scouting. He was named a pro scout in 2016 after spending five years as an area scout.

Eller originally became an area scout for the Chargers in 2011 after working from 2008-10 as an administrative assistant in the coaching department. He began as the team's Northeast regional scout and was re-assigned to the Mid-Atlantic region in 2013.

Prior to working for the Chargers, Eller was an intern linebackers coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 2005. He also coached football at Breck High School in Minneapolis, where he attended and played linebacker. He later played linebacker at Northwestern University from 1999-00.

A native of Minneapolis, Eller's father, Carl Eller, played 16 NFL seasons, all but one with the Minnesota Vikings, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

JUSTIN SHERIDAN

NATIONAL CROSSCHECKER
14th NFL SEASON
6th SEASON WITH CHARGERS

Sheridan joined the Chargers in 2014 after spending eight seasons in Tampa Bay as both a college and pro scout. He joined the Buccaneers' staff in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant before being promoted to pro scout in 2008.

Prior to Tampa Bay, Sheridan spent March 2004-June 2006 as director of football operations at Northwestern University, where he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program. Sheridan was originally hired at Northwestern as a recruiting assistant in July 2001 and was promoted to assistant director of football operations in February 2003.

Sheridan spent time as the assistant director of football operations at University of Pennsylvania and as an assistant coach at Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College).

A native of Ebensburg, Pa., Sheridan graduated from Western Maryland with a degree in business administration and a minor in accounting. At WMC, he lettered four years in football and played on two conference championship teams.

Sheridan and wife, Kristen, have two sons – Payton and Brooks – and a daughter, Tatum.

KEENAN ALLEN

WIDE RECEIVER | CALIFORNIA
6-2 | 211 lbs | GREENSBORO, N.C.
DRAFT 3 — 2013
EXPERIENCE: 7TH NFL SEASON
7TH YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Two-time Pro Bowl selection (2017-18 seasons) and was named Comeback Player of the Year in 2017 by The Associated Press, the Professional Football Writers of America and Sporting News.
- Set a Chargers franchise record for single-season receptions with 102 in 2017, topping Hall of Fame RB LaDainian Tomlinson's 100 in 2003.
- Earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from the PFWA and Sports Illustrated while earning Sporting News Rookie of the Year and PFWA All-Rookie recognition in 2013 after a 71-catch season for 1,046 yards (14.7 avg.) and eight touchdowns.
- In votes by fans in 2013, was chosen as the Pepsi Next Rookie of the Year and was a four-time Pepsi Next Rookie of the Week selection (Weeks 6, 12, 15 and 17).
- In 2017, became the first player in NFL history to post three consecutive games with 10-plus receptions, 100-plus receiving yards and at least one touchdown catch (Week 11 vs. Buffalo, Week 12 at Dallas and Week 13 vs. Cleveland).
- With an interception in Week 16 of 2017, became the first player in NFL history to have 90-plus catches and an interception in the same season, while also becoming just the third player to record 1,000-plus receiving yards and an interception in the same season, joining Hall of Fame WRs Don Hutson (1942) and Randy Moss (2009).
- In 2016, became the first player in NFL history with 12-plus catches in three of a team's first six games in a season (Week 1 vs. Detroit, Week 3 at Minnesota and Week 6 at Green Bay).
- Ranks tied with TE Antonio Gates for No. 5 in team annals with 21 career 100-yard receiving performances.
- Set team rookie records in 2013 with five 100-yard receiving games and 71 catches (LaDainian Tomlinson, 59 receptions in 2001).
- In the 2013 AFC Divisional as a rookie, posted a 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, marking the first two-touchdown catch playoff game by a Charger since Hall of Fame TE Kellen Winslow (Jan. 9, 1983) did so in an AFC Wild Card victory at Pittsburgh, while his 142 yards tied TE Keith Jackson (1988) for the second-most by a rookie in a playoff game in NFL history.
- Over the past two seasons, appeared in all 32 games with 29 starts while posting 199 catches for 2,589 yards (13.0 avg.) and 12 touchdowns, good for the most receptions over a two-year stretch in Chargers history.
- Set career highs in 2017 with 102 receptions and 1,393 receiving yards (13.7 avg.) while hauling in six touchdowns.
- Recorded seven 100-yard performances in 2017, ranking as the most in a season by a Charger since 1980.
- Through the first eight games in 2015, registered 67 catches for 725 yards (10.8 avg.) and four touchdowns, the third-most receptions midway through a season in NFL history, before suffering a season-ending kidney injury.
- Posted five touchdown catches over three games in 2013, tying the most by a Chargers WR in a three-game stretch since 1996.
- Posted back-to-back 100-yard performances twice in 2013, a feat that hadn't been accomplished by a Chargers rookie since WR Don Norton did so in 1960.
- Started three-of-four career postseason games, registering 14 catches for 275 yards (19.6 avg.) and three touchdowns.

BEYOND THE BOLT

In April 2016, Allen co-hosted a two-day football camp for youth from the Kaiserslautern Military Community at Ramstein Air Base in Ramstein, Germany, with Buffalo WR Andre Roberts. It was Allen's first time visiting Europe. Allen and Roberts visited the USO's Warrior Center, signed autographs at Ramstein Air Base, visited the Landstuhl Regional Medical Center and spent time at the USO's Deployment Center for Active Duty Troops.

Allen is a majority stakeholder in the company Zen Enterprises, which manufactures Zen Sports Balm, a product that is used to relieve aches and pains associated with muscles and joints, especially for individuals suffering from arthritis, backaches, strains, sprains and bruises. Zen Enterprises' products are available in the United States and the company expanding business to China this year.

An incredible self-motivator, Allen taught himself how to play golf while rehabbing from a torn ACL in the 2016 season opener. He played in the Chargers Invitational each of the past two years to raise money for the Chargers Community Foundation. In addition to golf, Allen taught himself how to play the piano from YouTube videos after he was motivated to learn from seeing his friend perform.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Badgley began working with The Brooke Healey Foundation this offseason to build awareness and raise research funds for Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma. DIPG is an inoperable and aggressive tumor in the middle of the brain stem that only affects children. The New Jersey-based foundation helps families dealing with pediatric cancers and honors Brooke Healey, a five-year-old that had an eight-month battle with DIPG in 2013. Badgley plans to raise awareness of the foundation this year through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative.

In December 2018, Badgley was one of five players to be involved with the team's Bikes for Kids initiative. 150 students at Cesar Chavez Elementary in Long Beach, Calif., wrote a short essay on the most influential person in their lives, with a handful of winners receiving bicycles and helmets. Badgley, WR Geremy Davis, CB Michael Davis, CB Brandon Facyson and WR Artavis Scott surprised the students and revealed that all 150 students would be receiving bikes and helmets courtesy of the Los Angeles Chargers and California Resources Corporation.

in the first quarter, good for the second-longest in team postseason annals…at New England (AFC Divisional, Jan. 13): Made both extra points and attempted a pair of onside kicks.

BEYOND THE BOLT

A strong supporter of funding for research to find a cure for pediatric cancer, Bosa penned an article to Sports Illustrated about the cleats he wore for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2017. The cleats he donned for the Dec. 3 home game against the Browns were designed by Sean, a friend that Bosa made when visiting the MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston while playing for Ohio State. They were designed gold, the color for pediatric cancer, and on the side, they said, 'Children Deserve #MoreThan4.' Sean had opened Bosa's eyes about how only four percent of all money raised for cancer research goes to pediatric cancer, inspiring the slogan on the cleats. Bosa made those cleats flash on the highlight reels that week – leading the team with seven solo tackles, three tackles for loss and a strip-sack in the fourth quarter to force a turnover.

This past offseason, Bosa appeared as an extra in the final season of 'Game of Thrones.' He flew to Belfast, Northern Ireland, to film. "It was a lot of work and time. It was freezing cold in Belfast in the middle of the night," Bosa said. "I love the writers. Thanks for having me out there."

Bosa's family has long been part of the NFL. He and his brother, Nick – who was selected second overall by San Francisco in the 2019 NFL Draft – are the newest members of the family to put on shoulder pads at the professional level. Their cousin, Jake Kumerow, entered the league in 2015 and is currently on the Green Bay roster. Joey and Nick's father, John, was taken No. 16 overall in 1987 by Miami. Eric Kumerow is John Bosa's brother-in-law and Jake's father. He was a first-round pick of the Dolphins one year after John. Joey and Nick's grandfather, Palmer Pyle Jr., played at Michigan State before being drafted by the Baltimore Colts. Their great-uncle, Mike, was a center for Chicago for nine seasons.

around T Jared Veldheer to bring down QB Case Keenum…Dropped Keenum for a four-yard loss on an aborted snap in the third quarter for his second tackle for loss on the day…Recovered a fumble that was forced by S Adrian Phillips stripping WR Tim Patrick midway through the third quarter…at Baltimore (AFC Wild Card, Jan. 6): Part of a defense that set team postseason records for the fewest single-game net yards allowed (229), including a record 69 in the first half, which was the fewest allowed in a postseason game since the 2006 AFC Wild Card…Contributed on a pass rush that tied a team postseason record with seven sacks on the day…Recorded two solo tackles, a tackle for loss and a six-yard sack…On the play, lined up over G/T James Hurst, overpowering him to chase down Lamar Jackson to force a punt…Made his career postseason debut, starting at DE…at New England (AFC Divisional, Jan. 13): Participated on 69 plays on defense and assisted on a tackle.

2017: Selected to his first Pro Bowl, but did not participate and was replaced by Los Angeles Chargers DE Melvin Ingram…Named All-AFC (DE) by the Professional Football Writers of America…Started all 16 contests at DE…Led the team with 99 tackles (61 solo), including 17.5 tackles for loss and 12.5 sacks…Totaled the most sacks (19.0) in a player's first 20 career games since the sack became an official statistic in 1982, passing LB Aldon Smith (18.5)…Brought his career total to 23 sacks, moving past DT Shawn Lee, DE Marcellus Wiley and DT Corey Liuget for sole possession of 12th in team annals…His 12.5 sacks ranked second in the AFC and No. 7 in the NFL in 2017…Posted four games with a strip-sack, including back-to-back games (Weeks 5 and 6)…Part of a defensive unit that ranked tied for fifth in the NFL with 43 sacks…Combined with Ingram (10.5 sacks), was the No. 2 sack duo in the NFL with 23 sacks between the two of them…Awards: Pro Bowl Selection (First)…Professional Football Writers of America All-AFC (DE)…Pro Football Journal Second-Team All-AFC (DE)…at Denver (Sept. 11): Started at DE and posted six tackles (three solo), registering 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks…The 1.5 sacks tied with Melvin Ingram for a game high…It marked his seventh-consecutive game with at least a half-sack…Brought down QB Trevor Siemian in the first quarter for his first sack of the season after powering past T Menelik Watson…In the fourth quarter, split a sack of Siemian with

Davis was one of five players to be involved with the team's Bikes for Kids initiative this past December. 150 students at Cesar Chavez Elementary in Long Beach, Calif., wrote a short essay on the most influential person in their lives, with a handful of winners receiving bicycles and helmets. Davis, K Michael Badgley, CB Michael Davis, CB Brandon Facyson and WR Artavis Scott surprised the students and revealed that all 150 students would be receiving bikes and helmets courtesy of the Los Angeles Chargers and California Resources Corporation.

In September 2018, Davis participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Davis was one of five players to be involved with the team's Bikes for Kids initiative this past December. 150 students at Cesar Chavez Elementary in Long Beach, Calif., wrote a short essay on the most influential person in their lives, with a handful of winners receiving bicycles and helmets. Davis, K Michael Badgley, WR Geremy Davis, CB Brandon Facyson and WR Artavis Scott surprised the students and revealed that all 150 students would be receiving bikes and helmets courtesy of the Los Angeles Chargers and California Resources Corporation.

In September 2018, Davis participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

BEYOND THE BOLT

With his wife, Kelly, Davis founded the Thomas Davis Defending Dreams Foundation, a non-profit dedicated to providing and promoting free programs that enhance the quality of life for underprivileged children and their families. The foundation performs several programs, including a back-to-school supply giveaway, a Thanksgiving meal for members of a local women's shelter and a Christmas gift giveaway that spans three states. Additionally, Davis provides two college scholarships each year to graduating high school seniors that have completed the Youth Leadership Academy program. In 2013, he led the construction of the first and only playground in his hometown of Shellman, Ga.

For his work in the community mixed with his success on the field, Davis was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2014. He became the first linebacker to receive the award since Hall of Fame LB Derrick Brooks was recognized as the Man of the Year in 2000. Davis' efforts through his foundation and other means to promote programs for underserved served youth have been consistent throughout his career. When accepting the honor, Davis said, "Just knowing the struggles of some parents. I grew up in a single-parent household, and my mom struggled to raise me and my sister, and I didn't want these kids to go through what we had to go through. I tried to reach out and give back to them as much as I can to make sure that those kids don't go through those struggles."

BEYOND THE BOLT

Facyson was one of five players to be involved with the team's Bikes for Kids initiative this past December. 150 students at Cesar Chavez Elementary in Long Beach, Calif., wrote a short essay on the most influential person in their lives, with a handful of winners receiving bicycles and helmets. Facyson, K Michael Badgley, WR Geremy Davis, CB Michael Davis and WR Artavis Scott surprised the students and revealed that all 150 students would be receiving bikes and helmets courtesy of the Los Angeles Chargers and California Resources Corporation.

A biology major at Virginia Tech, Facyson participated in STEM on the sideline at Tustin (Calif.) High in March 2019. Students at the event engineered and built science and technology projects, including a pinball machine, a guitar and a vending machine. Facyson encouraged students to get involved in STEM programs and stay involved through their high school years.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Feeney raised awareness for Multiple Sclerosis through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018. The cleats he wore were auctioned to raise funds for the National MS Society to find a cure for MS. He was first introduced to the National MS Society in recent years when his sister joined the staff in Chicago. "Over the last two years, I have become aware of all the good things they do from fundraising and programs to help individuals and families affected by this disease," Feeney said. "My hope in showcasing the Society for the My Cause, My Cleats campaign is to bring awareness to this disease and be part of the fight to end MS forever."

BEYOND THE BOLT

Gordon's parents played an instrumental role in his upbringing. His mother, Carmen, has never missed one of his games. Before enrolling at Wisconsin, she would shuttle him to and from football camps and combines as far away as Tennessee and Alabama. Carmen also stayed after him to maintain good grades as he was named to a host of all-academic teams during his college career at Wisconsin. Melvin wore No. 25 for the Badgers and changed this offseason to No. 25 with the Bolts because it was his mother's age when he was born.

Gordon's father, Melvin Jr., also known as "Big Bo," taught his son the importance of strength and conditioning. The family had a weight room in the basement of their Kenosha home and Melvin Sr., was a regular fixture in the weight room at Bradford High School. Gordon continued his intense training regimen at Wisconsin where he once ran every step in Camp Randall Stadium while wearing a weighted vest. A former semi-pro football player, the elder Gordon used to show his son tapes of great running backs like Barry Sanders and Walter Payton.

On his off day leading up to Week 2 of the 2018 season, Gordon and some of his teammates volunteered in the Los Angeles Meal Pack on 9/11 Day, which helps feed food-insecure children, elderly and veterans. He founded his charity, Melvin Gordon's Beyond the Flash Foundation, earlier this year to combat childhood hunger. For his efforts on Sept. 11, Gordon was awarded Week 1 NFLPA Community MVP. As part of the recognition, the NFLPA donated $10,000 to his foundation.

BEYOND THE BOLT

For the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative last year, Green donned cleats promoting The Green Family Foundation, a non-profit he founded with his wife, Marianne, in 2018. The foundation provides programs resources, outreach community efforts as well as advocates for and encourages the development of physical and cognitive skills necessary for youth to live a balanced and wholesome life. Green and his wife want to provide youth with sports as an outlet as well as a way to promote physical and mental health. In 2018, Green donated $500 for each reception he made to his foundation's efforts.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Hayward's Hands, a foundation that he started in 2015, annually hosts a number of events in his native Perry, Ga., including a Thanksgiving Drive, a Christmas Toy Drive and a youth football camp. The foundation also puts on basketball skills camps and cheerleader camps for youth in his hometown. In 2017, Hayward pledged more than $50,000 to his alma mater, Perry (Ga.) High, through the foundation to fund college scholarships to Perry students for the next decade. He was motivated to establish Hayward's Hands after his mother, Tish, was diagnosed with breast cancer. Tish and Casey oversaw the foundation together until she passed away in 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Two-time Pro Bowl Selection (2017-18 seasons) and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September in 2017 when he led the conference with 5.5 sacks over three games during the opening month of the season.
- In the home game against Oakland last year, became the second player in NFL history to have a sack, an interception and a rushing attempt in a single game (New York Jets LB Mo Lewis, 2000).
- Posted 7.5 sacks in the first five weeks of 2017, good for the most through five games in Chargers history.
- Moved into sole possession of No. 7 on the team's all-time sacks list with 42 for his career.
- Recorded two sacks in the AFC Wild Card this past season at Baltimore, the first Charger with two-plus sacks in a postseason game since DE Raylee Johnson in Super Bowl XXIX against San Francisco.
- Tied single-season career highs in tackles (76) and sacks (10.5) in 2017, while setting a new personal best with 22.5 tackles for loss.
- Ranks 12th in the NFL over the last three seasons with 36 sacks.
- In 2017, combined with DE Joey Bosa to total 23 sacks between them and rank as the No. 2 sack duo in the NFL.

2018: Selected to his second Pro Bowl…Started at DE in all 16 contests…Recorded 53 tackles (35 solo) with seven sacks and 14 tackles for loss…Broke up five passes, forced a fumble and posted the first regular-season INT of his career, returning it eight yards…Appeared on offense to register the first rushing attempt of his career in the first matchup against Oakland, becoming just the second player in NFL history to record a sack, INT and a rushing attempt in the same game (New York Jets LB Mo Lewis, 2000)…Moved into sole possession of No. 7 on the Chargers all-time sacks list with 42 in his career, passing DE Burt Grossman (38.0) and DE Chris Mims (38.0)…Started both postseason games at DE…Posted nine tackles (eight solo), two sacks and three tackles for loss…Added a pass defensed, a forced fumble and a recovery…Became the first Charger with two-plus sacks in a postseason game since DE Raylee Johnson did so in Super Bowl XXIX against San Francisco…Awards: Pro Bowl Selection (Second)…vs. Kansas City (Sept. 9): Started at DE, leading all defensive linemen with 53 defensive snaps played…Assisted on a tackle…at Buffalo (Sept. 16): Registered his first sacks of the season, finishing with 1.5 takedowns for 13.5 yards to bring his career total to 36.5 sacks…Posted four tackles (three solo) and the 1.5 tackles for loss…Applied pressure to QB Josh Allen in the third quarter, forcing him to roll to his right and throw an INT to S Adrian Phillips…Split a sack with NT Damion Square when both players beat their blockers and met in the backfield to bring Allen down for an 11-yard loss…Earlier in the game, forced Allen to roll right and throw a pass intended for TE Jason Croom that was nearly picked off by LB Kyzir White in the flat…at Los Angeles Rams (Sept. 23): Appeared in the 80th game of his career…Posted a solo stop and a tackle for loss…vs. San Francisco (Sept. 30): Finished with four tackles (two solo)…Provided pressure in the third quarter on QB C.J. Beathard, forcing him to roll left before being sacked by S Derwin James…Provided a block on CB Trevor Williams' 86-yard INT return in the third quarter to give the offense the ball at the 49ers 12-yard line…vs. Oakland (Oct. 7): Started at DE, playing 43 defensive snaps and one on offense…Posted a season-high seven tackles (five solo), a sack and two tackles for loss…Added a pass defensed and the first regular-season INT of his career…On the offensive play, registered the first carry of his career…Became just the second player in NFL history to record a sack, INT and a rushing attempt in the same game (New York Jets LB Mo Lewis, 2000)…Collapsed the pocket in the first quarter with DT Darius Philon and DE Isaac Rochell before taking down QB Derek Carr for the sack…It brought his career sacks of Carr to 3.5, only having sacked Washington QB Alex Smith (5.0) more in his career…Picked off Carr in the end zone in the third quarter after undercutting the route of TE Derek Carrier, returning the ball to the four-yard line…Showed off his athleticism in the first quarter, slipping

BEYOND THE BOLT

Off the field, Ingram is an up-and-coming rap musician. One of his songs, 'Pops,' is a tribute to his late father, George Melvin Ingram Jr., who died of a heart attack in 1998. Ingram's father predicted that his infant son would one day play in the NFL.

Ingram promoted his foundation, 'Mission Possible,' which he founded in 2015, through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative this past season. Mission Possible provides inner-city and low-income youth with additional educational opportunities and resources. The foundation provides resources to youth in Ingram's hometown, San Diego and Los Angeles. The foundation hosted its fifth-annual Family Fun Day in June 2018, providing free food, outdoor games, prizes and activities at Hamlet (N.C.) Memorial Park. Ingram's older sister, Monique, described the importance of giving back to the community by saying, 'A lot of people don't get to see a [professional] football player in this town, so I love that he likes to come back and interact with the people of the community.' In 2016, Mission Possible had a celebrity waiter dinner that raised more than $120,000.

BEYOND THE BOLT

After being selected by the Chargers 17th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft, James' mother wrote him a letter congratulating him on his accomplishments, bringing the safety to tears. "She sacrificed a lot for me to be here," he said. Less than three months later, he was able to hold up his end of a life-long promise: Buying his mother, Shanita Russell, her dream house. James announced the purchase on July 2, 2018, on Instagram, captioning a photo of him and his mother in front of the house, "Today was a special day. Bought my Momma her dream house I always promised her since I was a kid. I don't think there is anybody more deserving in the world than her."

sacks and an INT in his first three career games… vs. San Francisco (Sept. 30): Continued to re-write record books, finishing with seven tackles (five solo), a 10-yard sack, a tackle for loss and two passes defensed…The sack gave him three on the season, making him the first DB in NFL history to post three-plus sacks over the first four games of his career… On the sack, brought down QB C.J. Beathard after the passer was flushed out of the pocket to his left by DE Melvin Ingram III…In the first quarter, broke up a pass that was intended for RB Alfred Morris when he came untouched off the edge and leaped in the air to bat the ball down in the backfield…Hit Beathard as he threw the ball in the fourth quarter, beating OL Garry Gilliam with a speed-rush, resulting in an INT by DE Isaac Rochell…vs. Oakland (Oct. 7): Recorded five tackles (four solo)…at Cleveland (Oct. 14): Registered five tackles (four solo) and a half-sack… Posted 0.5 tackles for loss…Split the sack with NT Damion Square in the first half…On the play, beat the block of RB Carlos Hyde to force QB Baker Mayfield to scramble and kept pursuit to bring down Mayfield with Square…Added a 20-yard kickoff return… vs. Tennessee (Wembley Stadium, Oct. 21): Recorded eight tackles (five solo)…at Seattle (Nov. 4): Set a single-game career high with 11 tackles (four solo)…at Oakland (Nov. 11): Registered nine tackles (five solo) and a pass defensed…In the first quarter, stopped WR/RS Dwayne Harris on a jet-sweep on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line to force a turnover on downs…Earlier in the game, showed off his athleticism by sprinting untouched from the left side of the formation to bring down RB Doug Martin from behind on an off-tackle run to the right…vs. Denver (Nov. 18): Posted seven solo tackles…vs. Arizona (Nov. 25): Registered seven tackles (five solo)…Broke up three passes, including an INT that he returned three yards…Became the first defensive rookie since 2012 (OLB Zach Brown while with Tennessee) to recorded multiple INTs and at least 3.5 sacks in their rookie season…On the play, dropped off a route where he was covering FB Derrick Coleman to pick off a pass intended for WR Christian Kirk…In the first quarter, dove to deflect a pass to TE Ricky Seals-Jones at the goal line to force a Cardinals field goal… at Pittsburgh (Dec. 2): Posted three tackles (two solo) and four passes defensed, including an INT that he returned 23 yards…Trailed TE Vance McDonald in coverage, picking off the underthrown pass in the second quarter…Became the first player with three INTs and three sacks in a single season since 2016 (Pittsburgh LB Ryan Shazier and New York Giants S Landon Collins), and the first rookie since Zach Brown in 2012…Late in the first half, tipped away a pass intended for McDonald on a seam-route to force a Steelers field goal…Provided a big hit on WR Antonio Brown along the sideline to prevent Brown getting two feet down in-bounds, wiping out a 24-yard gain…vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 9): Posted seven tackles (six solo)… at Kansas City (Dec. 13): Was one of seven Chargers defenders to play all 60 defensive snaps…Started at S, posting five tackles (four solo)…Added four plays on special teams…vs. Baltimore (Dec. 22): Recorded six tackles (four solo), becoming the first Chargers rookie in history with at least 100 tackles (coaches totals)…Added a pass defensed, diving to knock away a pass on third-and-six intended for TE Hayden Hurst, forcing a Ravens punt…at Denver (Dec. 30): Started at S and posted six tackles (five solo)…at Baltimore (AFC Wild Card, Jan. 6): Part of a defense that set team postseason records for the fewest single-game net yards allowed (229), including a record 69 in the first half, which was the fewest allowed in a postseason game since the 2006 AFC Wild Card… Posted five solo tackles and a tackle for loss…Made his NFL postseason debut, appearing on all 61 defensive plays and four special teams snaps after starting at S…

BEYOND THE BOLT

Jenkins grew up in a big family, one of 18 children – 11 girls and seven boys. He once shared a room with three brothers, they would alternate daily who would sleep on the bed and who would sleep on the floor. Jenkins credits his upbringing for shaping his work ethic, determination and competitive edge, saying "I liked growing up in a big family. It was never boring. We always had to fight for stuff because there was so many of us."

Along with DE Joey Bosa and NT Damion Square, Jenkins hosted patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center this past October. The players were placed at stations along a "trick-or-treat trail" throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

BEYOND THE BOLT

In July 2017, Jones was sworn in as a special deputy sheriff for the Ottawa County (Ohio) Sheriff's Office. Jones will help to change the perception of law enforcement of Ottawa County residents and youth. Ottawa County Sheriff Steve Levorchick said, "My hope is to get out there with him in uniform and walk through our schools and just surprise some of the kids. Let them see Cardale in a Sheriff office uniform rather than an NFL uniform and let them see the cops aren't necessarily the bad guys."

2018 Selected by Los Angeles Chargers in the third round (84th overall) of NFL Draft, April 27…Signed rookie contract, May 14.

DESMOND KING II

DEFENSIVE BACK | IOWA
5-10 | 200 lbs | DETROIT, MICH.
DRAFT 5 — 2017
EXPERIENCE: 3RD NFL SEASON
3RD YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recognized in 2018 by The Associated Press as a first-team All-Pro at DB and a second-team All-Pro at PR, joining S Derwin James (first-team S and second-team DB in 2018) as the first Chargers in history to be named an AP All-Pro at two positions.
- Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 9 at Seattle) and AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 13 at Pittsburgh) in 2018, recording a pick-six at Seattle and a punt return for a touchdown at Pittsburgh.
- His interception return for a touchdown and punt return for a touchdown in 2018 made him the first player since 2011 and seventh since 2000 to do so in a single season.
- With four sacks as a rookie in 2017, became the first DB to post at least 3.5 sacks as a rookie and the second-ever to have four (Bill Bates, 1983)
- Became just the sixth player in NFL history and second DB ever to post multiple pick-sixes and at least four sacks over the first two seasons of his career (S Roy Williams, 2002-03).
- Was one of five defenders in 2017 (Cincinnati DE Carlos Dunlap, New Orleans DE Cameron Jordan, Washington LB Ryan Kerrigan and Indianapolis LB John Simon) to post a pick-six and three-plus sacks.
- Recorded a 33-yard punt return in the 2018 AFC Wild Card at Baltimore to set a Chargers postseason record for longest punt return.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Mebane has been able to bring his football career back to where it began – Los Angeles. The nose tackle grew up in the shadow of his alma mater, Crenshaw High. After all of his time playing football in college at California and professionally with the Seahawks and Chargers, his family has lived in the same house he was raised in. Mebane, the quintessential family man, has used his paychecks over the years to renovate and remodel the house, room-by-room. In addition to being a family man, Mebane has always been one to give back to his roots. In June 2018, he delivered the keynote speech at the graduation for Audubon Middle School in Los Angeles, which is where he attended. "It's exciting to share my story with the eighth graders who are about to go into ninth grade," Mebane said in the days before the speech. "I just can't wait to share my experience and tell them that you don't always have to be the most talented or the smartest to have success."

BEYOND THE BOLT

In September 2018, Newsome participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

Newsome joined teammates last season to partner with the Los Angeles Dodgers at 9/11 Meal Pack Day for the Los Angeles region, where over 300,000 meals were packed. Part of a larger event across the country, 9/11 Meal Pack Day turns a day of tragedy into a day of coming together to fight hunger.

BEYOND THE BOLT

In June 2017, hosted his Kingpin Classic in Orange, Calif. Proceeds from the event benefitted Ballers Philanthropy and the Snoop Youth Football League.

Valuing the integration of football with underprivileged youth, Perryman has held a free youth football camp in the Miami area twice since becoming a Charger. He hopes to instill the values of work ethic, determination, leadership and technique that helped Perryman achieve the ability to pursue higher education and professional football into Miami-area youth.

In September 2018, Perryman participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Partnered with USA Football FUNdamentals to provide a free youth camp in Garland, Texas, the past two summers. The camp instructed participants in football skills, sportsmanship and teamwork. The camp also focused on building self-esteem both on-and-off the field. This past camp featured guest coaches S Rayshawn Jenkins and CB Jeff Richards. Phillips stressed the importance of having it in his hometown of Garland, Texas, saying, "I wanted to bring it back to [Garland]. A lot of my friends [when we were growing up], we always wanted to have the opportunity to go to a camp like that, but no one really ever brought it around. We wanted it to be in our own city. It was something that we talked about for a long time. Just to see it come to fruition is a real blessing."

In September 2018, Phillips participated in the team's annual shoe distribution with WSS in Los Angeles. Chargers players, Charger Girls and staff were paired with 450 students from the 10 elementary schools in Inglewood Unified School District. Each student picked out a new pair of shoes and a backpack for the upcoming school year.

BEYOND THE BOLT

After going undrafted in 2016, Pope interviewed and attended orientation at a factory that works on cars and builds tools before getting a call from Seattle to join the Seahawks for training camp in 2016. Pope was holding out hope for an NFL opportunity, but wanted to have an income to support his daughter, Cassidy. "I took a long time to even attempt [to look] for a job because [football] is what I wanted to do," Pope said. "I had to provide for my daughter, so I was willing to do anything for her."

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2012-15) at Jacksonville State, appearing in 48 career games…Totaled 530 rushing attempts for 3,3381 yards (6.4 avg.) and 34 TDs…Added 34 catches for 353 yards (10.4 avg.) and two receiving scores…In 2015, posted back-to-back games of 200-plus rushing yards and a three-game stretch with at least 150…Totaled eight rushing TDs over those three games…Posted a streak of eight games with a rushing TD as a senior…Threw a 53-yard TD pass as a sophomore…In the first game of his collegiate career, caught a 19-yard TD to earn Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer of the Week.

PERSONAL: Given name Troymaine D. Pope…First name is pronounced troy-MANE…Nickname is 'Busta'…Born in Anniston, Ala. …Children are Cassidy and Ayden…Was a Wal-Mart cashier and stocker in college…Earned a degree in physical education from Jacksonville State…High School: Named as the Class 4A Back of the Year by the Alabama Sports Writers Association as a senior at Anniston (Ala.) High…Led his team to the state semifinals by rushing for 2,539 yards and 31 TDs in his senior campaign, earning Anniston Star Player of the Week five times…Earned Anniston Star Player of the Year his junior and senior seasons…Named first-team All-State, All-District and All-Region as a senior…Lettered four years in football and four years in track and field.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Pouncey participated in the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018. He donned cleats that were designed to create awareness of the efforts of the Team Pouncey foundation, which was created by him and his twin brother, Maurkice. Team Pouncey has provided more than $10 million in impact to at-risk youth through grants and programs. The foundation promises to inspire children and enable them to realize their potential to build a better future through community events, charitable giving, grants and other programs.

On June 29, Mike and Maurkice Pouncey held their ninth-annual "Team Pouncey 2 Of A Kind Football Camp and Cheer/Dance Clinic" at their alma mater, Lakeland (Fla.) High. The camp is free for children ages 7-14 and teaches local children fundamental football skills with an emphasis on good sportsmanship, academic success, respect and leadership.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Richards played for the Ottawa Redblacks of the Canadian Football League over two seasons (2015-16), seeing action in 13 games and tallying 16 tackles on defense and six on special teams. In 2016, Richards contributed to the Redblacks winning a Gray Cup by posting a tackle and an interception in the win over the Calgary Stampeders.

Richards has a foundation, the Jeff Richards Jr. Foundation, which serves underprivileged youth. As part of its efforts, Richards has rented buses to take inner-city high school students on college visits, giving them an opportunity that otherwise would not be afforded to them.

While Richards was pursuing his dream to make it in professional football, his strong support system helped make it possible. There was a moment where his then-girlfriend and current wife, Cassandra, allowed Richards to use her airline and hotel points during his tryouts in 2014 before he was signed to the CFL's Ottawa Redblacks.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Rivers was a finalist for the 2011 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award for his work with the Rivers of Hope Foundation, an endeavor he and his wife, Tiffany, oversaw from 2010-12. The Foundation helped unwanted, abandoned and orphaned children, and raised more than $1 million through football camps, a 5K Fun Run and personal contributions. The foundation also supported the San Pasqual Academy, a residential education campus designed specifically for foster teens.

Last season, Rivers led the Chargers to a 12-4 record, tied for the second-best in the AFC. His efforts were rewarded by his being named Co-Sportsmen of the Year for 2018 with Los Angeles Rams DT Aaron Donald by the Los Angeles Sports Council as well as garnering Professional Star of the Year honors from the San Diego Sports Association.

Rivers was a water boy for Decatur High School in his youth when his father, Steve, was the head coach for the football team. Rivers found his passion for the game by watching his dad up close and from backyard games in which the future Chargers signal-caller would mark out a field using chalk and pylons borrowed from the equipment room at Decatur High. Shortly before Philip was set to enroll at Decatur, Steve took the head coaching job at nearby Athens High School and his son followed. He played LB as a sophomore and moved to QB as a junior.

ISAAC ROCHELL

DEFENSIVE END | NOTRE DAME
6-4 | 280 lbs | McDONOUGH, GA.
DRAFT 7 — 2017
EXPERIENCE: 2ND NFL SEASON
3RD YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in all 16 games last season for the first time in his career, while also contributing in both postseason contests.
- Posted 4.5 sacks in a five-game span in 2018, including a single-game career-high 1.5 at Oakland.
- Registered a sack in the AFC Wild Card at Baltimore, the first of his postseason career.
- Recorded the first sack of his career of New York Jets QB Bryce Petty in the second game of his career.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Rochell started a social media effort and non-profit in 2018, See You On Sunday, which encourages not utilizing social media on Saturday to foster a healthy social media environment. TE Hunter Henry and other teammates have embraced the efforts, taking time to engage with friends and family or embrace newfound and existing hobbies. Rochell wore cleats through the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018 that raised awareness for the non-profit movement.

Rochell joined teammates last season to partner with the Los Angeles Dodgers at 9/11 Meal Pack Day for the Los Angeles region, where over 300,000 meals were packed. Part of a larger event across the country, 9/11 Meal Pack Day turns a day of tragedy into a day of coming together to fight hunger.

2018: Appeared in all 16 games with three starts at DE…Recorded 42 tackles (21 solo), five sacks and eight tackles for loss…Posted his first pass defensed on the first INT of his career, returning the pick four yards…Registered two tackles on special teams…Appeared in both postseason games, totaling four tackles (two solo), a tackle for loss and a 10-yard sack…vs. Kansas City (Sept. 9): Made the first start of his career at DE…Posted four tackles (two solo)…at Buffalo (Sept. 16): Posted a career-high six tackles (five solo)…Opened the game at DE and added nine plays on special teams…at Los Angeles Rams (Sept. 23): Started at DE, finishing with five tackles (two solo)…vs. San Francisco (Sept. 30): In the fourth quarter, registered the first INT of his career, returning it four yards…On the play, picked off an errant pass that was forced by S Derwin James hitting QB C.J. BEYOND THE BOLT

This past offseason, Schofield and his wife, Kendall, founded the Schofield Family Foundation. The goal of the foundation is to provide funding, support and awareness to improve the lives of community stakeholders: Military personnel, first responders, youth sports organizations, families in need and furthering the advancement of education and research.

Schofield's wife, United States Women's Hockey forward Kendall Coyne Schofield, has been a trailblazer for women in sports. She helped Team USA win a gold medal over Canada during the XXIII Olympic Winter Games in February 2018 in PyeongChang, South Korea. Following her Olympic performance, Kendall became the first woman to participate in the Chicago Pro Hockey League, a semi-professional league that runs in the summer. This year, Kendall became the first female to participate in the NHL All-Star Skills Fastest Skater challenge, replacing Colorado Avalanche forward Nathan MacKinnon. She joined NHL Network as an analyst in March, becoming the only current women's player in the United States with a recurring role on a national network.

BEYOND THE BOLT

Square founded a non-profit with his wife, Brandi, called Hip 2B Square. The foundation provides mentorship for at-risk youth, bill-pay assistance, and hygiene and socioeconomic assistance to displaced, impoverished and homeless families. The foundation teamed up with the Hudson and Hundreds Foundation in Houston, Texas, and the Browns Kids Foundation in Dallas, Texas, for Hurricane Harvey relief. Hip 2B Square and its partners provided housing, food, transportation and financial assistance to displaced families along with school and medical supplies.

Along with DE Joey Bosa and S Rayshawn Jenkins, Square hosted patients and their families from the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation for Halloween at Hoag Performance Center this past October. The players were placed at stations along a "trick-or-treat trail" throughout the facility, interacting with the children and their families as they passed by. The night also included a photo booth, arts & crafts, spooky snacks and a family-friendly movie.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won Super Bowl XLVII with Baltimore at the team's backup QB in his second NFL season.
- Since 2015, is one of three NFL QBs to have at least 8,000 passing yards and 1,500 rushing yards (Carolina QB Cam Newton and Seattle QB Russell Wilson).
- Became just the sixth QB in NFL history to register 3,000 passing yards and 500 rushing yards in consecutive seasons when he did so in 2015-16, joining Newton (five-straight seasons, 2011-15), Randall Cunningham (three, 1988-90), Wilson (three, 2013-15), Colin Kaepernick (two, 2013-14) and Michael Vick (two, 2010-11).
- Over his first three seasons with the Bills, recorded the second-most victories by a QB (23) and the most TDs (65 total – 51 passing, 14 rushing) over the same stint in franchise history.
- Posted 10 games with a passing TD and rushing TD while in Buffalo, the second-most by a QB in Bills history, trailing only QB Jack Kemp (13 from 1963-67).
- Set a Bills record in 2015 by going 222-straight pass attempts without an interception.
- Ranks as the No. 1 QB in Bills history in completion percentage (62.6) with at least 500 attempts and in rushing yards (1,575).
- Sits at No. 6 on Buffalo's all-time list for completions (774) and passing yards (8,857).
- With 14 rushing TDs in a Bills uniform, ranks second in team history among QBs.

BEYOND THE BOLT

In 2017, Taylor was recognized by Sports Illustrated in its Fashionable 50 awards for the most fashionable athletes. He was dubbed the most consistent, able to easily transition from three-piece suits to street-style looks. Kesha McLeod, a stylist and brand consultant, described Taylor's fashion, saying, "When it comes to style, he can be completely versatile in every moment."

Started the Tyrod Taylor Foundation to give back to the youth in his home state of Virginia. The foundation funds youth sports leagues and organizes an annual football and life skills camp. Taylor promoted the foundation by wearing cleats designed with its logo for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative in 2018.

DRAFT 6 — 2017
EXPERIENCE: 3RD NFL SEASON
3RD YEAR WITH CHARGERS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Part of a line that protected QB Philip Rivers to post the most efficient passing game in NFL history in a Week 12 win over Arizona, as he set all-time marks for single-game consecutive completions (25) and single-game completion percentage with at least 20 attempts (96.6).
- Last year, blocked for RB Melvin Gordon III to post a five-game streak with 120-plus scrimmage yards and at least one scrimmage touchdown, the longest such streak in a decade (RB Jamaal Charles, 2007).
- Appeared in 30 games with 16 starts (15 at RG, one at LT) over two pro seasons.

BEYOND THE BOLT

A self-taught ukulele player, Tevi mainly plays songs by reggae artists. He plays the instrument because it's relaxing and a creative outlet.

Tevi is the fourth of eight children, with two brothers and five sisters. His eldest sibling is his older brother and the youngest is his other brother. Tevi said, "I liked growing up in a big family and hope to have a big family someday [too]."

2018: Started 14 games at RT and one at LT after playing in relief of T Joe Barksdale in the season opener due to injury…Part of a line that protected QB Philip Rivers to pass Hall of Fame QB Fran Tarkenton for the sixth-most career TD passes in NFL history and Hall of Fame QB John Elway for the eighth-most passing yards in league annals…Blocked for Rivers to pass Hall of Fame QB Terry Bradshaw and New York Giants QB Eli Manning to tie Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas for the 10th-most regular-season victories by a QB…Gave Rivers time to post two games with 400-plus yards, five with 300-plus yards and four three-TD contests…Protected Rivers to set a team mark with multiple TD passes in the first 12 games of the season and 13-straight contests dating back to 2017, becoming the fourth QB in history to have multiple TD passes in the first 12 games to open a season…Kept Rivers upright to post a passer rating of at least 90 in each of the first 14 games this season, becoming the third QB to do so in each of the first 14 games of a season in NFL history…Protected Rivers to post the most efficient game in NFL history, setting all-time marks for single-game consecutive completions (25) and single-game completion percentage with at least 20 pass attempts (96.6)…Kept Rivers upright to throw 13 TD passes in the first five games, 15 in the first six contests and 17 in the team's first seven games, tying for the most in his career through five, six and seven games, respectively, to start a season…Blocked for the NFL's No. 11 offense, posting 372.6 yards-per-game…Contributed on a line that blocked for a rushing attack that posted over 100 yards in five of the first six games, including each of the first four…Blocked for RB Melvin Gordon III to become the sixth Charger to reach 3,000 career rushing yards and post three 100-yard games…Paved the way for Gordon to record the first five-game streak with at least one scrimmage TD and 120-plus yards from scrimmage in a decade (RB Jamaal Charles, 2007)…Appeared on 75 special teams plays…Started at RT in both playoff games…Added eight plays on special teams in the postseason…vs. Kansas City (Sept. 9): Saw action at RT on 67 snaps after Joe Barksdale departed with a knee injury…Blocked for the offense to total a Week 1-high 541 net yards, including 123 on the ground…Protected Philip Rivers to throw for 424 yards and three TDs for a 103.7 passer rating…at Buffalo (Sept. 16): Opened the game at RT, playing all 57 offensive snaps…Kept Philip Rivers upright to complete 85.2 percent of his passes for 256 yards and three TDs (143.2 passer rating)…It marked Rivers' 54th three-TD performance (second of the season) and the fifth-best single-game passer rating of his career (min. 20 attempts)…Paved the way for an offense that rushed for 100-plus yards for the second time in as many weeks…Blocked for RB Austin Ekeler to record a single-game career-high 77 rushing yards and for Melvin Gordon to match a career best with three total TDs (one rushing, two receiving)…at Los Angeles Rams (Sept. 23): Protected Philip Rivers to throw for 226 yards and two TDs, registering a 105.7 passer rating…Blocked for an offense that posted 141 rushing yards on 20 carries (7.1 avg.)…vs. San Francisco (Sept. 30): Opened the game at RT and also saw time at LT, playing all 68 offensive snaps…Blocked for Melvin Gordon to record his first 100-yard rushing game of the season, finishing with 104

Watkins is one of the NFL talents produced by Lee County, Fla., which houses Cape Coral and Fort Myers. Along with his brother, Sammy, they join the likes of Hall of Fame CB Deion Sanders, DE Jevon Kearse, S Tre Boston and LB Aaron Lynch. "Fort Myers isn't the biggest town, but it's nice to put together a little bit of history on the football field," Jaylen said after he and Sammy were drafted.

BEYOND THE BOLT

For the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative last season, Windt donned cleats to raise awareness for Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation. Alex's Lemonade Stand changes the lives of children with cancer by funding impactful research, supporting families and empowering everyone to find a cure for childhood cancer. The foundation began when Alex, who was diagnosed with childhood cancer before her first birthday, wanted to set up a lemonade stand at age four to donate the money to doctors to help find a cure for pediatric cancer. She continued to set up lemonade stands every year and when she passed away at eight-years-old in 2004, her stands and inspiration had raised more than $1 million. Windt became involved as his wife, Kate, works at Rady Children's Hospital in San Diego, Calif., where there is an Alex's Lemonade Stand to continue to raise funds and awareness for a cure to childhood cancer.

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1 RECAP - CHIEFS 38, CHARGERS 28

The Los Angeles Chargers dropped their season opener to the Kansas City Chiefs 38-28 Sunday from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center.

Running backs Melvin Gordon and Austin Ekeler combined for 292 total yards and a touchdown, but it wasn't enough to make up for the explosiveness of wide receiver Tyreek Hill and the rest of the Chiefs' high-powered offense. Kansas City has now won its last nine games over the Chargers.

After a three-and-out by the Chargers offense to begin the game, Hill returned a punt 91 yards for a touchdown to make the score 7-0 after a Harrison Butker extra point.

Los Angeles responded with an eight-play, 48-yard drive that ended with Caleb Sturgis converting a 45-yard field goal – his first with the Chargers. Kansas City led 7-3, but Hill wasn't done adding to the visitors' lead.

On the fifth play of the Chiefs' next possession, quarterback Patrick Mahomes found Hill over the middle for a 58-yard touchdown – 46 of those yards came after the catch. Hill touched the ball three times in the first quarter, scored two touchdowns and gained 179 all-purpose yards. Kansas City led 14-6 after the first quarter.

The Chargers found their rhythm on offense early in the second quarter. Gordon and Ekeler combined for 75 total yards on a 12-play, 96-yard drive that was capped off by a 13-yard Ekeler touchdown reception from Philip Rivers. A failed two-point conversion cut Kansas City's lead to 14-12.

The Chiefs added a 46-yard Butker field goal to extend their advantage to 17-12 at halftime.

Kansas City opened the second half with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. A one-yard reception from Mahomes to wide receiver De'Anthony Thomas made the score 24-12 after another Butker extra point. Mahomes would later hit fullback Anthony Sherman for a 36-yard touchdown, giving the Chiefs a 31-12 advantage after three quarters.

Rivers found wide receiver Keenan Allen for a 20-yard touchdown reception to open the fourth quarter, cutting Kansas City's lead to 31-20 after Antonio Gates caught the two-point conversion.

Rivers finished the game 34-of-51 for 424 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. Allen caught eight balls for 108 yards and a touchdown. Gordon finished with 166 total yards and added a two-point conversion. Ekeler had 126 total yards and a receiving touchdown.

WEEK 2 RECAP - CHARGERS 31, BILLS 20

The Los Angeles Chargers beat the Buffalo Bills 31-20 on Sunday at New Era Field for their first win of the 2018 season.

Running back Melvin Gordon scored three touchdowns – all in the first half – while Philip Rivers spread the ball to six different receivers and finished an efficient 23-of-27 for 256 yards and three touchdowns. The Chargers' defense was credited with five sacks. They hit rookie quarterback Josh Allen eight times and picked him off twice.

A pair of Chargers defensive rookies set the early tone for a dominant first half. On Buffalo's first possession, Allen – while trying to avoid a blitzing Derwin James – was sacked by linebacker Uchenna Nwosu. James added a tackle for loss later in the first quarter.

Both defensive plays were key in setting up the Chargers' first two scores of the day. Wide receiver Mike Williams caught his first career touchdown – a 10-yard pass from Rivers – to give L.A. a 7-0 lead. It capped a three-play, 38-yard drive which also included a 25-yard reception by tight end Virgil Green.

On the Bolts' next offensive possession, Gordon finished a six-play, 61-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown run. Los Angeles led 14-0 after the first quarter – and Gordon wasn't done.

After a Buffalo field goal, the Chargers marched down the field again courtesy of two Austin Ekeler rushes (22 and 16 yards) and a 23-yard reception by Green. This time, Gordon scored on a nine-yard reception from Rivers.

The hat trick for No. 28 came on a two-yard touchdown reception from Rivers with two minutes remaining in the second quarter. Los Angeles led 28-6 at halftime. Gordon finished the game with 66 total yards.

Ekeler rushed for a career-high 77 yards on 11 carries. Defensive end Melvin Ingram notched 1.5 sacks and three quarterback hits. James had six total tackles – two for loss – and a sack. Safety Adrian Phillips and rookie linebacker Kyzir White added two second-half interceptions of Allen.

Dating back to last season, Los Angeles has outscored Buffalo 85-44 in two meetings.

WEEK 3 RECAP - RAMS 35, CHARGERS 23

The Rams defeated the Chargers 35-23 Sunday at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Wide receiver Mike Williams caught two touchdown passes from Philip Rivers and running back Melvin Gordon added a score, but it wasn't enough to overcome 33 first downs and 521 yards of total offense by the Rams.

The Chargers defense prevented Rams points on the opening possession of the game when cornerback Desmond King recovered a Todd Gurley fumble -- forced by defensive tackle Brandon Mebane -- at the Bolts' 24-yard line. The Chargers offense went three-and-out, though, and the Rams didn't make the same mistake on their next possession.

Gurley capped off an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run. The Rams led 7-0, but only for 92 seconds.

Gordon opened the Chargers' next possession with a 20-yard rush that included an acrobatic leap over Rams safety Lamarcus Joyner. Two plays later, Rivers found Williams, who beat cornerback Marcus Peters for a 42-yard touchdown reception. Caleb Sturgis missed the extra point, which made the score 7-6.

The Rams closed the first quarter with a three-yard touchdown pass from Jared Goff to Robert Woods. It was all part of a seven-play, 75-yard drive that put the Rams up 14-6.

With the Rams threatening to score again, rookie safety Derwin James picked off Goff in the end zone for his first career interception. The Chargers offense took over at their own one-yard line, but quickly went three-and-out. On fourth down, Drew Kaser's punt was blocked by linebacker Cory Littleton and recovered by Blake Countess in the end zone for a Rams touchdown. A Sam Ficken extra point increased the lead to 21-6.

Down two scores, the Chargers then drove down the field in ten plays. Gordon's 11-yard touchdown rush – aided by a key block by fullback Derek Watt -- cut the Rams' lead to 21-13. That score would stay true after Ficken missed a 46-yard field goal to close the first half.

A Keenan Allen fumble on the opening drive of the second half set the Rams offense up at their own 45-yard line. Three plays later, Goff found wide receiver Cooper Kupp for a 53-yard touchdown reception.

Williams' big day continued on the Bolts' next possession. On a crucial 4th-and-2, Rivers found the second-year receiver for a 20-yard touchdown strike. The Chargers shaved the lead to 28-20, but stopping the Rams explosive offense proved to be too much.

Woods caught 10 of his 11 targets for 92 yards. His second touchdown -- a six-yard reception in the third quarter -- put the Rams up two scores.

Rivers finished the game 18-of-30 for 226 yards and two touchdowns. Gordon rushed for 80 yards on 15 carries.

WEEK 4 RECAP – CHARGERS 29, 49ERS 27

The Los Angeles Chargers rallied from 14 points down in the first quarter to beat the San Francisco 49ers 29-27 Sunday from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center.

Philip Rivers threw for 250 yards and three touchdowns on a day when he also passed John Elway for the eighth-most passing yards in league history. Running back Melvin Gordon racked up 159 total yards, caught seven passes and scored his fifth touchdown of the season. The game was put on ice in the fourth quarter after rookie safety Derwin James hit 49ers quarterback C.J. Beathard, causing him to make an errant throw that was intercepted by defensive end Isaac Rochell.

Los Angeles improved to 2-2 on the season and secured their first home win of 2018 despite an inauspicious start.

Less than one minute into the game, Rivers was intercepted by 49ers cornerback Antone Exum Jr., who returned the ball 32 yards for a touchdown. A Robbie Gould extra point gave San Francisco an early 7-0 lead.

The Chargers went three-and-out on their second offensive possession, and the third resulted in a 54-yard missed field goal by Caleb Sturgis. San Francisco capitalized on its field position with a six-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown pass from Beathard to wide receiver Kendrick Bourne.

Down two scores early, the Chargers offense marched 75 yards in seven plays. Rivers found tight end Antonio Gates for a five-yard touchdown, but Sturgis missed the extra point. It was 14-6 San Francisco after the first quarter. The Rivers-to-Gates touchdown was the 88th of their career.

After a 49ers field goal, Rivers threw his second touchdown in as many drives – this time connecting with running back Austin Ekeler for a 22-yard strike. Rivers then hit Gordon for the two-point conversion to tighten San Francisco's lead to 17-14.

With 30 seconds remaining in the second quarter, cornerback Desmond King returned a Bradley Pinion punt 56 yards to San Francisco's 33-yard line. Two plays later, Sturgis' 48-yard field goal tied the game 17-17 at halftime.

James' third sack of the season set the tone for the second half. San Francisco was again forced to punt to King, whose 21-yard return put the Chargers at their own 49-yard line. Six plays later, Gordon caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to put Los Angeles up 23-17 after Sturgis' second missed extra point of the day.

The 49ers – aided by a pair of roughing-the-passer penalties – were threatening to score at Los Angeles' eight-yard line until a Beathard pass bounced off the chest of Garrett Celek and into the arms of cornerback Trevor Williams. Williams returned the ball 86 yards to San Francisco's 12-yard line.

A Sturgis 25-yard field goal would increase Los Angeles' lead to 26-17 but it didn't hold for long. Later in the quarter, Beathard hooked up with tight end George Kittle for an 82-yard touchdown. It was 26-24 Chargers after the third quarter.

Both teams traded field goals in the fourth quarter before Rochell's interception sealed the win.

WEEK 5 RECAP – CHARGERS 26, RAIDERS 10

The Los Angeles Chargers beat the Oakland Raiders 26-10 on Sunday from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center for their first division win of 2018.

Running backs Melvin Gordon and Austin Ekeler combined for 179 total yards and two touchdowns. It was the tenth straight game that Gordon has had either 100 yards from scrimmage or a touchdown – or both.

Defensive end Melvin Ingram spearheaded a complete defensive performance with seven tackles (two for loss), a sack and an interception of quarterback Derek Carr with the Raiders threatening to score late in the third quarter.

Quarterback Philip Rivers finished 22-of-27 for 339 yards and two touchdowns. Keenan Allen led the team in receiving with 90 yards on eight catches. The win moved Los Angeles (3-2) to over .500 for the first time this season.

Los Angeles opened the game with a seven-play, 37-yard drive highlighted by a 16-yard Gordon rush. Kicker Caleb Sturgis was good from 49 yards out to give the Chargers an early 3-0 lead.

The Raiders tied the game at 3-3 in the second quarter with a 24-yard field goal by Matt McCrane, but that was as close as the visitors would get.

With 4:14 remaining in the second quarter, Ekeler took a short pass from Philip Rivers and raced 44 yards for Los Angeles' first touchdown on the day. Sturgis' extra point made it 10-3.

On the first play of Oakland's next possession, Chargers linebacker Jatavis Brown forced wide receiver Martavis Bryant to fumble after a 21-yard gain. Safety Jahleel Addae recovered the ball, putting Los Angeles back in business at the Raiders' 48-yard line.

Six plays later -- on a drive that included a 34-yard reception by Gordon -- No. 28 punched in a one-yard touchdown run. Los Angeles led 17-3 at halftime.

In the second half, the Chargers added a field goal and a 13-yard touchdown from Rivers to tight end Virgil Green to put the game out of reach.

WEEK 6 RECAP - CHARGERS 38, BROWNS 14

The Los Angeles Chargers beat the Cleveland Browns 38-14 Sunday at FirstEnergy Stadium for their third straight win.

Los Angeles' high-powered offense was paced by running back Melvin Gordon, who scored three touchdowns on 150 total yards, 132 of which came on the ground (7.3 yards per carry). Gordon now has nine total touchdowns on the season. As a team, the Chargers rushed for 246 yards.

Wide receiver Tyrell Williams caught three passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns from Philip Rivers in the span of less than seven minutes in the second quarter. The Chargers manufactured 449 yards of total offense.

Cleveland was overmatched on both sides of the ball. Browns quarterback Baker Mayfield went 22-of-46 for 238 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions -- both by cornerback Desmond King. Mayfield was also sacked five times.

The Browns offense stalled on the game's first series after safety Rayshawn Jenkins and defensive tackle Corey Liuget split a sack on Mayfield. Cornerback Desmond King's 32-yard punt return put Los Angeles' offense at its own 43-yard line.

In five plays, the Chargers went 57 yards for their first opening drive touchdown in 22 games. Gordon's four-yard score put Los Angeles up 7-0 after new kicker Michael Badgley made the extra point.

Mayfield was sacked three times in the first quarter – 1.5 of them by defensive tackle Damion Square on back-to-back plays. The Browns got on the board at the start of the second quarter with a 33-yard field goal by Greg Joseph to make the score 7-3.

Williams' explosive second quarter started with a 44-yard reception from Rivers. On the next play, Williams – surrounded by three defenders – hauled in a 45-yard touchdown. The two-play, 89-yard drive extended Los Angeles' lead to 14-3.

With 57 seconds remaining in the half, Rivers found Williams again – this time for a 29-yard touchdown on 3rd-and-6. Los Angeles led 21-6 at halftime.

The first of King's two interceptions came with 12:05 remaining in the third quarter. His 33-yard return put Los Angeles at the Browns' 10-yard line. On the next play, Gordon punched it in from 10 yards out to increase the lead to 28-6.

Rivers finished the game 11-of-20 for 207 yards, two touchdowns and an interception before giving way to Geno Smith. Badgley made all five of his extra points and added a 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 7 RECAP - CHARGERS 20, TITANS 19

The Chargers improved to 5-2 Sunday after beating the Tennessee Titans 20-19 at Wembley Stadium in London.

The game was decided when safety Adrian Phillips tipped Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota's pass on a two-point conversion attempt after tight end Luke Stocker scored a touchdown with 35 seconds remaining.

Quarterback Philip Rivers went 19-of-26 for 306 yards and two long touchdown passes to a pair of Williams. Tyrell Williams had 118 receiving yards for the second straight game, while Mike Williams added 55 receiving yards on his fourth touchdown of the season.

Running back Austin Ekeler had 68 total yards on 17 touches in place of Melvin Gordon, who was inactive with a hamstring injury.

Tennessee struck first on an 11-play, 55-yard drive to open the game. Ryan Succop's 28-yard field goal gave the Titans an early 3-0 lead.

It didn't take long for Los Angeles to respond, though. On the offense's first play from scrimmage, Rivers hooked up with wide receiver Tyrell Williams for a 75-yard touchdown. Michael Badgley's extra point made it 7-3 Chargers.

After a three-and-out which included a sack by defensive tackle Darius Philon, the Chargers' offense put together a 10-play drive ending in a 29-yard Badgley field goal. Los Angeles led 10-3 after the first quarter.

The Titans added another field goal and were threatening to score again before the half. With 39 seconds remaining, linebacker Denzel Perryman picked off a Melvin Ingram-deflected Mariota pass at Los Angeles' four-yard line and returned it 16 yards. The Chargers entered halftime with a 10-6 lead.

Los Angeles' quick-strike offense opened the second half with a three-play, 75-yard drive. This time, Rivers went deep to wide receiver Mike Williams for a 55-yard touchdown to make the score 17-6.

A 37-yard kick return by Darius Jennings coupled with an unnecessary roughness penalty by safety Rayshawn Jenkins set Tennessee up at the Chargers' 42-yard line on its next possession. Seven plays later, running back Derrick Henry scored from one-yard out to close the gap to 17-13.

The Chargers added another Badgley field goal -- this one from 28 yards out -- to increase their lead to 20-13. In two games, Badgley has been perfect on field goals (3-of-3) and extra points (7-of-7).

WEEK 9 RECAP - CHARGERS 25, SEAHAWKS 17

The Los Angeles Chargers beat the Seattle Seahawks 25-17 Sunday at CenturyLink Field for their fifth straight win.

In perhaps the most difficult place in the NFL to play as the opponent, the Chargers improved to 6-2 – their best start since 2006. Quarterback Philip Rivers went 13-of-26 for 228 yards and two touchdowns in his 200th consecutive start.

Running back Melvin Gordon rushed for 113 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries after missing Los Angeles' last game with a hamstring injury. Wide receiver Keenan Allen had a season-high 124 receiving yards on six receptions.

Down eight in the fourth quarter, the Seahawks had the ball at the Chargers' one-yard line with one untimed down remaining before Seattle was called for a false start. On the final play, a Russell Wilson pass to wide receiver David Moore was incomplete in the end zone.

Seattle opened the game with a 13-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that took up over eight minutes of the clock. After nine rushes in 12 plays, Wilson's 10-yard strike to wide receiver Jaron Brown gave the Seahawks an early 7-0 lead.

Los Angeles responded with a 10-play, 94-yard touchdown drive that began with a 28-yard rush by Allen. On the last play of the first quarter, Rivers found wide receiver Tyrell Williams for a 12-yard score, but kicker Caleb Sturgis missed the extra point.

Seattle led 7-6 entering the second quarter. For Williams, it was his fourth touchdown in the last three games. For the Chargers, it was their third straight game with an opening drive touchdown.

After forcing a three-and-out, Los Angeles needed just four plays to get back in the end zone. Gordon's 34-yard rushing touchdown – set up by a 54-yard Allen reception from Rivers – put the Chargers up 12-7. Their two-point conversion attempt was no good.

Later in the quarter, Rivers orchestrated the Bolts' third touchdown drive of the half. This time, he found wide receiver Mike Williams, who tightroped the sideline 30 yards for his fifth touchdown of the season.

The Chargers led 19-10 at halftime. Their final two touchdown drives of the first half took up just 1:59 of the clock combined.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback Desmond King intercepted Wilson and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown to put the Chargers up 25-10.

WEEK 10 RECAP - CHARGERS 20, RAIDERS 6

The Los Angeles Chargers improved to 7-2 Sunday after beating the Raiders 20-6 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

It was Los Angeles' sixth-straight win and capped off a 4-0 record since Week 5, which was the team's last game from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center. Running back Melvin Gordon had 165 total yards, including a 66-yard touchdown reception on the opening possession of the second half. Gordon has at least 120 total yards and a touchdown in his last five games -- all Chargers wins.

Philip Rivers finished 18-of-26 for 223 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. The defense held Oakland out of the end zone and sacked quarterback Derek Carr four times.

The Raiders executed a successful fake punt on the game's opening possession when punter Johnny Townsend raced 42 yards to Los Angeles' 21-yard line. Faced with a fourth-and-goal at the one-yard line, safety Derwin James stopped wide receiver Dwayne Harris on a jet sweep and the Chargers' took over on downs.

Los Angeles went three-and out on its only two possessions of the first quarter. A 46-yard field goal by Raiders kicker Daniel Carlson put Oakland up 3-0 after one.

With the Raiders threatening to increase their lead at the Chargers' 21-yard line, defensive end Melvin Ingram sacked Derek Carr, who fumbled. The ball was scooped up by defensive tackle Corey Liuget and he returned it 24 yards to Oakland's 40-yard line. The turnover resulted in a 27-yard Michael Badgley field goal, which tied the game 3-3.

After forcing a three-and-out on Oakland's next possession, the Chargers continued their domination in the second quarter. A nine-play, 81-yard drive ending in an 11-yard touchdown reception by wide receiver Keenan Allen put Los Angeles up 10-3 at halftime. The Chargers have outscored their opponents 89-34 in the second quarter this season.

Gordon's touchdown was the only score in the third quarter. Los Angeles went up 20-6 in the fourth quarter on a 41-yard field goal by Badgley, who set a team record for most points (24) without a missed kick through three games.

Defensive end Isaac Rochell notched 1.5 sacks. He now has 4.5 sacks in his last five games. Allen caught six balls for 57 yards and scored his first touchdown since Week 1.

WEEK 11 RECAP - BRONCOS 23, CHARGERS 22

In the first game from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center since Week 5, the Chargers fell 23-22 Sunday to the Denver Broncos.

Broncos kicker Brandon McManus made a 34-yard field goal as time expired to end the Chargers' six-game winning streak.

Running back Melvin Gordon totaled 156 yards – his sixth-straight game with at least 120 yards from scrimmage. Quarterback Philip Rivers finished 28-of-43 for 401 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. Rivers has thrown at least two touchdowns in every game this season. It wasn't enough, though, to overcome two turnovers and 14 penalties.

Defensive end Joey Bosa added a quarterback hit and a tackle in his 2018 debut.

After forcing a three-and-out to start the game, the Chargers' offense put together a 13-play, 49-yard drive that included a pair of third-down catches by wide receiver Keenan Allen. Michael Badgley's 46-yard field goal gave Los Angeles an early 3-0 lead.

The Bolts' defense forced another fourth down when Bosa chased down quarterback Case Keenum, causing him to throw an incomplete pass while running out of bounds. Denver held the ball for just 4:09 of the opening quarter.

Rivers connected with five different receivers for 121 yards in the first quarter, but the Chargers committed seven penalties for 50 yards. They led 6-0 after Badgley's second field goal of the day – this one from 45-yards out.

The Broncos took the lead when undrafted rookie running back Phillip Lindsay raced 41 yards for the team's first score of the day. The touchdown was aided by a fake punt that kept Denver's drive alive.

The Broncos responded with 13 unanswered points. Their first score was set up by a Von Miller interception and a 42-yard return to the Chargers' 18-yard line. A three-yard Royce Freeman touchdown cut Los Angeles' lead to 19-14.

Denver's second score of the half was set up by a 39-yard catch-and-run by rookie wide receiver Courtland Sutton. A two-yard touchdown rush by Lindsay gave the Broncos a 20-19 lead after their two-point conversion failed.

On its next possession, Los Angeles regained the lead 22-20 with an eight-play, 60-yard drive ending in a 30-yard Badgley field goal. The next score of the game would be McManus' game winner.

WEEK 12 RECAP - CHARGERS 45, CARDINALS 10

A record-setting performance by quarterback Philip Rivers propelled the Los Angeles Chargers to a 45-10 win over the Arizona Cardinals Sunday from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center.

Rivers set a single-game NFL record by completing his first 25 passes, most of which came during a stretch where the Chargers scored 45 unanswered points. He finished 28-of-29 for 259 yards and three touchdowns before giving way to Geno Smith in the fourth quarter.

Rivers has thrown multiple touchdown passes in all 11 games in 2018. Only quarterbacks Johnny Unitas, Peyton Manning and Aaron Rodgers have thrown at least two touchdown passes in their first 11 games to start a season.

Running back Melvin Gordon had 10 carries for 61 yards and two touchdowns before leaving the game in the third quarter with a knee injury. Wide receiver Mike Williams scored two touchdowns and Keenan Allen caught seven balls for 72 yards and a touchdown – his third consecutive game with a score.

The offensive explosion was complemented by a dominating defensive performance. Defensive end Joey Bosa notched his first two sacks of the season and safety Derwin James nabbed his second interception of the year. Arizona was held to just 149 yards of total offense.

The Chargers improved to 8-3 on the season and finished 3-1 against the NFC West. They've outscored their opponents 124-41 in the second quarter this season.

Arizona struck first on its opening possession. A nine-play, 76-yard drive ended with a 25-yard touchdown pass from rookie quarterback Josh Rosen to future Hall of Fame wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald.

After a Chargers three-and-out, Arizona got the ball back at Los Angeles' 44-yard line thanks to a 26-yard punt return by rookie wide receiver Christian Kirk. Eight plays later, Phil Dawson kicked a 30-yard field goal to increase the Cardinals lead to 10-0.

Los Angeles, in need of an early spark, got it right away in the form of a 40-yard Desmond King kick return. Rivers finished the eight-play drive with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Williams to cut Arizona's lead to 10-7.

L.A.'s next two scores would come from its all-everything running back. Gordon had touchdown rushes of 26 and five yards – the latter set up by James' interception of Rosen. A Williams two-yard touchdown reception capped a 28-point second quarter for Los Angeles.

WEEK 13 RECAP - CHARGERS 33, STEELERS 30

The Los Angeles Chargers scored 26 second-half points to shock the Pittsburgh Steelers 33-30 Sunday night at Heinz Field.

Kicker Michael Badgley kicked a game-winning, 29-yard field goal with no time remaining. The Chargers are now 9-3 and have won eight of their last nine games.

Philip Rivers went 26-of-36 for 299 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Keenan Allen caught 14 passes for 148 yards and a touchdown, but contributions came from up and down the roster.

After trailing 23-7 at halftime, rookie running back Justin Jackson had 82 total yards and a touchdown, all in the second half. With a knack for the big play, cornerback Desmond King scored a second-half touchdown on a 73-yard punt return.

The Chargers opened the game with a promising drive that included three catches from Allen for 42 yards. On a fourth-and-one from Pittsburgh's 34-yard line, Badgley attempted a 52-yard field goal that was no good.

Starting at its own 42-yard line, Pittsburgh needed just four plays to get on the board. A 46-yard reception by Antonio Brown set up a one-yard touchdown rush by James Conner to give the Steelers an early 7-0 lead.

Los Angeles went three-and-out on its next possession, which set the Steelers up at the Chargers' 48-yard line. A six-play drive ended the same way their first did: a one-yard touchdown rush by Conner. A missed extra point made the score 13-0 Pittsburgh after one quarter.

Needing points in a hurry, Rivers went deep and found wide receiver Travis Benjamin, who raced down the right sideline for a 46-yard touchdown reception. For Benjamin, it was his first touchdown since Week 17 of last season. Pittsburgh led 13-7 after one quarter.

With Pittsburgh threatening to score on its third straight possession, Chargers rookie safety Derwin James picked off Ben Roethlisberger at Los Angeles' eight-yard line. It was James' third interception of the season, and second in as many games. His 36-yard return was negated by an illegal block penalty, though, and Los Angeles was eventually forced to punt.

The Chargers used a 13-play, 88-yard drive in the third quarter to cut into Pittsburgh's lead. In what in real time looked to be a Rivers interception in the end zone by Steelers cornerback Joe Haden turned into Haden colliding with teammate safety Sean Davis. The ball bounced off Haden and into the arms of Allen for a nine-yard touchdown. Rivers found Gates for the two-point conversion, which made the score 23-15.

A holding penalty coupled with a Joey Bosa sack of Roethlisberger forced Pittsburgh to punt on its next possession, which led to King's game-tying punt return touchdown.

Los Angeles forced the Steelers into another three-and-out on their next possession. With an opportunity to take the lead, the Bolts leaned on their rookie ball carrier. Jackson had an 18-yard rush, a 19-yard reception and a go-ahead 18-yard rushing touchdown that made the score 30-23 Los Angeles.

WEEK 14 RECAP - CHARGERS 26, BENGALS 21

The Los Angeles Chargers beat the Cincinnati Bengals 26-21 on Sunday from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center to secure the franchise's first double-digit-win season since 2009.

With 1:50 remaining in the game, the Bengals attempted a game-tying, two-point conversion after a one-yard touchdown rush by running back Joe Mixon. Defensive tackle Darius Philon sacked quarterback Jeff Driskel to keep the Chargers ahead for good.

The difference in the five-point win, though, was the foot of Michael Badgley. The rookie kicker made four field goals including a 59-yarder, the longest in franchise history. Running back Austin Ekeler had 94 total yards and a touchdown while wide receiver Keenan Allen hauled in five catches for 78 yards and a score – his fifth in as many games.

Quarterback Philip Rivers finished the game 19-of-29 for 220 yards and a touchdown. Defensive end Joey Bosa made six tackles and notched a sack – his fourth of the season. Rookie safety Derwin James had seven tackles.

Los Angeles opened the game with a six-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that included a mix of everything – including a five-yard run by Rivers. After rushes of 15 and 18 yards by Ekeler – and a 19-yard catch by wide receiver Mike Williams – Rivers found Allen for a 14-yard touchdown reception to give Los Angeles an early 7-0 lead.

The Chargers answered a 47-yard Bengals field goal by kicker Randy Bullock with another touchdown. A 13-play, 85-yard L.A. drive ended with a five-yard touchdown rush by Ekeler to put Los Angeles up 14-3 with 14:51 remaining in the half.

Cincinnati's next two scoring drives would start in Chargers territory. On the first, Driskel came up inches short on a touchdown rush. On fourth-and-goal from inside the one, the Bengals committed a false start penalty and had to settle for a 23-yard Bullock field goal, which cut the Chargers lead to 14-6.

The Bengals' next score was a touchdown. Driskel connected with wide receiver John Ross for a six-yard score, but Cincinnati failed to convert the two-point conversion.

With 10 seconds remaining in the half, the Chargers used a pair of 11-yard receptions and a five-yard offsides penalty to set up Badgley's 59-yard field goal attempt, which was good. Los Angeles led 17-12 at halftime.

The only scores for Los Angeles in the second half were three Badgley field goals (31, 32 and 45 yards).

WEEK 15 RECAP - CHARGERS 29, CHIEFS 28

Mike Williams scored a one-yard touchdown reception and the go-ahead two-point conversion with four seconds remaining as the Los Angeles Chargers shocked the Kansas City Chiefs 29-28 Thursday night at Arrowhead Stadium.

Philip Rivers finished 26-of-38 for 313 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. Rivers was down a target when wide receiver Keenan Allen left the game in the first half with a hip injury. In Allen's absence, Mike Williams caught seven passes for 76 yards and scored three total touchdowns while Tyrell Williams added 71 yards on six catches.

Running back Justin Jackson started the game in place of Melvin Gordon and rushed for 58 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. Detrez Newsome added 53 total yards. Safety Adrian Phillips led the Chargers with nine tackles and defensive end Melvin Ingram was credited with 1.5 sacks.

The win snaps a nine-game losing streak to the Chiefs and clinched a playoff spot.

Rivers was intercepted by cornerback Steven Nelson on the second play of the game. Starting at the Chargers' 49-yard line, the Chiefs closed a 10-play drive with a five-yard touchdown reception from Patrick Mahomes to wide receiver Demarcus Robinson.

Kansas City possessed the ball for nearly 10 minutes in the first quarter. On its second possession, Mahomes found running back Darrel Williams for an 11-yard touchdown reception. The Chiefs led 14-0 after one.

Los Angeles got on the board with a 10-play drive that started with a 38-yard reception by Mike Williams. It ended with a three-yard touchdown from Rivers to Williams that cut Kansas City's lead seven points.

Late in the second quarter with the Chargers at Kansas City's 11-yard line, Rivers threw an interception to cornerback Kendall Fuller in the end zone. It was Rivers' second pick of the game, and it kept the score 14-7 Chiefs at halftime.

Kansas City opened the second half with a seven-play, 74-yard touchdown drive. Running back Damien Williams punched in a two-yard score to increase the Chiefs lead to 21-7.

A much-needed response from the Chargers came in the form of an 11-play, 76-yard scoring drive of their own. Mike Williams scored his second touchdown of the game on a 19-yard rush. He has nine total touchdowns on the season.

Damien Williams' second rushing touchdown of the night put Kansas City up 28-14 with 8:20 remaining in the game. Los Angeles answered with a three-yard touchdown rush by Jackson before Mike Williams' score and go-ahead two-point conversion.

WEEK 16 RECAP - RAVENS 22, CHARGERS 10

The Baltimore Ravens defeated the Los Angeles Chargers 22-10 on Saturday night from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center.

Los Angeles' offense was held to 198 total yards and under 20 points for the first time this season. Quarterback Philip Rivers finished 23-of-37 for 181 and two interceptions. Running back Melvin Gordon had 41 rushing yards on 12 carries and a touchdown after a three-game absence.

Down 16-10 with 2:54 remaining, Rivers found tight end Antonio Gates for an 11-yard gain, but he fumbled. The ball was scooped up by cornerback Tavon Young, who raced 62 yards for a touchdown that put the game out of reach.

On the first play of the game, Ravens cornerback Brandon Carr intercepted Rivers on a ball intended for wide receiver Mike Williams. Baltimore immediately capitalized with a 43-yard rush by rookie running back Gus Edwards, which set up a 24-yard field goal by Justin Tucker.

Baltimore had 81 rushing yards in the first quarter (7.4 yards per carry) with momentum entering the second. Threatening to score on a fourth-and-goal from the Chargers' two-yard line, Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson threw an incomplete pass in the end zone to wide receiver Michael Crabtree.

Los Angeles had four offensive possessions after Rivers' interception on the game's opening play. Three ended in punts; the final was a nine-play, 65-yard drive ending with a 38-yard Michael Badgley field goal to make the score 6-3 Baltimore at halftime. The Ravens' offense held the ball for 19:54 in the first half.

The Ravens started the second half the same way the Chargers began the first: with a turnover. A Kenneth Dixon fumble – forced by defensive tackle Darius Philon – was recovered at Baltimore's 17-yard line by defensive end Melvin Ingram. Three plays later, Gordon punched in a one-yard touchdown run that gave L.A. a 10-6 lead.

It took two plays for a Baltimore response. Jackson connected with tight end Mark Andrews for a 68-yard touchdown to retake the lead. Tucker would later add to the Ravens' advantage in the third quarter with a 56-yard field goal. The final score of the game was Young's defensive touchdown.

WEEK 17 RECAP – CHARGERS 23, BRONCOS 9

The Los Angeles Chargers used a season-high four forced turnovers to beat the Denver Broncos 23-9 in Sunday's regular season finale from Broncos Stadium at Mile High.

Los Angeles finished 8-1 away from ROKiT Field at StubHub Center and 12-4 overall. The victory also clinched the franchise's sixth season with at least 12 wins.

Now, the postseason awaits. The Chargers will travel to face the Baltimore Ravens next week in the first round of the AFC Playoffs.

Philip Rivers threw two interceptions in a first quarter that featured five combined punts and zero points. The game remained scoreless with 5:44 remaining in the second quarter until Chargers linebacker Kyle Emanuel scooped up a fumble for an 18-yard touchdown.

With the Broncos threatening to score before the half, quarterback Case Keenum was intercepted by Chargers safety Jahleel Addae in the end zone. On the return, Addae attempted a backward lateral that was recovered by Denver at Los Angeles' 20-yard line. Seven plays later, Brandon McManus kicked a 28-yard field goal to make the score 7-3 Chargers at halftime.

Los Angeles increased its lead in the third quarter after another Broncos turnover. Defensive end Joey Bosa recovered a Tim Patrick fumble – forced by Adrian Phillips – at the Broncos' 16-yard line. Four plays later, Rivers connected with wide receiver Mike Williams for a four-yard touchdown reception.

Denver cut the lead to 14-9 in the fourth quarter with a 20-yard touchdown reception by fullback Andy Janovich. The two-point conversion attempt was intercepted in the end zone by cornerback Casey Hayward and returned for two Chargers points. Suddenly, what could have been a three-point game flipped to seven.

Austin Ekeler's one-yard touchdown rush with 5:48 remaining in the game sealed the win for Los Angeles. Ekeler led the Chargers with 58 rushing yards on eight carries.

Rivers finished the game 14-of-24 for 176 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions before giving way to Geno Smith in the fourth quarter. Mike Williams and Keenan Allen combined for nine catches for 129 yards and a touchdown. Los Angeles committed a season-high four turnovers of their own.

Bosa notched a sack and ended the regular season with 5.5 in seven games. Phillips led the defense with 12 tackles.

WILD CARD RECAP - CHARGERS 23, RAVENS 17

Threes and D.

That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23-17 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from M&T Bank Stadium.

Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense -- the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points.

Down 23-3, the Ravens scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter with an opportunity to win the game down six. With 28 seconds remaining, linebacker Uchenna Nwosu sacked Jackson, who fumbled. Defensive end Melvin Ingram recovered the ball to end the game.

The Chargers won time of possession 33:40 to 26:20. Quarterback Philip Rivers finished the game 22-of-32 for 160 yards while spreading the ball to nine different receivers. Running back Melvin Gordon rushed for 40 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries.

Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. In the first quarter, Ingram forced a Jackson fumble, which was recovered by safety Adrian Phillips. The turnover set up a 21-yard Badgley field goal that gave Los Angeles an early 3-0 lead.

Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

In a drive that began late in the third quarter and ended in the fourth, Gordon's one-yard touchdown rush -- L.A.'s lone TD of the game -- capped a 10-play, 60-yard drive. Wide receiver Mike Williams' two-point conversion put Los Angeles up 20-3. Badgley's 47-yard field goal in the fourth quarter was L.A.'s final score of the game.

Ingram had two sacks while defensive ends Joey Bosa and Isaac Rochell, defensive tackle Justin Jones, defensive back Desmond King and Nwosu each chipped in with one apiece.

DIVISIONAL ROUND RECAP – PATRIOTS 41, CHARGERS 28

The Los Angeles Chargers lost to the New England Patriots 41-28 in Sunday's AFC Divisional Round game from Gillette Stadium.

The Patriots' offense scored five touchdowns on their first six possessions of the first half and controlled the clock for 38:20 of the game. Quarterback Tom Brady threw for 343 yards, wide receiver Julian Edelman had 151 yards receiving and running back Sony Michel added 129 yards on the ground and scored three rushing touchdowns.

The Chargers finished with 335 yards of total offense. Philip Rivers went 25-of-51 for 331 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. Keenan Allen caught two passes for 75 yards and a touchdown. He also added a two-point conversion. Mike Williams and Tyrell Williams combined for 162 receiving yards.

New England struck first on a 14-play, 83-yard touchdown drive that took up over seven minutes of the opening quarter. Michel's one-yard score gave the Patriots an early 7-0 lead.

Rivers and the Chargers' offense quickly responded. Allen's 43-yard touchdown reception tied the score 7-7 after a Michael Badgley extra point. The 67-yard drive ate up just 2:53 of the clock.

That's as close as Los Angeles would get.

On their next possession, the Patriots matched the Chargers with a 67-yard scoring drive of their own. Michel's second rushing touchdown – this one from 14 yards out – put New England back on top 14-7. The Patriots had 12 first downs in the opening quarter and went 3-of-3 on third down.

New England increased its lead at the start of the second quarter with a 15-yard touchdown reception from Brady to wide receiver Phillip Dorsett. It added two more touchdowns before the half: a six-yard rush by Rex Burkhead and a five-yard rush by Michel, his third of the game.

The Chargers trailed 35-7 at halftime.

L.A. added a one-yard rushing touchdown by Melvin Gordon, a one-yard touchdown reception by Virgil Green and an eight-yard touchdown reception by Antonio Gates in the second half. Los Angeles finished the season 13-5 and 8-2 on the road, including playoffs.

2018 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
Los Angeles Chargers 23, Baltimore Ravens 17
Sunday, Jan. 6, 2019 - M&T Bank Stadium (Baltimore, MD)

The Threes and D. That's what the Los Angeles Chargers used to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 23-17 in Sunday's AFC Wild Card Round from M&T Bank Stadium. Rookie kicker Michael Badgley converted on five field goals, while Los Angeles' defense forced two turnovers, sacked quarterback Lamar Jackson seven times and held Baltimore to 229 yards of total offense -- the fewest allowed in postseason team history. Badgley set a single-game postseason team record for made field goals and points. Chargers Defensive Coordinator Gus Bradley featured seven defensive backs on the field for much of the game. Later in the quarter, the rookie kicker converted from 53 yards out to increase the Chargers' lead to 6-0. Badgley added his third field goal in the second quarter, a 40-yarder off a Phillips interception of Jackson. His fourth was a 34-yarder as time expired in the second quarter to put Los Angeles up 12-0 at halftime.

2013 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Denver Broncos 24, San Diego Chargers 17
Sunday, Jan. 12, 2014 - Sports Authority Field (Denver, CO)

The Chargers' storybook season came to an end on Jan. 12 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs at Denver's Sports Authority Field as the Broncos defeated the Bolts, 24-17, to eliminate San Diego from the AFC Playoffs. Weather was a factor early in the game as winds at kickoff were blowing across the field at 17 mph with gusts up to 27 mph. Despite the unfavorable conditions, the Chargers didn't go down without a fight, rallying from a 17-point deficit to get within seven points late in the fourth quarter. Down 24-7 with 8:12 left in the fourth quarter, the Chargers scored a touchdown, recovered an onside kick and kicked a field goal to get within seven points at 24-17. That would be as close as the Chargers would get, however, as Denver took possession with 3:53 remaining in the game and converted two first downs, including a 3rd-and-17, to run out the clock and advance to the AFC Championship Game.

2013 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 27, Cincinnati Bengals 10
Sunday, Jan. 5, 2014 - Paul Brown Stadium (Cincinnati, OH)

The Chargers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 27-10, in the AFC Wild Card Playoffs at Paul Brown Stadium for their first postseason victory since Jan. 2009. It was the Chargers' first-ever playoff win over the Bengals. In earning the victory, the Chargers outperformed the Bengals in two key areas. The Bolts racked up a season-high four takeaways with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, and they rushed for a season-high 196 yards. Cincinnati led at the half, 10-7, but the Chargers completely dominated the game on defense in the second half, pitching a shutout as the Bolts outscored the Bengals 20-0. Cincinnati's first six drives of the second half ended with a punt after a third-down sack, a fumble, two interceptions and two drives that ended on downs. A seventh ended with the clock reaching 0:00. And in addition to the four takeaways, the Chargers' defense recorded three sacks, five tackles for loss and eight passes defensed.

2009 AFC Divisional Playoffs
New York Jets 17, San Diego Chargers 14
Sunday, Jan. 17, 2010 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The No. 5 seed New York Jets upset No. 2 seed Chargers. San Diego's defense opened game with four straight three-and-outs, not allowing Jets first down until 8:11 remained in second quarter. Stephen Cooper set up Chargers' first touchdown of game, forcing three-and-out with four-yard tackle for loss on 3rd-and-4. On ensuing drive, Kris Wilson caught 13-yard touchdown pass for 7-0 lead. Antonio Gates helped set up TD with brilliant one-handed 23-yard reception to 16. Quentin Jammer had solid afternoon, breaking up third-down pass in second quarter to force punt and intercepting another in third quarter. Paul Oliver provided pressure and hit on Jets' quarterback Mark Sanchez on interception and Steve Gregory, in coverage, tipped pass that Jammer picked off. Jacob Hester got his hand on late fourth-quarter punt by Jets, contributing to just 26-yard punt. On ensuing possession, Philip Rivers scored TD on one-yard sneak with 2:20 left. Vincent Jackson, who had game-high 111 yards receiving, set up Rivers TD with 12-yard catch to one on 3rd-and-7.

2008 AFC Divisional Playoffs
Pittsburgh Steelers 35, San Diego Chargers 24
Sunday, Jan. 11, 2009 - Heinz Field (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers' run through AFC Playoffs came to abrupt end in Pittsburgh as Steelers dealt Chargers 35-24 setback on cold and snowy day in Steel City. Chargers staked out to early lead on long touchdown catch by Vincent Jackson and led or were tied for most of first half, but game's momentum changed right before and right after halftime. Down 10-7, Pittsburgh drove 66 yards for touchdown just before halftime, giving them their first lead of night at 14-10. Steelers got ball first coming out of locker room and drove 77 yards for another score that extended lead to 21-10. Darren Sproles' 63-yard kickoff return gave ball to Chargers at Pittsburgh's 23-yard line, but Philip Rivers' first-down pass was tipped and intercepted by Steelers. Though replays showed ball appeared to hit ground, play withstood instant replay challenge and Pittsburgh maintained possession. Chargers' defense held and forced punt, but punt inadvertently hit unknowing Eric Weddle and Steelers recovered and took over at Chargers' 23. Again Chargers defense would hold, stopping Pittsburgh on downs at one, but with Bolts offense unable to get out of shadow of its own goal line, Steelers got ball again in San Diego territory and 49 yards later, Steelers scored to take 28-10 lead. San Diego managed pair of late touchdowns, including 62-yarder by Sproles, who finished game with 274 all-purpose yards, but Pittsburgh held Bolts at bay and held on for win.

2008 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 23, Indianapolis Colts 17 (OT)
Saturday, Jan. 3, 2009 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The San Diego Chargers' miracle season of 2008 stayed alive as Bolts rallied from 17-14 fourth quarter deficit behind outstanding defensive effort and legs of Darren Sproles to defeat Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in Saturday night home playoff game at Qualcomm Stadium. After trailing 7-0 and 10-7, Chargers rallied and led 14-10 at half. In third quarter, Colts caught Chargers off-guard while substituting defenders and made them pay with 72-yard TD pass from Peyton Manning to Reggie Wayne. San Diego's defense settled down though and did not allow Colts any more points. Key defensive stand late in fourth quarter, fueled by Tim Dobbins' sack of Manning at Colts' one-yard line, allowed offense time for one final drive in regulation. Philip Rivers drove Bolts to Colts' eight-yard line and Nate Kaeding's field goal from 26 yards out tied game with 31 seconds left. San Diego won coin toss in overtime and Rivers led offense on 11-play, 75-yard march that ended with 22-yard touchdown run by Sproles to win game in overtime. Sproles finished night with 328 all-purpose yards, third-most ever by player in NFL Playoff game. Dobbins' sack that enabled Bolts to begin comeback was first of his career.

2007 AFC Championship Game
New England Patriots 21, San Diego Chargers 12
Sunday, Jan. 20, 2008 - Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, MA)

Despite playing with torn ACL in his right knee, Philip Rivers started and played entire game. Contest was played in subfreezing weather with kickoff temperature of 23 degrees and wind-chill factor of nine degrees. Chargers were doomed by their inability to score touchdowns inside red zone, instead settling for four Nate Kaeding field goals. NFL rushing champion LaDainian Tomlinson, who was suffering from strained MCL in his left knee, tried to go, but was unable to complete game. Chargers struck first following Tom Brady interception. Chargers were also hurt by turnovers as second-quarter interception thrown by Rivers resulted in TD and 14-6 lead for Pats. Chargers made another run at Patriots in third quarter, intercepting Brady on opening drive. It would lead to one of game's most critical plays. After turnover, Chargers drove to New England's four, but on 3rd-and-1, Michael Turner was tackled for two-yard loss by former Bolt Junior Seau and Chargers had to settle for another field goal. New England made Chargers pay three series later as Wes Welker caught six-yard pass from Brady and Patriots extended their lead to 21-12. After San Diego punt, New England took ball with 9:13 to play in fourth quarter and killed entire clock, overcoming 2nd-and-18 early in drive. With win, Patriots advanced to Super Bowl XLII to face New York Giants.

2007 AFC Divisional Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 28, Indianapolis Colts 24
Sunday, Jan. 13, 2008 - RCA Dome (Indianapolis, IN)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship game in New England with 28-24 win in final-ever game at RCA Dome. Contest included multiple lead changes that were sparked by handful of reserves who were forced into action after key starters were sidelined with injuries. Down 7-0, Philip Rivers threw interception and Colts drove to Chargers' 17-yard line, but Antonio Cromartie forced fumble by Marvin Harrison to end threat. Chargers capitalized, tying game on touchdown pass from Rivers to Vincent Jackson. Late in second quarter, Cromartie snagged his second takeaway when slightly overthrown Peyton Manning pass went off Reggie Wayne's fingertips. Cromartie returned interception 89 yards for what appeared to be go-ahead score, but holding call during return brought play back to midfield and teams went to locker room with Indy up 10-7. Chargers scored on their opening possession of second half and took their first lead at 14-10. Indianapolis then drove to Chargers' four, but rookie safety Eric Weddle intercepted pass intended for Kenton Keith. On last play of third quarter, Rivers tossed his third touchdown pass of day, short screen that Darren Sproles took 56 yards to house, but euphoria of 21-17 lead was temporarily dampened as Rivers left game with sprained right knee suffered on play. With Rivers out, LaDainian Tomlinson also battling sore knee and Colts retaking lead 24-21, backups Billy Volek and Michael Turner were called on to carry load. And they delivered with Volek giving Chargers lead one final time on one-yard quarterback sneak with 4:54 remaining. Colts had two late tries to reclaim lead, but Bolts defense buckled down with two stops on downs, including one at Chargers' seven yard line and another that started far down field thanks to 66-yard punt by Mike Scifres as Chargers held on for victory.

2007 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 17, Tennessee Titans 6
Sunday, Jan. 6, 2008 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers won their first playoff game since 1995 on cool day with intermittent rain showers before capacity crowd at Qualcomm Stadium. Bolts overcame slow start and 6-0 deficit at half to rally and outscore Titans 17-0 in third and fourth quarters to win game, 17-6. Chris Chambers and Vincent Jackson became first pair of Chargers to each record more than 100 yards receiving in playoff game since 1983 as Chambers went for 121, while Jackson tallied career-high 114, including touchdown catch that proved to be eventual game winner. Nate Kaeding field goal to open third quarter made score 6-3 and after defensive stop, Philip Rivers tossed 25-yard TD pass to Jackson for 10-6 lead. Tennessee drove deep into San Diego territory on their next drive, but Rob Bironas pushed 38-yard field goal wide to left and Chargers made them pay. Rivers engineered 12-play, 72-yard drive and LaDainian Tomlinson scored from one yard out on fourth-and-one play to put game away. Chambers 39-yard catch on 3rd-and-10 play set up score. Late in game Tennessee was stymied in its comeback effort by three-and-out and Drayton Florence interception. Titans finished their year 10-7, while Chargers advanced to face Indianapolis in AFC Divisional Playoff round.

2006 AFC Divisional Playoffs
New England Patriots 24, San Diego Chargers 21
Sunday, Jan. 14, 2007 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers' record-breaking season came to end in heartbreaking fashion when New England Patriots overcame eight point deficit in fourth quarter to defeat Chargers, 24-21, in AFC Divisional Playoff game before record crowd of 68,810 in San Diego. After sluggish start by both teams, San Diego took 14-3 lead in second quarter on touchdown runs by LaDainian Tomlinson and Michael Turner, but Bolts defense gave up late score and Patriots trailed only 14-10 at half. New England added field goal in third quarter to climb within point, but Chargers drove 83 yards in nine plays early in fourth and took 21-13 lead when Tomlinson scored from three yards out. Game appeared to be all but over when Marlon McCree intercepted Tom Brady on following drive, but Patriots' Troy Brown stripped McCree during runback and Patriots recovered. Five plays later, Reche Caldwell caught four-yard touchdown pass and Pats tied it up on successful two-point conversion. Chargers got ball back with chance to reclaim lead but instead went three-and-out and New England took 24-21 lead on 31-yard field goal with 1:10 left in quarter. Chargers rallied one last time, but Nate Kaeding's 54-yard field goal attempt with just few seconds left came up short and Patriots escaped with win.

2004 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
New York Jets 20, San Diego Chargers 17 (OT)
Saturday, Jan. 8, 2005 - Qualcomm Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers' 2004 postseason came to early end as in 20-17 overtime loss to New York Jets in Wild Card Playoff Game at Qualcomm Stadium. Sellout crowd of 67,536 braved elements as Drew Brees led furious fourth quarter comeback during which Chargers outscored New York 10-0 to send game into overtime. Given new life by roughing-the-passer penalty on what appeared to be San Diego's last play of game, Brees found Antonio Gates in end zone for one-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to send game to extra period. It was only second overtime playoff game in team history. Both teams traded possessions in extra period before Nate Kaeding's game-winning attempt from 40 yards sailed wide right, opening door for New York to drive down and kick game winner with five seconds left in overtime. Keenan McCardell scored game's first touchdown on 26-yard catch. He was initially ruled out of bounds, but San Diego challenged call and ruling was reversed. It was McCardell's sixth-career touchdown catch in postseason. Brees opened game by completing his first eight passes and on McCardell touchdown drive, he was 5 of 5 for 61 yards and touchdown. He finished night 31 of 42 (.738), setting team playoff record for completion percentage.

Super Bowl XXIX
San Francisco 49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Sunday, Jan. 29, 1995 - Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

The Chargers were no match for high-powered San Francisco offense as 49ers scored early and often en route to handing San Diego 49-26 defeat. Steve Young passed for four first-half touchdowns as 49ers jumped out to 28-10 lead at halftime. barrage continued in second half and Young finished night with 325 yards and six touchdown passes. Chargers' offense was forced to play catch-up most of game, and as result, quarterback Stan Humphries passed 49 times, completing 24 for 275 yards with one touchdown, but two interceptions proved costly. Natrone Means became youngest player in Super Bowl history to score touchdown when 22-year-old dived over 49ers' defense for a one-yard scoring plunge in first quarter. Chargers rookie Andre Coleman tied Super Bowl record for longest kickoff return when he went 98 yards for touchdown in third quarter. Following kickoff return, Humphries passed to Mark Seay for first two-point conversion in Super Bowl history. Later, after 30-yard Humphries to Tony Martin touchdown pass late in fourth quarter, Humphries completed his second two-point conversion of game, this time to Alfred Pupunu. Linebackers Dennis Gibson and Junior Seau led Chargers with 11 tackles apiece, while Seau added sack. Raylee Johnson paced Chargers with two sacks.

1994 AFC Championship Game
San Diego Chargers 17, Pittsburgh Steelers 13
Sunday, Jan. 15, 1995 - Three Rivers Stadium (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers advanced to Super Bowl for first time in franchise history with stunning 17-13 upset victory over heavily-favored Pittsburgh Steelers in Three Rivers Stadium. San Diego started game slowly and Pittsburgh led Bolts 10-3 at end of first half, while outgaining San Diego in total yardage, 229 to 46. Steelers opened second half with field goal to extend lead to 13-3. Later in quarter, Stan Humphries connected with Al Pupunu on 43-yard touchdown strike to close gap to 13-10. Score remained as such until late in fourth quarter when Humphries threw another 43-yard touchdown pass, this one to Tony Martin, and Bolts claimed their first lead of game at 17-13. Pittsburgh took ensuing kickoff and drove to Chargers' nine-yard line with two minutes left in game, but San Diego's defense stopped Steelers on downs, including dramatic pass defensed on fourth down by linebacker Dennis Gibson that sealed victory and silenced Three Rivers crowd.

1994 AFC Divisonal Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 22, Miami Dolphins 21
Sunday, Jan. 8, 1995 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers advanced to AFC Championship Game with 22-21 victory over Miami Dolphins in front of San Diego-record home crowd of 63,381 fans. Win moved Chargers to AFC title round for only third time in team history and first time since 1982. Dan Marino threw three first-half touchdown passes and Dolphins led 21-6 at half. San Diego's offense came alive and dominated third quarter. Chargers took opening drive of second half and marched 15 plays to Dolphins' one-yard line before losing ball on downs. But on Miami's first play from scrimmage, Reuben Davis stopped Bernie Parmalee in end zone for safety to make score 21-8. San Diego took ensuing kick and Natrone Means finished 54-yard drive with 24-yard scoring run, breaking several tackles along way and Dolphin lead was trimmed to 21-15. Teams traded possessions through fourth quarter before Stan Humphries hit Mark Seay for what would prove to be game-winning touchdown. But before that could happen, Marino moved Dolphins to San Diego's 30-yard line with 35 seconds left and positioned Pete Stoyanovich for 48-yard field goal attempt, but kick sailed wide right. San Diego dominated game's time of possession, controlling ball 39:20 compared to Miami's 20:40. Another factor was San Diego's running game, which rolled up 202 of team's 466 total yards. Means rushed for personal best 139 yards and Humphries completed 20 of 26 attempts in second half.

1992 AFC Divisonal Playoffs
Miami Dolphins 31, San Diego Chargers 0
Sunday, Jan. 10, 1993 - Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

The Chargers history-making season ended with 31-0 loss to Miami Dolphins in Joe Robbie Stadium. Intermittent downpours and soggy field slowed both teams early as each squad was forced to punt on their first four series. Second quarter proved disastrous for San Diego. Stan Humphries was intercepted three times with each leading to Dolphins touchdown and 21-0 halftime lead for Miami. San Diego also suffered fumbled snap on punt attempt in period. Chargers could not get on track in second half either, as Miami chalked up 10 more points and forced two more San Diego turnovers. Chargers' defense was on field most of game (37:08). Junior Seau recorded personal-best 19 tackles. Dolphins special teams put Chargers in poor field position on several occasions, including punts, which pinned San Diego's offense back on its own five, six, four and 15-yard lines.

1992 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 17, Kansas City Chiefs 0
Saturday, Jan. 2, 1993 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

San Diego defeated Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in AFC Wild Card playoffs in San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium. It marked first shutout in history of Wild Card games. It was also first shutout by Chargers over Kansas City and first time Chiefs were shut out in non-strike game since 1985. Two defensive powerhouses battled to scoreless first half. Chargers gained 130 total yards to Chiefs' 122 yards in half, but were sacked four times for 47 yards in losses. San Diego scored first when Marion Butts dashed up middle career-long 54 yards for touchdown. On Chiefs first play of their next possession, tipped pass by Blaise Winter was intercepted by Leslie O'Neal to set up field goal. Up 10-0 in fourth quarter, Chargers put together 11-play, 91-yard drive and culminated series with five-yard scoring plunge by Steve Hendrickson. Chargers gained 192 yards on ground, their second-most productive effort of season. Defense harassed Chiefs passing game causing two interceptions and sacking Dave Krieg seven times to tie season high. Burt Grossman had two-and-a-half sacks and O'Neal and Shawn Lee each had two.

1982 AFC Wild Card Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 31, Pittsburgh Steelers 28
Sunday, Jan. 9, 1983 - Three Rivers Stadium (Pittsburgh, PA)

The Chargers, fifth-seeded AFC team in Super Bowl Tournament, played opening round of playoffs on road for first time, facing AFC's fourth-seeded team, Pittsburgh. After falling behind 14-3 in first quarter, Chargers took 17-14 lead at halftime on 18-yard James Brooks touchdown run and 10-yard scoring pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. With 14:10 remaining in game, Fouts threw eight-yard touchdown strike on fourth down to Kellen Winslow to move San Diego within four points at 28-24. And with 3:59 left to play, San Diego mounted its game-winning drive and Fouts hit Winslow on screen pass that he carried 12 yards for touchdown and victory. Workhorse of Chargers' offense was Chuck Muncie, who gained 126 yards on 25 attempts. It was Muncie's third-straight 100 yard performance and second-straight against league's number one rated run defense. Fouts threw for 333 yards against Steelers, his fifth career 300-yard effort in playoffs.

1981 AFC Championship Game
Cincinnati Bengals 27, San Diego Chargers 7
Sunday, Jan. 10, 1982 - Riverfront Stadium (Cincinnati, OH)

The Chargers lost to Cincinnati in AFC Championship game on coldest day in NFL history. Temperature in Cincinnati dipped to nine-degrees-below-zero with wind chill factor measuring 59-below zero. Cincinnati won coin toss and elected to kick off, forcing San Diego to go into wind in first quarter. Bengals moved ahead 10-0 before teams switched directions in second period and Chargers scored on their first possession on 33-yard screen pass from Dan Fouts to Kellen Winslow and Cincinnati led 17-7 at halftime. Chargers were statistical leaders in first half, but three turnovers inside Bengals' 33-yard line proved costly. San Diego turned ball over to start third quarter leading to another Cincinnati score, and three-yard touchdown pass from Ken Anderson to Don Bass culminated 8:08 drive in final period to clinch Bengals victory. Wes Chandler led all receivers with six catches for 79 yards and Chuck Muncie led all rushers with 23 carries and 94 yards.

1981 AFC Divisional Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 41, Miami Dolphins 38 (OT)
Saturday, Jan. 2, 1982 - Orange Bowl (Miami, FL)

The Chargers traveled to Miami's Orange Bowl to face AFC East Division champion Miami and won epic struggle, 41-38, on 29-yard Rolf Benirscke field goal at 13:52 mark of first overtime period. San Diego jumped out to early 24-0 lead, only to have Dolphins close gap under direction of substitute quarterback Don Strock. Score was 24-17 at halftime and in second half Dolphins knotted score at 24 and again at 31 before assuming their first lead, 38-31, on 12-yard run by Tony Nathan. But late in fourth quarter after Dolphin turnover, Dan Fouts threw eight-yard TD pass to James Brooks with 58 seconds left in regulation to tie game, 38-38. With four seconds left Dolphins had chance to win it but Miami's 43-yard field goal try was blocked by Kellen Winslow, sending game into overtime. In OT Benirschke missed 27-yard attempt and Uwe Von Schamann had another attempt blocked, this time by Leroy Jones. Ultimately, Chargers' game-winning drive was highlighted by receptions of 20 and 29 yards by Wes Chandler and Charlie Joiner, respectively. Fouts set division playoff passing records for completions, attempts and yards, as did Winslow with 13 catches. Chandler had 56-yard punt return for touchdown for Chargers, first-ever punt return for touchdown in AFC divisional playoff game. Chargers broke total 15 divisional playoff team records and tied two others.

1980 AFC Championship Game
Oakland Raiders 34, San Diego Chargers 27
Sunday, Jan. 11, 1981 - Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Oakland took 28-7 lead in first half and then held off late San Diego bid to beat Chargers for American Football Conference championship. On third play from scrimmage, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett had pass bounce off hands of his intended receiver Kenny King and into grasp of Raymond Chester, who took pass in for 65-yard score. San Diego's initial drive was halted when John Jefferson slipped on wet turf and Dan Fouts' pass zipped into hands of defender Lester Hayes. Chargers tied score minutes later on 48-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner but Oakland retaliated with 76-yard scoring drive, aided by Plunkett pass to Cliff Branch for 48 yards and pass interference penalty. By end ofthe first quarter, Oakland led 21-7, and two quarterbacks had combined for 314 yards passing. Oakland later scored on three-yard run by Mark Van Eeghen, making score 28-7. San Diego scored near end of first half on eight-yard pass from Fouts toJoiner. In third quarter, Rolf Benirschke kicked field goal and Chuck Muncie scored from six yards to narrow Raiders' lead to 28-24. Oakland then marched 68 and 37 yards to set up two Chris Bahr field goals while running 10:38 off clock. Trailing 34-24 Chargers drove for field goal from Benirschke that left them one touchdown behind with 6:52 to play, but Oakland controlled ball for final 6:52 and held on for victory.

1980 AFC Divisonal Playoffs
San Diego Chargers 20, Buffalo Bills 14
Saturday, Jan. 3, 1981 - San Diego Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Ron Smith on 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 remaining in fourth quarter for game-winning score. Fouts completed pass on 3rd-and-10 with Chargers trailing 14-13. With win Chargers advanced to American Football Conference Championship Game against Oakland. Fouts completed 22 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns, 20th 300-yard game of his career. San Diego's defense held Buffalo to 97 yards rushing. 50-yard, game-winning touchdown catch was longest of Smith's career. Down 14-3 at half, momentum changed in third quarter with Chargers going 70 yards in four plays for touchdown on first series. Chuck Muncie ran for 18 yards, then Charlie Joiner caught 45-yard pass and two plays later, Joiner capped off drive with nine-yard scoring reception, making score 14-10. Down 14-13 after field goal, Chargers started their final drive at Buffalo 31-yard line with 3:59 to play. Passes to Mike Thomas and John Jefferson put ball at midfield, setting stage for Fouts' game-winner to Smith.

1979 AFC Divisonal Playoffs
Houston Oilers 17, San Diego Chargers 14
Saturday, Dec. 29, 1979 - San Diego Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The Chargers 1979 season, featuring one of best teams in franchise history, ended in disappointment as Bolts fell to Houston Oilers, 17-14, in Divisonal Playoff game at San Diego Stadium. Chargers were rolling early and took 7-0 lead on Clarence Williams' one-yard touchdown on Bolts first offensive possession of game. But Houston scored 10 unanswered points in second quarter and led at half, 10-7. On opening drive of third quarter, San Diego reclaimed lead when Lydell Mitchell scored on eight-yard run for 14-10 lead. Houston came back later in quarter as Mike Renfro caught 47-yard touchdown pass from Gifford Nielsen and Oilers jumped back out to 17-14 lead. Chargers tried to fight back in fourth quarter, but two Dan Fouts interceptions proved costly and Houston upset Chargers and eliminated them from playoffs.

1965 AFL Championship Game
Buffalo Bills 23, San Diego Chargers 0
Sunday, Dec. 26, 1965 - Balboa Stadium (San Diego, CA)

It was same two teams that met in 1964 Championship game with scene shifting from East to West Coast. But there obviously was no hometown advantage for San Diego Chargers. Coach Lou Saban's Buffalo Bills found 59-degree weather much to their liking in San Diego's Balboa Stadium, rolling to 23-0 victory before 30,361 downhearted fans. San Diego's offensive unit was unable to generate any type of serious attack after first quarter and Jack Kemp-led Bills broke loose in second period. Kemp teamed with end Ernie Warlick for initial score, 18-yard pass play capping 60-yard drive. Just 2:20 later, Bills struck again on 74-yard punt return by Butch Byrd and at halftime, Buffalo was ahead 14-0. In second half, Chargers were able to contain Buffalo's ground game and Kemp's passing, but couldn't stop talented toe of placekicker Pete Gogolak. His soccer-style kicks connected twice in third quarter from 11 and 39 yards and once more in final period from 32 yards.

1964 AFL Championship Game
Buffalo Bills 20, San Diego Chargers 7
Sunday, Dec. 26, 1964 - War Memorial Stadium (Buffalo, NY)

Lou Saban sent his Buffalo Bills out for post-Christmas gift after three lean years and one near miss in American Football League. Bills found what they were looking for and wrapped up defending champion San Diego Chargers, 20-7, for AFL Championship before 40,242 howling hometown fans. Chargers started out as if they meant to repeat their 51-10 conquest of Boston Patriots in 1963 title game. They boomed from their own 20 in four plays with payoff 26-yard strike from retiring quarterback Tobin Rote to tight end Dave Kocourek. Keith Lincoln's PAT at 2:16 of first period was last time San Diego got on scoreboard. Disaster soon struck visitors when Lincoln was forced out of action with broken rib on "the tackle heard around world" by Buffalo linebacker Mike Stratton. Coupled with absence of Lance Alworth, injury to Lincoln left Chargers offense impotent. Buffalo forged to 13-7 halftime lead on field goals from 12 and 17 yards by rookie ace Pete Gogolak and four-yard touchdown run by halfback Wray Carlton. Bills tallied again in final quarter on sneak by quarterback Jack Kemp.

1963 AFL Championship Game
San Diego Chargers 51, Boston Patriots 10
Sunday, Jan. 5, 1964 - Balboa Stadium (San Diego, CA)

Before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium and 30 million more on national television, Keith Lincoln ran, caught and passed like no other athlete ever has in professional title match as Californians crumbled Boston Patriots, 51-10. Chargers' offense produced 610 yards. Lincoln accounted for 349 of them in virtuoso performance that included touchdown sprint of 67 yards, touchdown reception of 25 yards, 206 yards gained rushing, 123 gained pass receiving and 20 gained passing. Lincoln's heroics were mightily abated by others on San Diego team that played with brilliance. It was powerhouse show by team that had failed in two previous tries to win AFL title. But Patriots, with league's proudest defensive outfit, were no match for San Diegans. Splendidly prepared by Sid Gilman to combat Boston's almost constantly rushing linebackers, Chargers scored on their fourth scrimmage play, as well as their sixth and 10th. Patriots' ground attack suffered after fullback Larry Garron incurred head injury midway through second period. Garron later returned to game but remained in it only briefly.

1961 AFL Championship Game
Houston Oilers 10, San Diego Chargers 3
Sunday, Dec. 24, 1961 - Balboa Stadium (San Diego, CA)

The 1961 American Football League Championship game in San Diego's Balboa Stadium was carbon copy of previous season's title game in that Houston Oilers beat San Diego Chargers 10-3. On Jan. 1, 1961, Oilers edged Chargers, 24-16, in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium. Live audience of 29,556 fans and nationwide television audience estimated in vicinity of 40 million viewers witnessed monument to defensive football at its best. Crowd at stadium was limited because game was played on Christmas Eve and game was telecast into Los Angeles area and many San Diegans received LA's ABC affiliate, Channel 7. Oilers scored on 46-yard field goal by George Blanda midway through second quarter and added clincher, 35-yard touchdown pass by Blanda to Billy Cannon, late in third quarter. Chargers only scoring came on 12-yard field goal early in final period. Indication of evenness of ballgame is that both clubs had total net offense of 256 yards.

1960 AFL Championship Game
Houston Oilers 24, Los Angeles Chargers 16
Sunday, Jan. 1, 1961 - Jeppesen Stadium (Houston, TX)

The American Football League's first championship game took place Jan. 1, 1961 between Eastern Divison champion Houston Oilers and Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers in Jeppesen Stadium, home of Eastern titlists. Outcome: Houston 24, Los Angeles 16. In 50 degree weather with 70 percent humidity due to week-long rains, Chargers took on Oilers before live crowd of 32,183 and television audience of approximately 45 million viewers. Ben Agajanian kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards to give Chargers 6-0 first quarter lead. In second quarter, Houston's George Blanda hit Dave Smith on 17-yard touchdown pass, added conversion and kicked 18-yard field goal. Agajanian kicked 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in half to make score Houston 10, Los Angeles 9 at half. In third quarter, Blanda completed seven-yard touchdown pass to Bill Groman and kicked conversion. Chargers responded when Paul Lowe slanted over from two-yard line and with Agajanian's conversion score was Houston 17, Los Angeles 16, at end of three quarters. In fourth quarter, Blanda and Billy Cannon teamed up on 88-yard pass-run touchdown play to conclude scoring. Player of game honors went to Cannon, with Blanda and Lowe deadlocked vote behind. Lowe's total yardage on day was 271 yards compared to Cannon's 259. Inability of Chargers to take ball in for touchdowns early in game, settling for three first-half field goals on each occasion, and several bad breaks late in game proved to be difference.

CHRONOLOGY

Aug. 14 – The first meeting about the new proposed football league is held in Chicago with representatives of six teams, including Los Angeles entry headed by Barron Hilton.

Aug. 22 – Second meeting of proposed football league is held in Dallas with the announcement that the league will be known as the "American Football League" (AFL).

Oct. 14 – Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame football coach, is named general manager of the Los Angeles team.

Oct. 28 – General Courtney of Hollywood wins a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco for his efforts in submitting the name "Chargers" into the name-the-team contest. The organization likes the name, Chargers, because "Charge" is what fans yell at USC games in the Coliseum.

1960

Jan. 7 – Sid Gillman signs three-year contract as Chargers' first head coach.

March 20 – Chargers Owner Barron Hilton unveils the Chargers first uniforms at a cocktail party at his Santa Monica residence. The uniforms are blue and gold with a lightning bolt on the side of the helmets and trousers. Hilton chose the lightning bolts because he associates a "Charge" of lightning with a lightning bolt. He also likes the bolts that are on the helmets of the Air Force Academy football team but wants something slightly different. He has the "Charger Bolt" designed to be different and places them on the uniforms. QB Jack Kemp and T Ron Mix model the uniforms.

April 9-12 – A total of 207 candidates are reduced to three. The three candidates receive invites to training camp after a four-day tryout in Burbank, Calif.

July 1 – General Manager Frank Leahy resigns due to health issues.

July 8 – Chargers open their first training camp at Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

CHARGERS RADIO NETWORK

As the Chargers' flagship English-language radio partner, iHeartMedia Los Angeles will again air all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games on KFI AM-640 – No. 1 in news, talk and sports in Los Angeles and Orange County, as well as across 13 affiliates. In addition to game broadcasts, KFI AM-640 and AM 570 LA Sports will broadcast 10 hours of game day coverage, while iHeartMedia Los Angeles' stable of eight radio stations will support the Chargers with year-round programming, marketing, community outreach and promotional content.

MATT "MONEY" SMITH

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Matt "Money" Smith enters his third season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers broadcast team. A fixture in Los Angeles sports for more than two decades, Smith is a co-host of the Petros & Money Show on AM 570. He is also a fantasy football analyst on the NFL Network's NFL Fantasy Live show and is regularly featured as part of NFL.com's coverage of the NFL Draft, the NFL Scouting Combine and the Super Bowl. Additionally, for the past seven years, Smith has handled play-by-play for Compass Media Network's coverage of NFL games, NCAA football and NCAA basketball and has also done television play-by-play for the Pac-12 Network and the NFL on Fox. From 2005-09, Smith hosted AM 570's Los Angeles Lakers pregame, halftime and post-game shows, and he was part of the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame morning program 'Kevin and Bean' on KROQ 106.7 FM in Los Angeles from 1995-2005.

DANIEL JEREMIAH

ANALYST

Jeremiah, a former NFL scout who spent a combined eight seasons with three NFL teams prior to joining the NFL Network in 2012, continues to partner with radio play-by-play announcer Matt "Money" Smith and sideline reporter Shannon Farren as the color analyst on KFI AM-640's Chargers game broadcasts. A 2000 graduate of Appalachian State, where he was a three-year starter at quarterback, Jeremiah began his NFL career as a personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens scouting department in 2003 and was promoted to area scout in 2005. Moving to the Cleveland Browns as a National Scout prior to the 2007 season, most recently he served as a West Coast scout for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2010-12. Currently a regular contributor on NFL.com and NFL Mobile, offering an Xs-and-Os look at players, teams and trends, the El Cajon, CA native also plays a vital role on various NFL Network programs such as NFL Total Access and Path to the Draft and is the co-host of the Move the Sticks Podcast with Bucky Brooks.

SHANNON FARREN

SIDELINE

Shannon Farren hosts The Gary and Shannon Show on KFI Monday thru Friday, 10a-2p. Before the show debuted in 2015, she spent 15 years reporting on news and sports in Sacramento, Seattle and Los Angeles. Shannon has won awards from the Radio and Television News Association of Southern California and the Associated Press including Best Sports Reporting, Best Spot News Coverage, Best Feature Reporting and Best Use of Sound. She can be seen on NBC4's Going Roggin. Last year was her first season working the sidelines for the Chargers.

CHARGERS EN ESPANOL

KFWB 980-AM La Mera Mera, housed under the Lotus Communications umbrella and the most listened to AM music station in the country in any language, will again broadcast all preseason, regular season and postseason Chargers games, including pre and postgame shows. The station, which dates back to 1925 and was the first to broadcast the annual Rose Parade in Pasadena, CA, will also air a weekly Chargers series throughout the season.

MARIO SOLIS

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Solis, who has received numerous accolades for his work, including several local Area Emmys, Golden Mikes and a regional Edward R. Murrow Award for Best Sports Reporting, will handle Spanish language play-by-play duties for KFWB AM-980's Chargers game broadcasts. Honored by the National Hispanic Media Coalition for excellence in broadcast journalism, Solis, currently weekend sports anchor and weekday sports reporter at NBC 4 Los Angeles, has more than two decades of sports broadcasting experience. He has covered nearly every major sporting event, including the Olympic Games and the World Cup, and previously served as a sportscaster for the Telemundo Network and its owned Southern California station KVEA 52. In addition to his duties as sports anchor and sports reporter, the Los Angeles native and USC alum has also served as the Spanish-language announcer for HBO's "World Championship Boxing" since 2001.

JORGE VILLANUEVA

ANALYST

Villanueva enters his 26th season working on the Spanish broadcast for the Chargers. He hosts and produces "En Contacto con los Chargers," the official Spanish TV show of the team, which is seen in San Diego, Los Angeles and Baja California. Villanueva previously worked as a sports director and anchor for KBNT-TV (Channel 17) Univision in San Diego, as well as for Televisa Baja California from 1989-94. He has 30 years of experience in sports journalism, and his play-by-play experience includes soccer, baseball and boxing. Villanueva handles the Spanish play-by-play for the Holiday Bowl and the NCAA's Bowl Championship Series. He spent the 2001-03 seasons as the football play-by-play voice for the USC Trojans and the 1994-96 seasons with the San Diego State Aztecs. In 2004, Villanueva received an invitation to join the American Sportscasters Association.

CHARGERS PRESEASON TELECAST

KABC-TV (ABC7), the most watched television station in Southern California, continues as the exclusive local television home of Chargers preseason football games in Los Angeles. ABC7 will air three games this coming preseason, with special pre and postgame coverage: Thursday, Aug. 8 at Arizona (7:00 pm PT), Saturday Aug. 24 vs. Seattle (7:00 pm PT) and Thursday, Aug. 29 at San Francisco (7:00 pm PT). Additionally, furthering the team's commitment to create a unified destination for all Chargers fans, ABC7 is partnering with KFWB-980 AM La Mera Mera to provide its Spanish-language play-by-play broadcast on the ABC7 SAP channel during all locally televised Chargers preseason games.

SPERO DEDES

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Spero Dedes enters his third season handling the play-by-play duties for the Chargers preseason contests. Dedes joined the CBS Television Network's coverage of THE NFL ON CBS and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship as a play-by-play announcer in 2010. He also calls regular-season college basketball, which began in the 2009-10 season for CBS Sports – nine years after working his first play-by-play assignment for the Network in 2004.

Dedes spent six seasons as the radio play-by-play voice of the Los Angeles Lakers before becoming a radio and television announcer for the New York Knicks in 2011, where he remained for three years. He has called play-by-play for Turner Sports' coverage of the NBA Playoffs since 2015. And he has called select NCAA men's basketball games for Westwood One Radio since 2017.

His extensive resume also includes play-by-play on Westwood One's coverage of NCAA football and basketball, the NFL on FOX, and in August of 2004 Dedes was stationed in Athens as a reporter/play-by-play announcer on NBC's coverage of the 2004 Summer Olympics.

The Paramus, N.J. native and 2001 Fordham graduate was the inaugural recipient of the Marty Glickman Award, given to the Fordham student announcer who best exemplifies the standards set by the late sports broadcasting icon.

DAN FOUTS

ANALYST

Dan Fouts, NFL Hall of Famer and former All-Pro quarterback returns to the preseason booth for the Chargers. Fouts will continue his work with CBS Sports as an analyst for THE NFL ON CBS.

Once again this year he will team with Ian Eagle and Evan Washburn. In June 2014, Eagle and Fouts were named the No. 2 NFL ON CBS announce team calling the Network's top Sunday game most weeks. Additionally, Fouts again will serve as radio analyst for selected games of Westwood One Radio Sports' coverage and the NFL Playoffs this season.

Before his return to CBS Sports, Fouts worked for ABC Sports from 1997 to 2008 as an analyst alongside Keith Jackson. He served as play-by-play announcer for ABC's coverage of Pac-10 college football (2006-2007). Before that, Fouts spent two years working with Al Michaels and Dennis Miller as an analyst on ABC's "Monday Night Football" before returning to call college games.

Fouts' 31-year broadcasting credits include covering the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Aloha Bowl, ABC's Superstars, NFL's "Air it Out," ABC's "Battle of the Gridiron Greats," "John Madden's Super Bowl Special" and the NFL Playoffs. In 1998 he made his big-screen debut when he and partner Brent Musburger portrayed themselves in the hit film "The Waterboy," starring Adam Sandler.

Fouts retired from the NFL after 15 seasons with the Chargers, where he was a six-time Pro Bowl selection. His years as pilot of the "Air Coryell" offense – named for the innovative passing game developed by his renowned head coach, Don Coryell – led to 42 team records and eight NFL records upon his retirement, including most 300-yard passing games. His 43,040 total passing yards made him the second-most-prolific passer in NFL history. Fouts earned NFL and AFC Player of the Year honors in 1982, and was named AFC Most Valuable Player in 1979 and league co-MVP in 1982. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1993, after being elected in his first year of eligibility. Fouts currently serves on the Hall of Fame's Advisory Committee and is one of the first inductees to serve as a voter for Hall of Fame eligibility. He also served on a blue ribbon panel of former and current players, coaches, executives and media members to select the NFL's All-Time team in celebration of the league's 100th season.

LaDAINIAN TOMLINSON

ANALYST

NFL Hall of Fame running back and former NFL Most Valuable Player, LaDainian Tomlinson, will begin his second season in the booth as an analyst for the preseason broadcasts. Tomlinson, who holds 28 team records, as well as the NFL single-season record for rushing touchdowns, supports the organization and expands its community outreach as the franchise continues the transition to Los Angeles.

Tomlinson, who is an analyst on NFL Network, focuses on engaging fans and the community, sharing his passion for the Chargers and game of football.

On top of his broadcast responsibilities, Tomlinson's duties include helping to further develop fan engagement and community relations programs for the Los Angeles Chargers. The five-time Pro Bowl standout works with the organization to maintain an active presence in the community, building on the momentum the team has established with its call to "Fight for LA". Tomlinson's long and storied history with the team gives him a unique perspective, allowing him to continue building the Chargers' fan base in their new home.

HAYLEY ELWOOD

SIDELINE

Elwood enters her second season on the sideline for the Chargers.

Prior to becoming the Chargers' team reporter in April 2017, she worked as the team's contributing writer for three seasons.

Along with her work for the Chargers, she covered Super Bowl LIII for the NFL as a roving reporter for Opening Night alongside NFL Network's Scott Hanson and Dave Dameshek and co-hosted the in-stadium pregame show on Super Bowl Sunday with Hanson.

Elwood returns to Los Angeles after spending the 2015-2016 season with the Los Angeles Lakers as the team's in-arena host. For about half of the home games, including Kobe Bryant's curtain call, she hosted the team's pregame show, LakersTV, and conducted on-court contests for sold out crowds.

Prior to joining the Chargers, Elwood got her start interning for EAG Sports Management under the direction of Denise White. Additionally, she's worked as a field reporter covering high school football recruiting for FOX Sports and Scout.com and a production assistant for CBS8 and FOX Sports San Diego. She is a proud graduate of UC San Diego (Muir College c/o 2010) with a degree in communication.
